INTRODUCTION

The Joint Commission on Public Ethics (the “Commission”) was established by the Public Integrity Reform Act of 2011, Chapter 399 of the Laws of 2011 (“PIRA”). (See Executive Law §94 attached hereto as Appendix A.)

PIRA comprehensively reformed the oversight and regulation of ethics and lobbying in New York State and granted the Commission broad regulatory authority and oversight over State legislators, candidates for the Legislature, and legislative employees, as well as the four statewide elected officials, candidates for those offices, executive branch employees, certain political party chairs, and lobbyists and their clients. The Commission’s statutory mandates include providing information, education, and advice regarding current ethics and lobbying laws, and promoting compliance with these laws through audits, investigations, and enforcement proceedings.

The Commission commenced operation on December 14, 2011 with the appointment of its fourteen Commissioners, who, in turn, appointed its first Executive Director. During 2012, the Commission’s first full year in operation, the focus was on creating the agency. This included filling critical staff positions and restructuring the agency to best achieve its mission. In 2013, the Commission built on this foundation, meeting statutory mandates and appointing Letizia Tagliafierro as its second Executive Director.

Pursuant to Section 94(9)(l) of the Executive Law and Section (1-d)(g) of the Legislative Law (the “Lobbying Act”) this annual report summarizes the activities of the Commission in 2013, including data relating to ethics and lobbying regulation. The report also highlights some of the Commission’s achievements during 2013, including the administration and improvement of procedures relating to the new disclosure requirements in PIRA; reviewing nearly 200 potential investigative matters; processing more than 27,000 Financial Disclosure Statements filed by State officials and more than 40,000 disclosure filings by lobbyists and their clients; and significantly expanding the Commission’s advisory and guidance platform with the introduction of its new comprehensive ethics training program. The Commission continues its efforts to conduct a comprehensive review of the effectiveness of existing laws, regulations and opinions that address ethics and lobbying, and will include its findings in a report by February 2015 in accordance with Executive Law §94(1).

Among other information detailed in this report, total lobbying expenditures for 2013 topped $210 million, a slight increase from the prior year's lobbying expenditures. Notably, lobbying advertising expenses continued to decrease significantly, while spending on professional lobbying services through retained or employed lobbyists continued to rise as it has for the last five years. Lobbyist compensation reached a record of $191 million in 2013. In contrast, the level of spending among top spenders did not change significantly between 2012 and 2013. In 2013, the top spenders included a tobacco manufacturer and retailers, teachers unions, and health care associations.

Separately, in conjunction with this annual report, the Commission will publish in spreadsheet format on its website the complete data filed by lobbyists and their clients for 2013. Introduced last year, these spreadsheets give the public easy access to, and the ability to perform custom analyses of, the data, thereby increasing transparency.

Additional summaries of lobbying data are included in this report. The full 2013 listing of lobbyists and public corporations and their financial data is attached hereto as Appendix B.

Statement of the Executive Director

I am pleased to present the 2013 Annual Report of the Joint Commission on Public Ethics (the "Commission"). The Commission serves a significant role in the operation and oversight of government – promoting integrity by helping those in public service understand their ethical obligations, ensuring transparency through rigorous public reporting disclosures, and providing accountability through enforcement actions to address ethical misconduct.

During the past two years, the agency has built a solid operational foundation as it implements landmark changes in the State's ethics and lobbying laws and meets unprecedented oversight responsibilities. In 2013, critical work was accomplished, including:

- ✦ adopting guidelines and regulations enacting new lobbying disclosure and gift restrictions;*
- ✦ overseeing the first disclosure of the outside income of elected officials, as well as providing convenient access to the information on the Commission's website; and*
- ✦ investigations and enforcement actions generating approximately $450,000 in penalties, including the first independent ethics enforcement action against a sitting legislator.*

The Commission also continued to promote transparency, from both those attempting to influence policymakers and those subject to such influence, through the administration of periodic disclosure filings representing more than $200 million in lobbying spending, as well as nearly 27,000 annual Financial Disclosure Statements from executive and legislative branch officers and employees.

I am honored to have been appointed in 2013 as the Commission's Executive Director. While the vast majority of public officials are dedicated and honest, the public's faith in our government has been damaged by those who have breached the public trust. The public has a right to hold their public officials to a higher standard, and public officials must be vigilant in complying with their ethical obligations and the special responsibilities that accompany public service. I am committed to providing the tools, education, and resources that enable those public officials who seek to comply with the law to do so. For those public officials who engage in misconduct, the Commission will continue to hold them accountable by pursuing enforcement actions under the ethics laws and working with our partners in law enforcement when the conduct is criminal, which falls outside of our jurisdiction.

I believe the Commission can foster a culture of ethical compliance and strengthen the public's confidence that the government is operating with integrity and impartiality. To that end, the Commission will undertake a series of outreach initiatives in 2014 – including dynamic and robust new trainings and materials for State employees, a new ethics training course for lobbyists, an open dialogue with the regulated communities and the general public, and enhancements to the Commission's website.

We remain mindful of the tension between the public's interest in transparency and the statute's requirement of, and need for, confidentiality in certain aspects of our work. During the past year, we have taken steps to provide more public information about Commission business when we can and we will continue to do so going forward.

The Commission looks forward to continuing its work in 2014, as we adhere to the notion that when there is integrity, transparency, and accountability in government, there will be greater trust in government.

The Public Integrity Reform Act of 2011

The Commission, which was formally constituted in December of 2011, continued the lobbying and ethics oversight functions of its predecessor agencies. Pursuant to PIRA, the Commission has broader regulatory authority and oversight to include State legislators, candidates for the Legislature and legislative employees, as well as the four statewide elected officials, executive branch State employees, lobbyists and their clients, and limited jurisdiction over candidates for State elected offices and certain political party chairs.

The Commission is made up of 14 commissioners, three appointed by the Temporary President of the Senate, three appointed by the Speaker of the Assembly, one appointed by the Minority Leader of the Senate, one appointed by the Minority Leader of the Assembly, and six appointed by the Governor and the Lieutenant Governor. The Commission chairperson is selected by the Governor. Terms for commissioners vary and are set forth in Executive Law §94.

The Commission meets at a minimum bimonthly and appoints an executive director to run the functions and administration of the agency.

Commissioners

Daniel J. Horwitz, Chair

Mr. Horwitz is currently a partner at McLaughlin & Stern, LLP, a mid-size law firm in New York City. Prior to joining the firm, Mr. Horwitz was a partner in an AmLaw 100 law firm. He previously served as a New York County assistant district attorney for nearly a decade, where he investigated and prosecuted complex business crimes in the Frauds Bureau. Mr. Horwitz was recognized in the 2009-2013 editions of New York Super Lawyers and in The Best Lawyers in America, 19th and 20th Editions, in the area of White-Collar Criminal Defense: White Collar and Business Litigation. In 2012 and 2013, Super Lawyers recognized Mr. Horwitz as a Top 100 New York Metro Attorney. Prior to his legal career, Mr. Horwitz served as legislative director to Congressman Thomas J. Downey. Mr. Horwitz received his J.D. cum laude from the American University Washington College of Law and his B.A. from Columbia University. Mr. Horwitz was appointed to the Commission by Governor Andrew M. Cuomo.

David Arroyo

Mr. Arroyo is senior vice president, legal affairs at Scripps Networks Interactive. Before joining Scripps, Mr. Arroyo practiced as a trial lawyer at a global law firm, and early in his career he clerked for a federal judge. He is a graduate of the University of Michigan Law School and Duke University. While at law school, he served as an associate and contributing editor of the Michigan Law Review. He previously served as the chairman of Latino Justice PRLDEF. Mr. Arroyo was appointed to the Commission by Governor Andrew M. Cuomo.

Paul Casteleiro

Mr. Casteleiro is a private practitioner concentrating on criminal trial and appellate matters and specializing in seeking justice for the wrongfully accused and convicted. For the past 30 years, Mr. Casteleiro has been closely affiliated with Centurion Ministries, the oldest national organization devoted to freeing the innocent and imprisoned. He has obtained exonerations in a number of cases, the overwhelming majority of which were without DNA evidence. Mr. Casteleiro has been a frequent commentator on wrongful conviction cases. In 1997, Mr. Casteleiro spearheaded the passage of a wrongful conviction compensation statute in New Jersey. With a B.A. from New York University and an LL.D from Rutgers University, Mr. Casteleiro has been both a public defender and an attorney for the Legal Aid Society before establishing his own office. He has served on various boards including Head Start of Rockland County and the New Jersey Association of Criminal Defense Lawyers. Mr. Casteleiro was appointed to the Commission by Assembly Speaker Sheldon Silver.

Hon. Joseph Covello

Justice Covello has more than 30 years of experience in law and justice. Justice Covello stepped down from the New York State Appellate Division in 2011 to return to private practice as a partner in the Long Island firm of Lynn, Gartner, Dunne & Covello, LLP. Before his appointment to the Appellate Division, he served as a trial judge in the Supreme Court, Nassau County. Prior to that, he served on the Appellate Term for the Ninth and Tenth Judicial Districts, and as a trial judge in District Court, Nassau County. He spent 16 years in private practice before becoming a judge. Justice Covello is a veteran of the United States Army, having served in the United States Army's Presidential Honor Guard. He is a graduate of the State University of New York at Buffalo and Hofstra University School of Law. Justice Covello was appointed to the Commission by Senate Majority Leader Dean G. Skelos.

LaShann DeArcy

Ms. DeArcy is a partner in the law firm Morrison & Foerster, LLP, as a trial lawyer with a focus on complex commercial litigation. She also serves as a commissioner of the New York City Taxi and Limousine Commission, as a member of the board of trustees for the Neighborhood Defender Service of Harlem, an executive member of the Council of Urban Professionals, a member of the Metro Manhattan Chapter of the Links, Inc., and as a member of the Howard University School of Law Board of Visitors. For her work in promoting diversity in the legal profession, Ms. DeArcy was honored by the New York City Bar Association as a recipient of its 2009 Diversity Champion Award. Ms. DeArcy served in the United States Air Force and earned her J.D. magna cum laude from Howard University School of Law in 2000, and her undergraduate degree from Antioch College in 1992. Ms. DeArcy was appointed to the Commission by Senate Minority leader John L. Sampson.

Mitra Hormozi

Ms. Hormozi is a partner with the law firm Zuckerman Spaeder LLP and served as chairperson of the New York State Commission on Public Integrity through 2011. She previously served as the special deputy chief of staff in the New York Attorney General's Office, where she supervised high-profile initiatives involving public integrity. Prior to that, she spent more than six years as an assistant United States attorney for the Eastern District of New York, where she was chief of the Organized Crime and Racketeering Section and received numerous top law enforcement awards. Ms. Hormozi is a graduate of the University of Michigan and the New York University School of Law. Ms. Hormozi was appointed to the Commission by Governor Andrew M. Cuomo.

Marvin E. Jacob

Mr. Jacob is a recently retired partner of Weil, Gotshal & Manges LLP, where he focused primarily on corporate financial restructurings. Prior to joining Weil in 1979 as a partner, he served as the associate regional administrator of the New York office of the United States Securities and Exchange Commission. During his tenures at the SEC and Weil, he taught bankruptcy reorganization and securities regulation at New York Law School as an adjunct professor of law and published and lectured extensively. Since his retirement from Weil, Mr. Jacob's practice has focused primarily on mediations, arbitrations, public service and pro bono matters. From 2006-2009, Mr. Jacob served as a member of the New York State Commission on Judicial Conduct and in 2010 was appointed to the Governor's Task Force on Public Authority Reform. Mr. Jacob was appointed to the Commission by Assembly Speaker Sheldon Silver.

Seymour Knox, IV

Mr. Knox is the CEO of Knox International, LLC, a New York-based marketing and consulting group. For twenty years, Mr. Knox served as vice president of corporate relations for the Buffalo Sabres. He has served on various boards including the Albright-Knox Art Gallery in Buffalo, Parks and Trails New York, Artpark in Lewiston, and the George Eastman House in Rochester. He graduated from Lake Forest College with a B.A. in American Studies and Art History. Mr. Knox was appointed to the Commission by Governor Andrew M. Cuomo.

Gary J. Lavine

Mr. Lavine is associated of counsel with the Syracuse law firm of Bousquet Holstein PLLC. Mr. Lavine served in the United States Department of Energy as deputy general counsel for environment and nuclear programs during the administration of President George W. Bush. He served as senior vice president and chief legal officer of Niagara Mohawk Holdings Inc. and senior vice president, legal and corporate relations of Niagara Mohawk Power Corporation. Mr. Lavine has served in a number of staff positions with the New York State Legislature, including legislative counsel to the Minority Leader of the Assembly; counsel, Senate Committee on Insurance; executive director, Senate Committee on Corporations, Authorities & Commissions; and assistant to the chair, Joint Legislative Committee on Reapportionment. He served four terms as a member of the United States Commission for the Preservation of America’s Heritage Abroad. He received degrees in both business administration and law from Syracuse University. Mr. Lavine was appointed to the Commission by Governor Andrew M. Cuomo.

Hon. Mary Lou Rath

Ms. Rath represented the 61st Senate District in Western New York from 1993 until her retirement in 2008. She was the first woman to serve in a leadership position in the Senate Majority and had numerous legislative accomplishments, especially in the area of health care. During her tenure, she co-chaired the Legislature’s Administrative Review Commission and authored the report “New York State’s Bureaucracy: In Need of an Attitude Adjustment.” She also served as chair of the Senate Medicaid Reform Task Force’s subcommittee on long-term care. Ms. Rath has received many awards and honors in recognition of her distinguished public service in the Senate and as a member of the Erie County Legislature. Ms. Rath was appointed to the Commission by Senate Majority Leader Dean G. Skelos.

David A. Renzi

Mr. Renzi has practiced with the Watertown law firm of Brown, Dierdorf and Renzi since 2002 with an emphasis on municipal law, real estate law, business formation and estate planning. Mr. Renzi also currently serves as justice for the Town of Watertown. Previously, Mr. Renzi served as a Jefferson County assistant district attorney, and then as the Jefferson County Chief Public Defender. Mr. Renzi is a graduate of Syracuse University College of Law. Mr. Renzi was appointed to the Commission by Assembly Minority Leader Brian M. Kolb.

Michael A. Romeo, Sr.

Mr. Romeo is an insurance executive with more than 35 years of experience and is currently Executive Vice President of Industrial Coverage, a family-owned and operated insurance firm based in Long Island. He was previously President of the Suffolk County Independent Insurance Agents and Brokers of America and served as the Association's Automation Chairman, the largest agents' association of its kind in the United States. Mr. Romeo has also served as chairman of several automation user groups on both the local and national levels. Also during his insurance career, he has been selected to sit on various insurance companies' national and local agent councils. Mr. Romeo is currently on the Board of Directors of the Long Island Insurance Community and is actively involved in Long Island charitable drives as well as coaching local youth soccer. Mr. Romeo was appointed to the Commission by Governor Andrew M. Cuomo.

Hon. Renee Roth

Judge Roth is a graduate of the Fordham University School of Law and The City College of New York. She was elected Surrogate of New York County in 1982 where she served until 2008. She wrote over 130 reported opinions on various novel issues and designed the process for determining the death of the persons missing in the aftermath of the 9/11 attacks on the World Trade Center. Currently, Judge Roth is of counsel to McLaughlin & Stern, LLP; a Judicial Hearing Officer at the Supreme Court, New York County; and an Adjunct Professor at Fordham Law School. She also is the Chair of the Surrogate's Court

Advisory Committee of the Office of Court Administration. She previously was President of The City College Alumni Association; a Member of the Commission to Promote Public Confidence in Judicial Elections; a Member of the New York Task Force on Permanency Planning for Children; and a Trustee of St. Francis College. Judge Roth was appointed to the Commission by Assembly Speaker Sheldon Silver.

George H. Weissman

Mr. Weissman served as the managing general counsel of the New York State Dormitory Authority for nearly a decade and as assistant counsel in the Office of the State Comptroller. His previous positions also included working as program associate for the State Senate, and counsel with the New York State Legislative Commission on Critical Transportation Choices. He was formerly of counsel with Marsh, Wasserman and Associates, LLP. He received his J.D. from Albany Law School of Union University and a B.A. in Political Science at SUNY Cortland. Mr. Weissman was appointed to the Commission by Senate Majority Leader Dean G. Skelos.

The Executive Director

On October 29, 2013, the Joint Commission on Public Ethics appointed Letizia Tagliafierro as Executive Director of the Commission. Prior to her appointment as Executive Director, Ms. Tagliafierro served as Commission's first Director of Investigations and Enforcement. In that role, Ms. Tagliafierro oversaw all investigative and enforcement matters, including the first ever independent ethics investigation of a sitting New York State legislator. Ms. Tagliafierro's career spanned a variety of roles in public service, including eight years as an Assistant District Attorney in Erie County after four years as a legislative assistant in the State Senate. In October 2007, after her years as a felony criminal prosecutor, Ms. Tagliafierro was named Special Counsel to the Commissioner of the State Division of Criminal Justice Services. In 2008, she took a position as Special Counsel/Public Advocacy Attorney at the Office of the New York State Attorney General in Buffalo. In January 2011, she was appointed as Governor Andrew Cuomo's Director of Intergovernmental Affairs. Ms. Tagliaferro received her Bachelor of Arts degree from the State University of New York at Albany and her law degree from the Albany Law School of Union University.

Structure and Staffing of the Agency

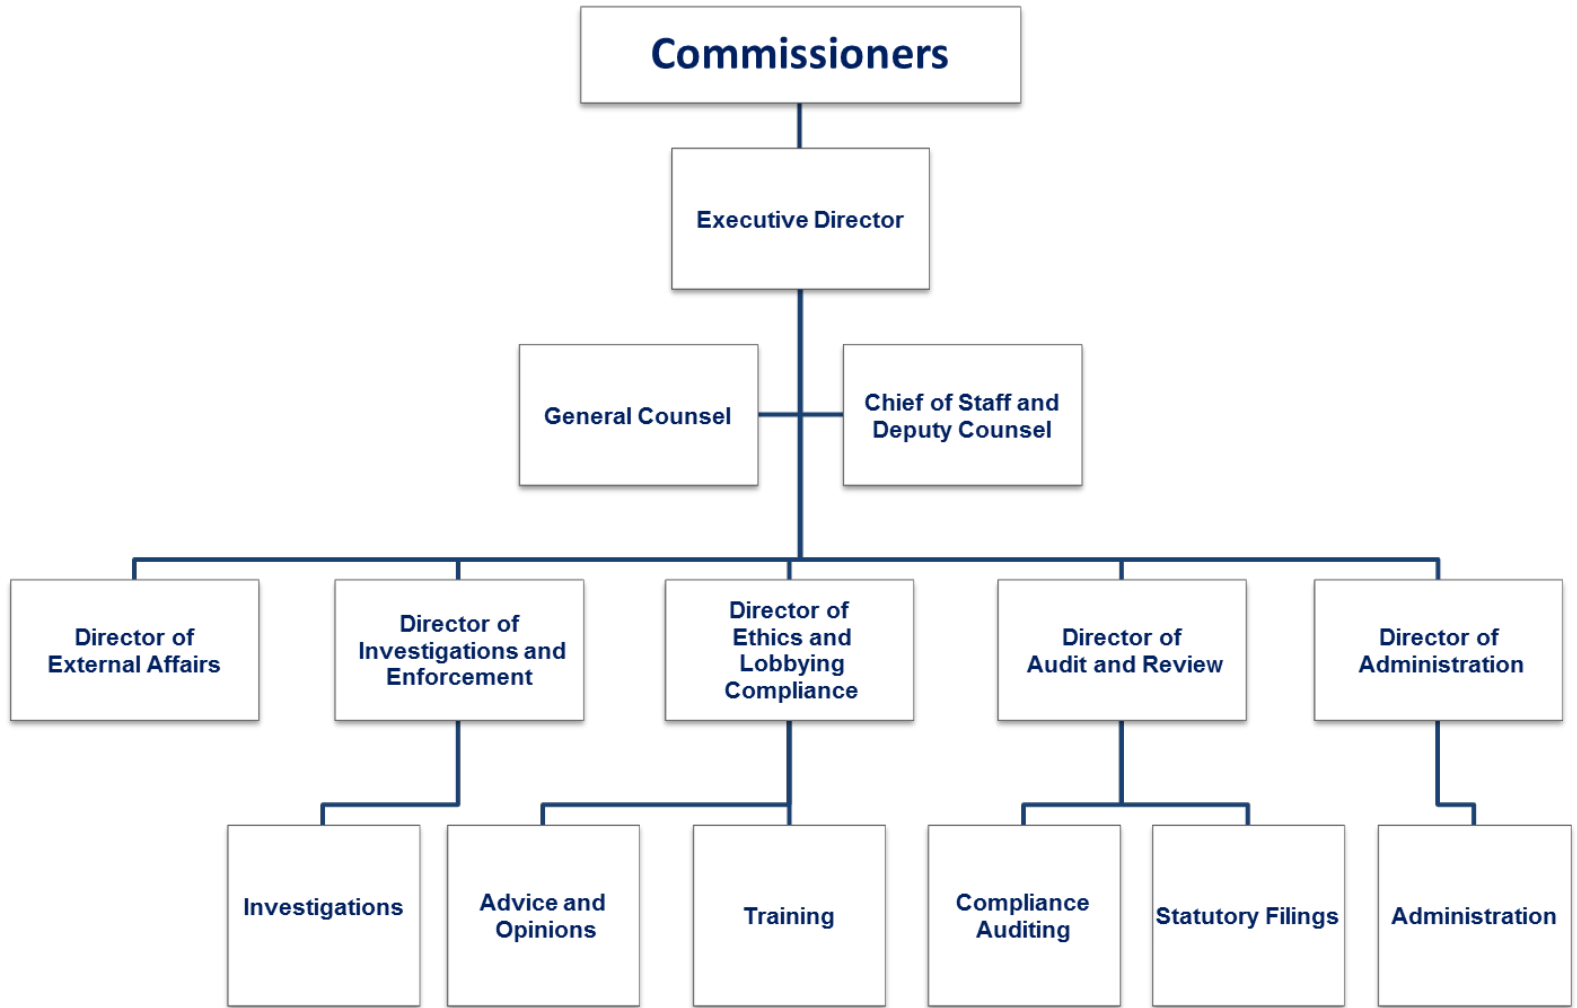

The Commission has adopted a staffing plan for the agency as required by Executive Law §94. The Commission maintains a statewide presence with offices in Albany, New York City and Buffalo, extending its coverage to the tens of thousands of State officers and employees, legislative members and employees, and registered lobbyists and clients located throughout the State.

During the past two years, the Commission has recruited experienced and talented staff to build the agency. The Commission currently employs approximately 40 employees including attorneys, investigators, auditors, filing specialists, and administrative staff. While the agency's staffing level remains relatively low, it has successfully preserved productivity within existing programs and continues to meet critical statutory mandates. The agency and its staff are organized into five divisions consistent with its multiple statutory and administrative functions in order to maximize productivity and efficiency:

- 1) Ethics and Lobbying Compliance, which manages the advisory functions of the agency, including providing daily guidance to the regulatory community, drafting regulations and guidelines to clarify legal issues, and developing an educational and training program on the ethics and lobbying laws;
- 2) Audit and Review, which administers the Commission's two statutory filing programs – annual Financial Disclosure Statements under Public Officers Law §73-a and required filings under the Lobbying Act – and conducts the audit and review programs pursuant to which a portion of these filings are examined each year on a random basis;

- 3) Investigations and Enforcement, which handles the intake and review of complaints alleging violations of the Public Officers Law and Lobbying Act, conducts substantial basis investigations commenced by the Commission, and represents the Commission before an independent hearing officer adjudicating appropriate penalties for violations;
- 4) External Affairs, which oversees the Commission's external communications, the release of public information, content on the Commission's website, requests for public records, and public meetings; and
- 5) Administration, which manages the Commission's day-to-day administrative needs, including office management, financial transactions, and personnel matters.

The current executive team consists of Monica J. Stamm, the Chief of Staff and Deputy Counsel, who assists the Executive Director with managing the agency, and the following division directors, who report to the Executive Director: Jeannine Clemente the Director of Administration; Robert Cohen, the Director of Ethics and Lobbying Compliance and Special Counsel; Martin Levine, the Director of Audit and Review and Senior Counsel; and John Milgrim, the Director of External Affairs.

GUIDANCE AND OUTREACH

The Commission provides regular guidance to public employees and officials, lobbyists, and lobbying clients who are subject to the Commission's jurisdiction. On a daily basis, Commission staff and counsel interact with the regulated community, answering questions and addressing issues in both formal and informal communications. In addition, the Commission periodically promulgates regulations and guidelines in order to clarify and amplify provisions in the ethics and lobbying laws. The Commission also provides various training programs to the regulated community and maintains a website with resources for the regulated community as well as access to tens of thousands of publicly available filings, including certain public officials' Financial Disclosure Statements and data filed by lobbyists and their clients.

Advisory Opinions

Pursuant to Executive Law §94, the Commission issues formal Advisory Opinions, applying the Public Officers Law or the Lobbying Act to a particular set of facts. These opinions are issued upon approval of a majority of the Commission and are binding on both the Commission and the individual requesting the Opinion in any subsequent proceeding, provided that the requesting individual acted in good faith and neither omitted nor misstated any material facts.

In addition, Commission staff provides informal opinions on request. These opinions serve as guidance, but are not binding on the Commission. Informal opinions are issued on matters where formal opinions already have established precedent, especially in the areas of post-State employment restrictions and proposed outside activities by current State workers. Individuals who receive informal opinions, which are confidential, may request a formal Advisory Opinion from the full Commission. The Commission also reviews and approves requests from certain State officials to participate in an outside activity and to accept honoraria or reimbursement from non-State entities for travel expenses related to official duties.

In 2013, the Commission issued two formal Advisory Opinions, and Commission staff provided written guidance on more than 500 requests, including informal opinion requests, outside activity requests, and travel reimbursement requests.

The following is a summary of the formal Advisory Opinions issued in 2013. The full text of these and other Advisory Opinions are available on the Commission's website at jcope.ny.gov.

◆ Advisory Opinion No. 13-01

This opinion addressed a former hearing representative with the New York State Insurance Fund ("NYSIF") who, upon his retirement from State service, sought to serve as a Licensed Representative for individuals who appear before the New York State Workers' Compensation Board ("WCB"). The former employee asked the Commission if the post-employment restrictions contained in Public Officers Law §73(8)(a)(i) – known as the "two-year bar" – and the restrictions contained in Public Officers Law §73(8)(a)(i) – known as the "lifetime bar" – prevent him from undertaking this work. The Commission found that Public Officers Law §73(8)(a)(i) prohibits the former employee from representing individuals before the WCB when NYSIF is involved in the dispute as either a carrier or a party. The Commission further found that Public Officers Law §73(8)(a)(ii) prohibits the former employee from representing clients in matters in which he was directly concerned and in which he personally participated, or which were under his active consideration, while employed by NYSIF.

◆ Advisory Opinion No. 13-02

This opinion addressed a request for guidance from the Executive Chamber regarding the conditions under which the general use of State aircraft by the Governor comports with the Public Officers Law. While the Commission on Public Integrity, a predecessor agency to the Commission, had addressed certain aspects of State aircraft use by State officials, an opinion had yet to be rendered on the application of the Public Officers Law to the general use of this mode of transportation. The Commission provided a standard by which the use of State aircraft by the Governor complies with the Public Officers law: (i) the primary purpose of the trip is for bona fide State business; (ii) the trip is not being used as a pretext to engage in non-State business; and (iii) use of State aircraft is consistent with an internal written policy, approved by Counsel to the Governor, which provides clear guidelines for such use. The Commission further found that when the Governor is using State aircraft in accordance with the standard above, members of the First Family (defined as the spouse or domestic partner of the Governor as well as any children of the Governor) may travel on State aircraft with the Governor without the need for the Governor to reimburse the State. Additionally, the Commission found that minor children who are not part of the First Family may accompany the Governor on State aircraft without the need to reimburse the State provided that the Governor is acting, during the relevant time, as the custodian or guardian of such children or is otherwise primarily responsible for their care.

Training and Educational Services

The Commission's Training and Education Group is committed to creating and maintaining a comprehensive and dynamic educational program to ensure that public officers and employees, lobbyists, and clients are fully informed about the laws, regulations, and guidelines the Commission administers and enforces. Among other things, the Training and Education Group is developing instructor-led trainings on the State's ethics and lobbying laws, designing web-based programming on a variety of topics, and producing a library of written educational materials on the Commission's website.

Significantly, for the first time, PIRA mandated a series of ethics trainings for those State officers and employees who are required to file a Financial Disclosure Statement ("FDS") with the Commission, which includes policy makers and those earning above a certain salary. In 2013, the Commission's Training and Education Group developed the first of these trainings. The new Comprehensive Ethics Training Course ("CETC") is a two-hour, live mandatory training for these aforementioned FDS filers and is available for CLE credit.

As the most efficient means of providing the CETC to more than 20,000 FDS filers across New York State, the Commission presented the CETC in a "Train-the-Trainer" format to approximately 300 Ethics Officers, trainers, and employees from New York State agencies, public authorities, commissions, councils and boards (collectively known as “State Agencies”). This Train-the-Trainer program enabled State Agencies to conduct their own CETC sessions in order for their FDS filers to meet the statutory deadlines for completing this mandatory ethics training.

As a result of the significant and collective effort of Commission staff and State Agency Ethics Officers, more than 23,000 FDS filers have now completed the CETC. Based on the Commission’s review of the training compliance reports submitted by more than 250 State Agencies, there was, on average, a 96 percent compliance rate with respect to the mandatory training requirements.

The considerable effort by State Agencies to comply with this new training mandate illustrates the shared commitment to ethics and restoring trust in government. The Commission is working closely with the State Ethics Officers to assist in the effort to maintain and monitor compliance with the CETC requirements going forward. The Commission and State Ethics Officers will continue to make this training available for those newly-subject to the FDS filing requirement in 2014 and beyond.

Also in 2013, the Training and Education Group developed the second of the three mandated ethics trainings for FDS filers entitled the “Online Ethics Orientation.” This Orientation is the result of the Commission’s effort to expand its training program to include interactive web-based sessions. Utilizing the Statewide Learning Management System, which enables users to login to a statewide platform to find and track required training, this Orientation will be accessible to individuals at their workstations. The new Online Ethics Orientation will be available in the Spring of 2014 and must be completed by those State officers and employees newly-subject to the FDS filing requirement within three months of beginning qualifying employment.

In 2014, the Training and Education Group will develop the third required training for State officers and employees, a live Ethics Seminar that will provide an overview of changes in the relevant laws, regulations, or policies, and will include a question – and – answer session.

The new mandatory ethics training program was also implemented by the Legislature in conjunction with the Legislative Ethics Commission (“LEC”) pursuant to Section 94(10)(d) of the Executive Law and Section 80 of the Legislative Law. According to the information provided by the LEC, as of the date of this report, approximately 92 percent of Assembly employees and 97 percent of Senate employees who were required to complete a comprehensive ethics training program have done so. The vast majority of legislators have also completed the training, and it is expected that there will be 100 percent compliance by the end of April. Finally, the LEC has also developed and begun implementation of the online ethics orientation course that all new employees are required to complete within three months of being hired.

PIRA also mandated that registered lobbyists complete an online training course entitled “Ethics for Lobbyists,” which shall include an overview of State laws concerning ethics, including the Public Officers Law, the Lobbying Act, and the Election Law. This course is currently under development and will be introduced by the Commission in mid 2014.

Development of Regulations and Guidelines

In 2013, the Commission actively expanded its guidance program through the development of various sets of regulations. Among other things, the Commission continued to improve its “Source of Funding” regulations which it initially adopted in 2012 for formal rulemaking procedures under the State Administrative Procedure Act (“SAPA”). The regulations implement provisions of PIRA requiring certain entities lobbying the State to disclose the sources of money they received that fund their lobbying activities. The Commission also amended its Reportable Business Relations (“RBR”) Guidelines, originally published in 2012. The RBR Guidelines implement the requirement, under the Lobbying Act (as amended by PIRA), that registered lobbyists and their clients disclose certain business relationships with State officers and employees. Additionally, the Commission proposed new regulations to clarify the applicable rules governing gifts to State officers and employees. The Commission also initiated an informal public process to advance regulations concerning the appearance of State officers and employees in certain public service announcements. Finally, the Commission also proposed amendments to existing regulations governing the receipt of honoraria and certain reimbursement for travel-related expenses by State officers and employees. All such regulations are available on the Commission's website at jcope.ny.gov.

◆ Source of Funding Regulations

The Lobbying Act, as amended by PIRA, mandates disclosure of the identities and expenditures of those attempting to influence the governmental decision-making process on both State and local levels. Specifically, Sections 1-h(c)(4) and 1-j(c)(4) of the Lobbying Act, as amended by PIRA, require that clients of lobbyists and lobbyists who lobby on their own behalf, who meet certain financial thresholds with respect to lobbying activity, must disclose contributions received that are in excess of $5,000. In 2012, the Commission introduced regulations to effectuate this statutory mandate.

PIRA's disclosure requirements are among the most far-reaching of any State. Given the historic nature of the requirements, the Commission anticipated that there would likely be amendments to the Source of Funding regulations once the Commission and the regulated community both garnered experience with the practical application of the regulations. Thus, in May and October of 2013, the Commission adopted various amendments to the Source of Funding regulations. These amendments simplified some terminology; provided for the disclosure of additional information, in certain circumstances, when a source of funding is a corporation, partnership, organization, or entity; revised the standard under which exemptions from the disclosure requirements may be granted; and established that materials provided to the Commission in support of an exemption application will ordinarily be made available to the public. The Commission has continued to review and amend these regulations in 2014 and is accepting public comments on the latest version of the regulations, pursuant to SAPA, as of the date of this report. Click here to view the regulations on Source of Funding reporting.

◆ Reportable Business Relationship Guidelines

PIRA also amended the Lobbying Act to require that registered lobbyists and their clients disclose the names of State officers and employees, including elected officials, with whom the lobbyist or client of the lobbyist has certain types of business relationships, known as “Reportable Business Relationships.” In 2012, the Commission published RBR Guidelines to implement this reporting requirement. In response to feedback from the regulated community, the Commission amended the RBR Guidelines in 2013 to make clear that entities required to disclose RBRs may circulate a questionnaire to proprietors, partners, directors, or executive management eliciting the information necessary to determine if any of these individuals have business relationships that must be reported. The entity is then entitled to reasonably rely on the answers supplied in response to the questionnaire when making its RBR disclosures. The Commission also modified the factors used in determining whether an entity has reason to know that it has an RBR that must be reported. Click here to view the RBR Guidelines.

◆ Proposed Regulations on Gifts

The Lobbying Act prohibits lobbyists and clients from offering or giving a gift to a public official unless, under the circumstances, it could not be reasonably inferred that such gift was intended to influence the public official. Similarly, the Public Officers Law prohibits a State officer or employee from soliciting, accepting, or receiving a gift under circumstances in which it could be reasonably inferred that the gift was intended to influence the individual or was intended as reward for any official action by the individual.

PIRA included some modifications to the exclusions from the gift prohibitions. In light of these amendments and to provide clarity to the regulated community, in July 2013 the Commission submitted, for public comment under SAPA, proposed regulations concerning the acceptance, solicitation and receipt of gifts by State officers and employees. Similarly, the Commission submitted, for public comment under SAPA, proposed regulations governing the offering of gifts by lobbyists and clients of lobbyists to State officers and employees. Based on public comments, the Commission is proceeding with proposed revised regulations under SAPA with the expectation that the regulations will be finalized during the Spring of 2014.

◆ Public Service Announcement Regulations

PIRA amended Executive Law §94 to mandate that the Commission adopt rules and regulations defining and promoting the proper use of public service announcements. The Commission, through an informal process, disseminated draft regulations to interested parties. In 2013, based on the informal feedback it received during this process, the Commission made changes to the draft regulations. The Commission recently approved proposed regulations which will be published in the State Register and subject to public comment under SAPA in 2014.

◆ Proposed Amendments to Honoraria and Travel Regulations

Regulations governing State officers' and employees' acceptance of honoraria and reimbursement for travel related to official duties have been in existence for several years. In order to maintain consistency within the regulatory framework covering State officers and employees, the Commission decided to make modifications to these regulations that incorporate some of the analyses that are provided for in the proposed gift regulations. To this end, in July 2013, the Commission submitted proposed amendments for public comment under SAPA. The Commission intends to publish final amended regulations in the Spring of 2014.

Website

The Commission introduced its website – jcope.ny.gov – in 2012. The website is an important tool for the Commission in communicating with the regulated community and the public, in providing guidance on the ethics and lobbying laws and regulations, and in publicizing information about public officials and parties who influence government decision making.

The current website provides information about the laws and regulations which govern the Commission's activities, links to formal advisory opinions issued by the Commission, a library of materials for training and guidance, information concerning Commission enforcement actions, and convenient methods to submit sworn complaints or tips about potential ethics or lobbying violations. The website also makes available to the public tens of thousands of disclosure filings submitted by lobbyists and clients, including filings pursuant to the new lobbying disclosure requirements, to help give New Yorkers meaningful information about those trying to influence government decisions. In addition, the Commission has published on the website the complete data filed by lobbyists and their clients for 2013 in a downloadable spreadsheet format. Also, in the summer of 2013, for the first time, the FDSs filed by elected State officials were made publicly available on the JCOPE website.

The Commission has plans to redesign and improve its website to provide more information in a user-friendly format. In 2013, the Commission participated in the statewide initiative to consolidate Information Technology functions under the State's Office of Information Technology Services. Through this partnership with ITS, the Commission anticipates access to the technology and resources necessary to commence this project in 2014.

LOBBYING OVERVIEW

Overview of Developments in 2013

The Lobbying Act requires that registered lobbyists and their clients report information concerning lobbying activities and expenditures to the Commission and that the Commission make such information publicly available. PIRA added two historic disclosure requirements under the Lobbying Act:

- ✦ The disclosure by certain lobbyists and lobbying clients of each single source of funding in excess of $5,000 that was used to fund lobbying activities.
- ✦ The disclosure by lobbyists and clients of any “reportable business relationship” with public employees and officials, or entities with which they have an interest, as set forth in the statute.

As discussed above, in 2012, the Commission introduced regulations and guidelines to implement these two new disclosure requirements. In 2013, the Commission worked closely with the lobbying community to facilitate the new filings and administer the filings program. The Commission made these new filings easily accessible on its website while it continues its efforts to incorporate these filings into its electronic filing system.

2013 Lobbying Data

During the lobbying year ending December 31, 2013, 6,383 individual lobbyists were reported on 4,381 lobbyist registrations filed with the Commission, representing 3,891 clients. In addition, 17 public corporations registered as lobbyists and filed reports on behalf of themselves. (Lobbying Act §§1-c(i), 1-e, and 1-i). During the same period, 91 public corporations retained lobbyists and filed as clients of these lobbyists.

Staff continued to encourage lobbyists and clients to use the online filing system. Electronic filers are able to view the status of their filings online and make necessary changes immediately.

- ✦ In 2013, approximately 98 percent of lobbyists and 54 percent of clients used the online filing system to submit their registrations and reports.
- ✦ The online application automatically notifies filers of minor filing errors prior to submission and prompts the filer for corrections. This has significantly reduced manual processing by staff.

All filings received by the Commission are reviewed for completeness. In 2013, more than 40,000 filings and lobbying contracts were reviewed and processed.

The Commission's oversight extends to lobbyists and clients attempting to influence any local law, ordinance, rule, regulation or rate pending before certain municipalities or subdivisions of the State. (Lobbying Act §1-c(k)). A total of 420 registrations were filed for lobbyists active on only local issues, but more than 2,000 registrations were filed for lobbyists active on both local and State issues. Thus, more than half of the 4,381 lobbyist registrations filed indicate at least some local lobbying. The Commission's jurisdiction also extends to procurement lobbying on the State and local level. Approximately 24 percent of all lobbying registrations reported procurement lobbying activities.

According to the client semi-annual reports filed, a total of $210.5 million was spent on lobbying in 2013, including a record $191 million in lobbyist compensation. Although total spending slightly increased, clients reported $4.8 million for advertising expenses and $729,778 for event-related expenses, decreases of 59% and 19%, respectively, from 2012. Reportable lobbying expenses, including advertising, legislative receptions, and "lobby days" are reviewed by Commission staff to ensure that the groups funding such activities are registered as required and that the associated event costs are properly disclosed in lobbying reports.

As discussed above, the filings submitted pursuant to the historic disclosure requirements under the Lobbying Act, as amended by PIRA, are available on the Commission's website. In 2013, more than 120 client filings disclosed the identities of sources of funds used for lobbying activities, and 22 lobbyists and clients disclosed reportable business relationships, in accordance with the Lobbying Act and the Commission's regulations and guidelines. The Commission will continue its efforts to ensure compliance with these new disclosure requirements through additional training and outreach, as well as through audits and enforcement actions.

As required by Section 1-d(b) of the Lobbying Act, the Commission conducts a Random Audit Program that provides an independent and objective evaluation of reports and registration statements filed by lobbyists and their clients. The random selection of audits is done by an outside consulting firm, and a different outside accounting firm certifies that the Random Audit Program operates in compliance with the Lobbying Act. In 2013, under the Random Audit Program, the Commission conducted 449 audits, generating 498 recommendations to improve filing or recordkeeping procedures, or to file amended reports to correct discrepancies uncovered in the audit process.

Pursuant to statute, the complete 2013 listing of lobbyists and public corporations including compensation and reimbursed expenses is attached hereto as Appendix B.

FINANCIAL DISCLOSURE STATEMENTS

To maintain the public's trust and confidence in government through disclosure and to aid in the prevention of corruption, favoritism, undue influence, and abuses of official position, certain public officers and employees are required to file an annual Financial Disclosure Statement ("FDS") with the Commission pursuant to Public Officers Law §73-a and Executive Law §94.

Annual Financial Disclosure Statements

Public Officers Law §73-a requires State officers or employees, who receive compensation in excess of the filing rate of an SG-24 ($88,256 in 2013), or who hold a policy-making position as determined by their appointing authority, to file FDSs. This requirement applies to heads of State departments, boards, bureaus, divisions, commissions, councils, State agencies, and members or directors of public authorities, as well as the State University of New York and City University of New York. The four statewide elected officials (Governor, Lieutenant Governor, Attorney General and Comptroller), the State chairs of recognized political parties and certain county chairs of these parties are also required to file FDSs.

PIRA expanded the Commission's authority to enable it to enforce this requirement with respect to legislative members, candidates for those offices, and legislative staff. Starting in 2012, the FDSs for current legislative members and legislative employees were required to be filed with the Legislative Ethics Committee ("LEC") on May 15 of each year and then submitted by the LEC to the Commission by June 30. The Commission continues to track and review these FDSs.

For the first time, in 2013, as newly required in PIRA, the Commission posted on its website the FDSs submitted by all members of the State Legislature and the four statewide elected officials. Other filed FDSs are available for public review upon request.

In 2013, the Commission processed approximately 23,000 individual executive branch FDSs with information pertaining to 2012, 93 percent of which were filed electronically and 7 percent of which were submitted as paper forms. The Commission also processed approximately 4,100 FDSs filed by members and employees of, and candidates for, the Legislature.

In certain circumstances, the Commission may grant an exemption from filing to individuals who earn above the filing rate. An exemption request may be submitted either by an individual or by a State agency or employee organization on behalf of a group of individuals who share the same job title or employment classification. For an exemption to be granted, an individual's job duties may not involve the negotiation, authorization, or approval of:

- ✦ contracts, leases, franchises or similar matters;
- ✦ the purchase, sale or rental of real property, goods or services;
- ✦ the obtaining of grants of money or loans; or
- ✦ the adoption or repeal of rules or regulations having the force and effect of law.

The Commission also engaged in extensive efforts to enforce compliance with FDS filing requirements in 2013, generating over 1,000 failure to file notices for overdue filings. Among other measures, pursuant to Public Officers Law §73-a(2)(d), the Commission must identify and post on its website a list of candidates for public office who did not timely file. Public Officers Law §73-a(2)(a)(iii)-(vii) requires that candidates for statewide elected office or candidates for the Legislature, within ten days of becoming a candidate, file an FDS with the LEC. The LEC forwards the candidate's FDS filings and a list of required filers to the Commission. Under the newly - developed review procedure, the Commission contacts the State and each local board of elections to verify the list of required filers provided by the LEC. As a result of the Commission's work, more than 60 candidates who failed to submit their required FDS filings in a timely manner were identified on the Commission's website in 2013, and the Commission will continue to take appropriate action with respect to these candidates.

INVESTIGATIONS AND ENFORCEMENT

Overview

The Commission is charged with investigating potential violations of the State’s ethics laws (Public Officers Law §§73, 73-a, and 74), the “Little Hatch Act” (Civil Service Law §107), and the Lobbying Act (Legislative Law article 1-A). The Commission has jurisdiction to investigate violations of law by members of or candidates for the Legislature and legislative employees, as well as by the four statewide elected officials, candidates for those offices, executive branch State employees, certain political party chairs, lobbyists, and their clients.

The Commission’s procedures for submitting tips and filing sworn complaints alleging violations of the Public Officers Law or the Lobbying Act are available on the Commission’s website. Click here to view the procedures for filing a sworn complaint.

Under Executive Law §94, to pursue an enforcement action, the Commission must determine whether there is a substantial basis to conclude that a violation of law occurred. If the Commission makes such a finding, then it issues a “Substantial Basis Investigation Report”. The Substantial Basis Investigation Report alleges a violation of the law and becomes a publicly-available document.

In the event that the Commission finds a substantial basis to conclude that such a violation has occurred by members of or candidates for the Legislature and legislative employees, it presents its Substantial Basis Investigation Report to the Legislative Ethics Commission (“LEC”), which may then assess penalties pursuant to its own adjudicatory regulations, which are available on its website.

The Commission has jurisdiction to enforce penalties for alleged violations by executive branch officers and employees, lobbyists, and clients. The Commission has issued regulations governing the conduct of adjudicatory proceedings relating to the assessment of civil penalties. To ensure fairness of the proceedings, the regulations provide that adjudications will be conducted by independent hearing officers who will be selected randomly from a pool of hearing officers. These regulations also cover appeals taken from hearing officer final decisions, and appeals of denials of requests to delete or exempt certain information from an FDS.

Information concerning the Commission's enforcement actions, including its settlement agreements, is published on the Commission's website.

2013 Review and Disposition of Investigative Matters

In 2013, the Commission reviewed nearly 200 potential matters. The majority of those matters raised ethics issues under the Public Officers Law, including conflicts of interests, improper gifts, nepotism, and post-employment issues. In addition, some matters involved possible violations of the Lobbying Act, including improper gifts and failure to submit required filings.

As of the date of this report, the Commission has 21 open investigations and 69 matters pending review. In 2013, the Commission's investigations and enforcement actions, including the assessment by the LEC, resulted in penalties totaling approximately $450,000. These enforcement actions involved a range of violations, including self-dealing, abuse of office, accepting prohibited gifts, violations of the post-employment restrictions, disclosing confidential information, and failing to file required disclosures with the Commission. Some noteworthy matters are highlighted below, followed by a chart summarizing all of the Commission's enforcement activity in 2013. Not all investigative matters warrant enforcement action. In some cases, based on the facts, the Commission concluded that the public interest would be better served by providing education and guidance to prevent future violations. In 2013, the Commission exercised its discretion to resolve some investigative matters with "guidance letters" setting forth the appropriate legal and regulatory considerations to guide future conduct.

Former Assemblymember Vito Lopez: On February 12, 2013, the Commission issued a Substantial Basis Investigation Report in the matter of Assemblymember Vito Lopez, concluding the first ever independent ethics investigation of a sitting Legislator. During the course of the five-month investigation, the Commission issued 49 subpoenas, interviewed more than 45 individuals, and reviewed approximately 20,000 pages of documents that were produced to the Commission. The investigation concluded with the issuance of a Substantial Basis Investigation Report which was unanimously approved by the Commission.

The Commission found that Assemblymember Lopez violated the public trust, abused his public office and political power to serve his personal interests, and misappropriated State resources. Specifically, the Commission's investigation revealed that since at least 2010, Lopez engaged in an escalating course of conduct with respect to multiple female staff members that began with demeaning comments about appearance and dress as well as demands for fawning text and email messages, increased to requirements for companionship outside the office, and culminated in attempted and forced intimate contact. The investigation found that Lopez violated the Public Officers Law by using his official position – through bonuses, raises, promotions and threats of adverse employment action – to compel these same female employees to comply with this inappropriate requests and demands. Based upon the evidence developed through the investigation, the Commission found that (i) Lopez used the powers and perks of his position as a member of the Assembly to engage in knowing, willful, and prolonged mistreatment of certain female members of his Assembly staff; (ii) Lopez engaged in a pervasive pattern of abuse of public office and resources, not for a personal financial gain, but to indulge his personal whims and desires; and that (iii) by this conduct, Lopez indisputably breached the public trust and thereby violated the Public Officers Law.

As required under Executive Law §94, the Commission presented its Report to the LEC for its consideration. In May of 2013, Assemblymember Lopez resigned from office. On June 11, 2013, the LEC issued a Disposition and Notice of Civil Assessment in which it concurred with the Commission's conclusions of law that there was a substantial basis to find that former Assemblymember Lopez violated Public Officers Law §§74(3)(d), (f), and (h) through knowing and intentional conduct. The LEC found at least thirty-three distinct violations of the Public Officers Law and assessed a civil penalty in the amount of $330,000.00.

Self-Dealing: An assistant physics professor at the City University of New York was found, through an investigation by the Commission, to have steered a State purchase of hi-tech research software to a company he covertly owned. The professor created a “sole source memorandum” attesting to his employer that he needed the software product and that only one company could supply it. However, the professor never evaluated other providers of similar research software and never disclosed he was president of the company. Under the terms of a settlement agreement with the Commission, the assistant professor paid nearly $65,000 in fines and restitution for violating Public Officers Law §73(15) which prohibits State employees from participating in contracting decisions involving the payment of more than $1,000 to that employee.

Lobbying: A major lobbying firm paid $20,000 in fines relating to required disclosure filings in 2011 and 2012 under a settlement agreement with the Commission. Due to a former employee’s misfeasance and nonfeasance, numerous required disclosure filings of the lobbying firm were incomplete, inaccurate or not filed at all. The lobbying firm self-reported the problems with the filings to the Commission. As part of the settlement agreement, the lobbying firm submitted and updated all requisite registrations and filings for 2011 and 2012.

Prohibited Gifts: A New York electric and gas utility company and two employees of the State’s utility regulating agency paid fines settling cases involving the giving and receiving of improper gifts including rounds of golf and meals provided between 2002 and 2010. The total value of the gifts was estimated to be approximately $7,000. Under a settlement agreement with the Commission, the utility, a registered lobbyist, paid a $25,000 fine in addition to $1.7 million in fines it paid the State regulating agency for the same conduct. Under the State Lobbying Act §1-m, lobbyists and lobbying clients are prohibited from offering or providing gifts to public officials unless it cannot be reasonably inferred that the gifts were intended to influence the officials. A violation of the Lobbying Act's gift restrictions carries a maximum potential fine of $25,000 or three times the value of a gift. The utility self-reported the improper gifts to the Commission after they were discovered through an internal audit. The two employees of the regulator, who both resigned during the investigation, paid fines of $1,000 and $1,500 for accepting the improper gifts.

APPENDIX A: EXECUTIVE LAW §94

§94. Joint commission on Public Ethics; functions, powers and duties; review of financial disclosure statements; advisory opinions; investigation and enforcement.

1. There is established within the department of state a joint commission on public ethics which shall consist of fourteen members and shall have and exercise the powers and duties set forth in this section with respect to statewide elected officials, members of the legislature and employees of the legislature, and state officers and employees, as defined in sections seventy-three and seventy-three-a of the public officers law, candidates for statewide elected office and for the senate or assembly, and the political party chairman as that term is defined in section seventy-three-a of the public officers law, lobbyists and the clients of lobbyists as such terms are defined in article one-A of the legislative law, and individuals who have formerly held such positions, were lobbyists or clients of lobbyists, as such terms are defined in article one-A of the legislative law, or who have formerly been such candidates. This section shall not be deemed to have revoked or rescinded any regulations or advisory opinions issued by the legislative ethics commission, the commission on public integrity, the state ethics commission and the temporary lobbying commission in effect upon the effective date of chapter fourteen of the laws of two thousand seven which amended this section to the extent that such regulations or opinions are not inconsistent with any law of the state of New York, but such regulations and opinions shall apply only to matters over which such commissions had jurisdiction at the time such regulations and opinions were promulgated or issued. The commission shall undertake a comprehensive review of all such regulations and opinions, which will address the consistency of such regulations and opinions among each other and with the new statutory language, and of the effectiveness of the existing laws, regulations, guidance and ethics enforcement structure to address the ethics of covered public officials and related parties. Such review shall be conducted with the legislative ethics commission and, to the extent possible, the report's findings shall reflect the full input and deliberations of both commissions after joint consultation. The commission shall, before February first, two thousand fifteen, report to the governor and legislature regarding such review and shall propose any regulatory or statutory changes and issue any advisory opinions necessitated by such review.
2. The members of the commission shall be appointed as follows: three members shall be appointed by the temporary president of the senate, three members shall be appointed by the speaker of the assembly, one member shall be appointed by the minority leader of the senate, one member shall be appointed by the minority leader of the assembly, and six members shall be appointed by the governor and the lieutenant governor. In the event that a vacancy arises with respect to a member of the commission first appointed pursuant to the chapter of the laws of two thousand eleven which amended this subdivision by a legislative leader, the legislative leaders of the same political party in the same house shall appoint a member to fill such vacancy irrespective of whether that legislative leader's political party is in the majority or minority. Of the members appointed by the governor and the lieutenant governor, at least three members shall be and shall have been for at least three years enrolled members of the major political party in which the governor is not enrolled. In the event of a vacancy in a position previously appointed by the governor and lieutenant governor, the governor and lieutenant governor shall appoint a member of the same political party as the member that vacated that position. Prior to making their respective appointments, the governor and the lieutenant governor and the legislative leaders shall solicit and receive recommendations for appointees from the attorney general and the comptroller of the state of New York, which recommendations shall be fully and properly considered but shall not be binding.

No individual shall be eligible for appointment as a member of the commission who currently or within the last three years:

- (i) is or has been registered as a lobbyist in New York state;
- (ii) is or has been a member of the New York state legislature or a statewide elected official or a commissioner of an executive agency appointed by the governor; or
- (iii) is or has been a political party chairman, as defined in paragraph (k) of subdivision one of section seventy-three of this article.

No individual shall be eligible for appointment as a member of the commission who currently or within the last year is or has been a state officer or employee or legislative employee as defined in section seventy-three of the public officers law.

3. Members of the commission shall serve for terms of five years; provided, however, that of the members first appointed by the governor and lieutenant governor, one shall serve for one year, one shall serve for two years, one shall serve for three years, and one shall serve for four years, as designated by the governor; the members first appointed by the temporary president of the senate and by the speaker of the assembly shall serve for four years and the members first appointed by the minority leaders of the senate and the assembly shall serve for two years.

4. The governor shall designate the chairman of the commission from among the members thereof, who shall serve as chairman at the pleasure of the governor. The chairman or any eight members of the commission may call a meeting.
5. Any vacancy occurring on the commission shall be filled within thirty days of its occurrence in the same manner as the member whose vacancy is being filled was appointed. A person appointed to fill a vacancy occurring other than by expiration of a term of office shall be appointed for the unexpired term of the member he or she succeeds.
6. Eight members of the commission shall constitute a quorum, and the commission shall have power to act by majority vote of the total number of members of the commission without vacancy except where the commission acts pursuant to subdivision thirteen, subdivision fourteen-a or subdivision fourteen-b of this section.
7. Members of the commission may be removed by the appointing authority solely for substantial neglect of duty, gross misconduct in office, violation of the confidentiality restrictions in subdivision nine-a of this section, inability to discharge the powers or duties of office or violation of this section, after written notice and opportunity for a reply.
8. The members of the joint commission shall receive a per diem allowance in the sum of three hundred dollars for each day actually spent in the performance of his or her duties under this article, and, in addition thereto, shall be reimbursed for all reasonable expenses actually and necessarily incurred by him or her in the performance of his or her duties under this article.
9. The commission shall:
 - (a) Appoint an executive director who shall act in accordance with the policies of the commission. The appointment and removal of the executive director shall be made solely by a vote of a majority of the commission, which majority shall include at least one member appointed by the governor from each of the two major political parties, and one member appointed by a legislative leader from each of the two major political parties. The commission may delegate authority to the executive director to act in the name of the commission between meetings of the commission provided such delegation is in writing, the specific powers to be delegated are enumerated, and the commission shall not delegate any decisions specified in this section that require a vote of the commission. The executive director shall be appointed without regard to political affiliation and solely on the basis of fitness to perform the duties assigned by this article, and shall be a qualified, independent professional. The commission may remove the executive director for neglect of duty, misconduct in office, violation of the confidentiality restrictions in subdivision nine-a of this section, or inability or failure to discharge the powers or duties of office, including the failure to follow the lawful instructions of the commission;

- (b) Appoint such other staff as are necessary to carry out its duties under this section;
- (b-1) Review and approve a staffing plan provided and prepared by the executive director which shall contain, at a minimum, a list of the various units and divisions as well as the number of positions in each unit, titles and their duties, and salaries, as well as the various qualifications for each position including, but not limited to, education and prior experience or each position.
- (c) Adopt, amend, and rescind rules and regulations to govern procedures of the commission, which shall include, but not be limited to, the procedure whereby a person who is required to file an annual financial disclosure statement with the commission may request an additional period of time within which to file such statement, other than members of the legislature, candidates for members of the legislature and legislative employees, due to justifiable cause or undue hardship; such rules or regulations shall provide for a date beyond which in all cases of justifiable cause or undue hardship no further extension of time will be granted;
- (d) Adopt, amend, and rescind rules and regulations to assist appointing authorities in determining which persons hold policy-making positions for purposes of section seventy-three-a of the public officers law;
- (d-1) Adopt, amend and rescind rules and regulations defining the permissible use of and promoting the proper use of public service announcements;
- (e) Make available forms for annual statements of financial disclosure required to be filed pursuant to section seventy-three-a of the public officers law;
- (f) Review financial disclosure statements in accordance with the provisions of this section, provided however, that the commission may delegate all or part of this review function to the executive director who shall be responsible for completing staff review of such statements in a manner consistent with the terms of the commission's delegation;

- (g) Receive complaints and referrals alleging violations of section seventy-three, seventy-three-a or seventy-four of the public officers law, article one-A of the legislative law or section one hundred seven of the civil service law;
- (h) Permit any person who is required to file a financial disclosure statement with the joint commission on public ethics to request that the commission delete from the copy thereof made available for public inspection and copying one or more items of information which may be deleted by the commission upon a finding by the commission that the information which would otherwise be required to be made available for public inspection and copying will have no material bearing on the discharge of the reporting person's official duties. If such request for deletion is denied, the commission, in its notification of denial, shall inform the person of his or her right to appeal the commission's determination pursuant to its rules governing adjudicatory proceedings and appeals adopted pursuant to subdivision fourteen of this section;
- (i) Permit any person who is required to file a financial disclosure statement with the joint commission on public ethics to request an exemption from any requirement to report one or more items of information which pertain to such person's spouse or unemancipated children which item or items may be exempted by the commission upon a finding by the commission that the reporting individual's spouse, on his or her own behalf or on behalf of an unemancipated child, objects to providing the information necessary to make such disclosure and that the information which would otherwise be required to be reported will have no material bearing on the discharge of the reporting person's official duties. If such request for exemption is denied, the commission, in its notification of denial, shall inform the person of his or her right to appeal the commission's determination pursuant to its rules governing adjudicatory proceedings and appeals adopted pursuant to subdivision fourteen of this section;
- * (i-1) Permit any person required to file a financial disclosure statement to request an exemption from any requirement to report the identity of a client pursuant to question 8(b) in such statement based upon an exemption set forth in that question. The reporting individual need not seek an exemption to refrain from disclosing the identity of any client with respect to any matter he or she or his or her firm provided legal representation to the client in connection with an investigation or prosecution by law enforcement authorities, bankruptcy, or domestic relations matters; in addition, clients or customers receiving medical or dental services, mental health services, residential real estate brokering services, or insurance brokering services need not be disclosed.

 NB Effective January 1, 2013*

- (j) Advise and assist any state agency in establishing rules and regulations relating to possible conflicts between private interests and official duties of present or former statewide elected officials and state officers and employees;
- (k) Permit any person who has not been determined by his or her appointing authority to hold a policy-making position but who is otherwise required to file a financial disclosure statement to request an exemption from such requirement in accordance with rules and regulations governing such exemptions. Such rules and regulations shall provide for exemptions to be granted either on the application of an individual or on behalf of persons who share the same job title or employment classification which the commission deems to be comparable for purposes of this section. Such rules and regulations may permit the granting of an exemption where, in the discretion of the commission, the public interest does not require disclosure and the applicant's duties do not involve the negotiation, authorization or approval of:
 - (i) contracts, leases, franchises, revocable consents, concessions, variances, special permits, or licenses as defined in section seventy-three of the public officers law;
 - (ii) the purchase, sale, rental or lease of real property, goods or services, or a contract therefor;
 - (iii) the obtaining of grants of money or loans; or
 - (iv) the adoption or repeal of any rule or regulation having the force and effect of law;
- (l) Prepare an annual report to the governor and legislature summarizing the activities of the commission during the previous year and recommending any changes in the laws governing the conduct of persons subject to the jurisdiction of the commission, or the rules, regulations and procedures governing the commission's conduct. Such report shall include: (i) a listing by assigned number of each complaint and referral received which alleged a possible violation within its jurisdiction, including the current status of each complaint, and (ii) where a matter has been resolved, the date and nature of the disposition and any sanction imposed, subject to the confidentiality requirements of this section, provided, however, that such annual report shall not contain any information for which disclosure is not permitted pursuant to subdivision nineteen of this section;

- (m) Determine a question common to a class or defined category of persons or items of information required to be disclosed, where determination of the question will prevent undue repetition of requests for exemption or deletion or prevent undue complication in complying with the requirements of such section; and
- (n) Promulgate guidelines for the commission to conduct a program of random reviews, to be carried out in the following manner: (i) annual statements of financial disclosure shall be selected for review in a manner pursuant to which the identity of any particular person whose statement is selected is unknown to the commission and its staff prior to its selection; (ii) such review shall include a preliminary examination of the selected statement for internal consistency, a comparison with other records maintained by the commission, including previously filed statements and requests for advisory opinions, and examination of relevant public information; (iii) upon completion of the preliminary examination, the commission shall determine whether further inquiry is warranted, whereupon it shall notify the reporting individual in writing that the statement is under review, advise the reporting individual of the specific areas of inquiry, and provide the reporting individual with the opportunity to provide any relevant information related to the specific areas of inquiry, and the opportunity to file amendments to the selected statement on forms provided by the commission; and (iv) if thereafter sufficient cause exists, the commission shall take additional actions, as appropriate and consistent with law.
- 9-a. (a) When an individual becomes a commissioner or staff of the commission, that individual shall be required to sign a non-disclosure statement.
- (b) Except as otherwise required or provided by law, testimony received or any other information obtained by a commissioner or staff of the commission shall not be disclosed by any such individual to any person or entity outside the commission during the pendency of any matter. Any confidential communication to any person or entity outside the commission related to the matters before the commission may occur only as authorized by the commission.
- (c) The commission shall establish procedures necessary to prevent the unauthorized disclosure of any information received by any member of the commission or staff of the commission. Any breaches of confidentiality shall be investigated by the inspector general and appropriate action shall be taken. Any commissioner or person employed by the commission who intentionally and without authorization releases confidential information received by the commission shall be guilty of a class A misdemeanor.

9-b. During the period of his or her service as a commissioner of the commission, each commissioner shall refrain from making, or soliciting from other persons, any contributions to candidates for election to the offices of governor, lieutenant governor, member of the assembly or the senate, attorney general or state comptroller.

10. The commission shall prepare materials and design and administer an ethics training program for individuals subject to the financial disclosure requirements of section seventy-three-a of the public officers law with respect to the provisions of sections seventy-three, seventy-three-a, and seventy-four of the public officers law and any other law, administrative regulation, or internal policy that is of relevance to the ethical conduct of such individuals in public service, as follows:

(a) The commission shall develop and administer a comprehensive ethics training course and shall designate and train instructors to conduct such training. Such course shall be designed as a two-hour program and shall include practical application of the material covered and a question-and-answer participatory segment. Unless the commission grants an extension or waiver for good cause shown, all individuals subject to the financial disclosure requirements of section seventy-three-a of the public officers law shall complete such course within two years of the effective date of the chapter of the laws of two thousand eleven which amended this section, or for those individuals elected or appointed after the effective date of the chapter of the laws of two thousand eleven which amended this section, within two years of becoming subject to the financial disclosure requirements of section seventy-three-a of the public officers law.

(b) The commission shall develop and administer an online ethics orientation course and shall notify all individuals newly subject to the financial disclosure requirements of section seventy-three-a of the public officers law of such course, which shall be completed by such individuals within three months of becoming subject to such requirements, unless the commission grants an extension or waiver for good cause shown. Individuals who have completed the comprehensive ethics training course shall not be required to complete the online ethics orientation course.

(c) The commission shall develop and administer an ethics seminar or ethics seminars for individuals who have previously completed the comprehensive ethics training course. Such seminars shall be designed as ninety-minute programs and shall include any changes in law, regulation, or policy or in the interpretation thereof, practical application of the material covered, and a question-and-answer segment. Unless the commission grants an extension or waiver for good cause shown, such individuals shall be scheduled to attend a seminar at least once every three years after having completed the comprehensive ethics training course. In lieu of attending an ethics seminar, such individuals may complete a subsequent comprehensive ethics training program.

(d) The provisions of this subdivision shall be applicable to the legislature except to the extent that an ethics training program is otherwise established by the assembly or senate for their respective members and employees and such program meets or exceeds each of the requirements set forth in this section.

(e) On an annual basis, the joint commission in coordination with the legislative ethics commission shall determine the status of compliance with these training requirements by each state agency and by the senate and the assembly. Such determination shall include aggregate statistics regarding participation in such training, and shall be reported to the governor and the legislature in writing.

11. The commission, or the executive director and staff of the commission if responsibility therefor has been delegated, shall inspect all financial disclosure statements filed with the commission to ascertain whether any person subject to the reporting requirements of section seventy-three-a of the public officers law has failed to file such a statement, has filed a deficient statement or has filed a statement which reveals a possible violation of section seventy-three, seventy-three-a or seventy-four of the public officers law.

12. If a person required to file a financial disclosure statement with the commission has failed to file a disclosure statement or has filed a deficient statement, the commission shall notify the reporting person in writing, state the failure to file or detail the deficiency, provide the person with a fifteen day period to cure the deficiency, and advise the person of the penalties for failure to comply with the reporting requirements. Such notice shall be confidential. If the person fails to make such filing or fails to cure the deficiency within the specified time period, the commission shall send a notice of delinquency: (a) to the reporting person; (b) in the case of a statewide elected official, member of the legislature, or a legislative employee, to the temporary president of the senate and the speaker of the assembly; and (c) in the case of a state officer or employee, to the appointing authority for such person. Such notice of delinquency may be sent at any time during the reporting person's service as a statewide elected official, state officer or employee, member of the assembly or the senate, or a legislative employee or a political party chair or while a candidate for statewide office, or within one year after termination of such service or candidacy. The jurisdiction of the commission, when acting pursuant to subdivision fourteen of this section with respect to financial disclosure, shall continue notwithstanding that the reporting person separates from state service, or ceases to hold public or political party office, or ceases to be a candidate, provided the commission notifies such person of the alleged failure to file or deficient filing pursuant to this subdivision.

- 13. (a) Investigations. If the commission receives a sworn complaint alleging a violation of section seventy-three, seventy-three-a, or seventy-four of the public officers law, section one hundred seven of the civil service law or article one-A of the legislative law by a person or entity subject to the jurisdiction of the commission including members of the legislature and legislative employees and candidates for member of the legislature, or if a reporting individual has filed a statement which reveals a possible violation of these provisions, or if the commission determines on its own initiative to investigate a possible violation, the commission shall notify the individual in writing, describe the possible or alleged violation of such laws and provide the person with a fifteen day period in which to submit a written response setting forth information relating to the activities cited as a possible or alleged violation of law. The commission shall, within forty-five calendar days after a complaint or a referral is received or an investigation is initiated on the commission's own initiative, vote on whether to commence a full investigation of the matter under consideration to determine whether a substantial basis exists to conclude that a violation of law has occurred. The staff of the joint commission shall provide to the members prior to such vote information regarding the likely scope and content of the investigation, and a subpoena plan, to the extent such information is available. Such investigation shall be conducted if at least eight members of the commission vote to authorize it. Where the subject of such investigation is a member of the legislature or a legislative employee or a candidate for member of the legislature, at least two of the eight or more members who so vote to authorize such an investigation must have been appointed by a legislative leader or leaders from the major political party in which the subject of the proposed investigation is enrolled if such person is enrolled in a major political party. Where the subject of such investigation is a state officer or state employee, at least two of the eight or more members who so vote to authorize such an investigation must have been appointed by the governor and lieutenant governor. Where the subject of such investigation is a statewide elected official or a direct appointee of such an official, at least two of the eight or more members who so vote to authorize such an investigation must have been appointed by the governor and lieutenant governor and be enrolled in the major political party in which the subject of the proposed investigation is enrolled, if such person is enrolled in a major political party.

(b) Substantial basis investigation. Upon the affirmative vote of not less than eight commission members to commence a substantial basis investigation, written notice of the commission's decision shall be provided to the individual who is the subject of such substantial basis investigation. Such written notice shall include a copy of the commission's rules and procedures and shall also include notification of such individual's right to be heard within thirty calendar days of the date of the commission's written notice. The commission shall also inform the individual of its rules regarding the conduct of adjudicatory proceedings and appeals and the other due process procedural mechanisms available to such individual. If the commission determines at any stage that there is no violation or that any potential conflict of interest violation has been rectified, it shall so advise the individual and the complainant, if any. All of the foregoing proceedings shall be confidential.

(c) The jurisdiction of the commission when acting pursuant to this section shall continue notwithstanding that a statewide elected official or a state officer or employee or member of the legislature or legislative employee separates from state service, or a political party chair ceases to hold such office, or a candidate ceases to be a candidate, or a lobbyist or client of a lobbyist ceases to act as such, provided that the commission notifies such individual or entity of the alleged violation of law pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subdivision within one year from his or her separation from state service or his or her termination of party service or candidacy, or from his, her or its last report filed pursuant to article one-A of the legislative law. Nothing in this section shall serve to limit the jurisdiction of the commission in enforcement of subdivision eight of section seventy-three of the public officers law.

14. An individual subject to the jurisdiction of the commission who knowingly and intentionally violates the provisions of subdivisions two through five-a, seven, eight, twelve or fourteen through seventeen of section seventy-three of the public officers law, section one hundred seven of the civil service law, or a reporting individual who knowingly and wilfully fails to file an annual statement of financial disclosure or who knowingly and wilfully with intent to deceive makes a false statement or fraudulent omission or gives information which such individual knows to be false on such statement of financial disclosure filed pursuant to section seventy-three-a of the public officers law shall be subject to a civil penalty in an amount not to exceed forty thousand dollars and the value of any gift, compensation or benefit received as a result of such violation. An individual who knowingly and intentionally violates the provisions of paragraph a, b, c, d, e, g, or i of subdivision three of section seventy-four of the public officers law shall be subject to a civil penalty in an amount not to exceed ten thousand dollars and the value of any gift, compensation or benefit received as a result of such violation. An individual subject to the jurisdiction of the commission who knowingly and willfully violates article one-A of the legislative law shall be subject to civil penalty as provided for in that article. Except with respect to members of the legislature and legislative employees, assessment of a civil penalty hereunder shall be made by the commission with respect to persons subject to its jurisdiction. With respect to a violation of any law other than sections seventy-three, seventy-three-a, and seventy-four of the public officers law, where the commission finds sufficient cause by a vote held in the same manner as set forth in paragraph (b) of subdivision thirteen of this section, it shall refer such matter to the appropriate prosecutor for further investigation. In assessing the amount of the civil penalties to be imposed, the commission shall consider the seriousness of the violation, the amount of gain to the individual and whether the individual previously had any civil or criminal penalties imposed pursuant to this section, and any other factors the commission deems appropriate. Except with respect to members of the legislature and legislative employees, for a violation of this subdivision, other than for conduct which constitutes a violation of section one hundred seven of the civil service law, subdivisions twelve or fourteen through seventeen of section seventy-three or section seventy-four of the public officers law or article one-A of the legislative law, the commission may, in lieu of or in addition to a civil penalty, refer a violation to the appropriate prosecutor and upon such conviction, such violation shall be punishable as a class A misdemeanor. A civil penalty for false filing may not be imposed hereunder in the event a category of "value" or "amount" reported hereunder is incorrect unless such reported information is falsely understated. Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, no other penalty, civil or criminal may be imposed for a failure to file, or for a false filing, of such statement, or a violation of subdivision six of section seventy-three of the public officers law, except that the appointing authority may impose disciplinary action as otherwise provided by law. The commission may refer violations of this subdivision to the appointing authority for disciplinary action as otherwise provided by law. The commission shall be deemed to be an agency within the meaning of article three of the state administrative procedure act and shall adopt rules governing the conduct of adjudicatory proceedings and appeals taken pursuant to a proceeding commenced under article seventy-eight of the civil practice law and rules relating to the assessment of the civil penalties herein authorized and commission denials of requests for certain deletions or exemptions to be made from a financial disclosure statement as authorized in paragraph (h) or paragraph (i) of subdivision nine of this section. Such rules, which shall not be subject to the approval requirements of the state administrative procedure act, shall provide for due process procedural mechanisms substantially similar to those set forth in article three of the state administrative procedure act but such mechanisms need not be identical in terms or scope. Assessment of a civil penalty or commission denial of such a request shall be final unless modified, suspended or vacated within thirty days of imposition, with respect to the assessment of such penalty, or unless such denial of request is reversed within such time period, and upon becoming final shall be subject to review at the instance of the affected reporting individuals in a proceeding commenced against the commission, pursuant to article seventy-eight of the civil practice law and rules.

14-a. The joint commission on public ethics shall have jurisdiction to investigate, but shall have no jurisdiction to impose penalties upon members of or candidates for member of the legislature or legislative employees for any violation of the public officers law. If, after its substantial basis investigation, by a vote of at least eight members, two of whom are enrolled members of the investigated individual's political party if the individual is enrolled in a major political party and were appointed by a legislative leader of such political party, the joint commission on public ethics has found a substantial basis to conclude that a member of the legislature or a legislative employee or candidate for member of the legislature has violated any provisions of such laws, it shall present a written report to the legislative ethics commission, and deliver a copy of the report to the individual who is the subject of the report. Such written report shall include:

(a) the commission's findings of fact and any evidence addressed in such findings; conclusions of law and citations to any relevant law, rule, opinion, regulation or standard of conduct upon which it relied; and

(b) a determination that a substantial basis exists to conclude that a violation has occurred, and the reasons and basis for such determination.

The joint commission shall also separately provide to the legislative ethics commission copies of additional documents or other evidence considered including evidence that may contradict the joint commission's findings, the names of and other information regarding any additional witnesses, and any other materials. With respect to a violation of any law other than sections seventy-three, seventy-three-a, and seventy-four of the public officers law, where the joint commission finds sufficient cause by a vote held in the same manner as set forth in paragraph (b) of subdivision thirteen of this section, it shall refer such matter to the appropriate prosecutor.

14-b. With respect to the investigation of any individual who is not a member of the legislature or a legislative employee or candidate for member of the legislature, if after its investigation the joint commission has found a substantial basis to conclude that the individual has violated the public officers law or the legislative law, the joint commission shall send a substantial basis investigation report containing its findings of fact and conclusions of law to the individual. With respect to an individual who is a statewide elected official or a direct appointee of such an official, no violation may be found unless the majority voting in support of such a finding includes at least two members appointed by the governor and lieutenant governor and enrolled in the individual's major political party, if he or she is enrolled in a major political party. Where the subject of such investigation is a state officer or employee who is not a direct appointee of a statewide elected official, at least two of the eight or more members who vote to issue a substantial basis investigation report must have been appointed by the governor and lieutenant governor. The commission shall release such report publicly within forty-five days of its issuance.

14-c. With respect to an investigation of a lobbyist, if after its investigation the joint commission has found a substantial basis to conclude that the lobbyist has violated the legislative law, the joint commission shall issue a substantial basis investigation report containing its findings of fact and conclusions of law to the lobbyist and shall make public such report within forty-five days of its issuance.

15. A copy of any notice of delinquency or substantial basis investigation report shall be included in the reporting person's file and be available for public inspection and copying pursuant to the provisions of this section.

16. Upon written request from any person who is subject to the jurisdiction of the commission and the requirements of sections seventy-three, seventy-three-a or seventy-four of the public officers law, other than members of the legislature, candidates for member of the legislature and employees of the legislature, the commission shall render written advisory opinions on the requirements of said provisions. An opinion rendered by the commission, until and unless amended or revoked, shall be binding on the commission in any subsequent proceeding concerning the person who requested the opinion and who acted in good faith, unless material facts were omitted or misstated by the person in the request for an opinion. Such opinion may also be relied upon by such person, and may be introduced and shall be a defense, in any criminal or civil action. Such requests shall be confidential but the commission may publish such opinions provided that the name of the requesting person and other identifying details shall not be included in the publication.

17. In addition to any other powers and duties specified by law, the commission shall have the power and duty to:

(a) Promulgate rules concerning restrictions on outside activities and limitations on the receipt of gifts and honoraria by persons subject to its jurisdiction, provided, however, a violation of such rules in and of itself shall not be punishable pursuant to subdivision fourteen of this section unless the conduct constituting the violation would otherwise constitute a violation of this section; and

(b) Administer and enforce all the provisions of this section; and

(c) Conduct any investigation necessary to carry out the provisions of this section. Pursuant to this power and duty, the commission may administer oaths or affirmations, subpoena witnesses, compel their attendance and require the production of any books or records which it may deem relevant or material;

18. Within one hundred twenty days of the effective date of this subdivision, the commission shall create and thereafter maintain a publicly accessible website which shall set forth the procedure for filing a complaint with the commission, and which shall contain the documents identified in subdivision nineteen of this section, other than financial disclosure statements filed by state officers or employees or legislative employees, and any other records or information which the commission determines to be appropriate.

19. (a) Notwithstanding the provisions of article six of the public officers law, the only records of the commission which shall be available for public inspection and copying are:

 (1) the information set forth in an annual statement of financial disclosure filed pursuant to section seventy-three-a of the public officers law except the categories of value or amount, which shall remain confidential, and any other item of information deleted pursuant to paragraph (h) of subdivision nine of this section; NB Effective until January 1, 2013

(1) the information set forth in an annual statement of financial disclosure filed pursuant to section seventy-three-a of the public officers law except information deleted pursuant to paragraph (h) of subdivision nine of this section; NB Effective January 1, 2013

(2) notices of delinquency sent under subdivision twelve of this section;

(3) notices of civil assessments imposed under this section which shall include a description of the nature of the alleged wrongdoing, the procedural history of the complaint, the findings and determinations made by the commission, and any sanction imposed;

(4) the terms of any settlement or compromise of a complaint or referral which includes a fine, penalty or other remedy;

(5) those required to be held or maintained publicly available pursuant to article one-A of the legislative law; and

(6) substantial basis investigation reports issued by the commission pursuant to subdivision fourteen-a or fourteen-b of this section. With respect to reports concerning members of the legislature or legislative employees or candidates for member of the legislature, the joint commission shall not publicly disclose or otherwise disseminate such reports except in conformance with the requirements of paragraph (b) of subdivision nine of section eighty of the legislative law.

(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of article seven of the public officers law, no meeting or proceeding, including any such proceeding contemplated under paragraph (h) or (i) of subdivision nine of this section, of the commission shall be open to the public, except if expressly provided otherwise by the commission or as is required by article one-A of the legislative law.

(c) Pending any application for deletion or exemption to the commission, all information which is the subject or a part of the application shall remain confidential. Upon an adverse determination by the commission, the reporting individual may request, and upon such request the commission shall provide, that any information which is the subject or part of the application remain confidential for a period of thirty days following notice of such determination. In the event that the reporting individual resigns his office and holds no other office subject to the jurisdiction of the commission, the information shall not be made public and shall be expunged in its entirety.

20. If any part or provision of this section or the application thereof to any person or organization is adjudged by a court of competent jurisdiction to be unconstitutional or otherwise invalid, such judgment shall not affect or impair any other part or provision or the application thereof to any other person or organization, but shall be confined in its operation to such part or provision.
