u kno i am thinking about it & really the getting u a job route gets you much more in the end. reporting just gets you revenge? pick your dream job. but save the recordings. if u ever decide to report it in any way, do it so loud and fast and so public so he can't kill you figuratively or literally

I'm going to start sending out my resume

To [REDACTED] on 2011/11/06 22:28

Vito wants to leave at 10 am tomorrow

From [REDACTED] on 2011/11/06 22:38

ok I will be at office at 9:30. also updates on the items I was working on last week:

1) deed bill- I have emailed a list of ideas (the ones you emailed me plus some additional ones) to multi-state mortgage fraud expert & waiting back on opinion. so far I think best ideas are either a) to require the seller to be present before the county clerk at the time of deed filing, or b) adding a fingerprinting requirement as part of notarization.

2) TRO bill-he wants me to check back in on that (& the status of the actual TRO pending) on the 14th.

To [REDACTED] on 2011/11/06 22:39

Ok thanks

From [REDACTED] on 2011/11/06 22:41

also I figure tomorrow after I get back from the hearing I will try to schedule some more meetings from the community leaders list V gave me (churches, after school progs, etc) unless there are more pressing issues to work on. Also, lastly, I am working on the questions for the illegal hotels hearing and will have them by nov 11th to send to (tony?).

To [REDACTED] on 2011/11/06 22:42

Yes let's go over them first. Don't make any spots for tomorrow afternoon though.
