The Commission shall charge the requesting party for the reasonable cost of preparing such transcript.

Section 941.16 Privacy/confidentiality.

(a) Executive Law § 94 provides that proceedings, as well as information and evidence obtained, relating to the Commission's determination as to whether a substantial basis exists that there has been a violation of the laws it enforces are confidential while a matter is pending and unless and until the Commission issues a substantial basis investigation report, except that the Commission may authorize the disclosure of such information to the extent necessary in furtherance of its investigations.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, pursuant to Executive Law 94 (9-a)(b), the Commission, by majority vote of the full Commission in accordance with section 94(6), may disclose to any person or entity outside the Commission any testimony or information obtained by a Commissioner or staff upon a determination that such disclosure is in the public interest as set forth below. Disclosure so authorized may be by full public release or to designated persons or entities as directed by the Commission. The Commission may further direct that disclosure to designated persons or entities be conditioned upon the recipient's agreement to maintain confidentiality and to limit further dissemination.

(c) In determining whether release or disclosure of information relating to a matter is in the public interest, the Commission may consider any one or more of the following criteria:

(1) Whether the Complainant, Subject or Respondent has made public statements relating to an allegation submitted to the Commission;

the Commission's action or inaction with respect to the matter;

(10) Whether the allegation is an attempt to utilize the Commission for partisan political or electoral gain;

(11) Whether there is pending civil litigation that is related, directly or indirectly, to the allegations, and if so, whether the information will be used to impact the litigation in a manner that is relevant to the proceedings or appears to be aimed at harassment of a party;

(12) Whether a prosecutor has asked the Commission to defer action, and if so, whether in the view of the requesting prosecutor disclosure would adversely affect the criminal action;

(13) Whether there are alleged victims who have a particular interest in the proceeding;

(14) Whether the Commission's ability to proceed is inhibited because of a lack of jurisdiction over the Subject or conduct; and

(15) Any other factor the Commission deems relevant to determining whether the release of such information is in, or would otherwise serve, the public interest.

(3) Information relating to an investigation or enforcement proceeding that would otherwise be confidential pursuant to Executive Law § 94, when a legal proceeding is initiated in court by the Subject or Respondent of such investigation, as deemed necessary by counsel representing the Commission in furtherance of its interests in such legal proceeding. proceedings, the Commission may release such information by majority vote of the full Commission, in accordance with Executive Law section 94(6), that such disclosure is in the public interest considering the criteria set forth in subdivision (c) of this section.
