_____, being duly sworn, deposes and says:

1. I make this affidavit with respect to the filing of my Annual Statement of Financial Disclosure for Calendar Year 2021.
2. On that Statement, which has been filed with the NYS Commission on Ethics and Lobbying in Government, I did not provide certain required information pertaining to my spouse. While I have made a good faith effort to obtain such information, my spouse has declined to make it available to me.
3. One of the following statements is true (check which one):
  - I and my spouse did not file a joint tax return for the calendar year in question.
  - I and my spouse filed joint tax return for the calendar year in question, but the information not provided in my financial disclosure statement was not required to appear on the return.
4. You are required by law to complete an Annual Statement of Financial Disclosure. Please describe the circumstances that prevent you from completing the Disclosure form:
5. I have delivered a copy of this affidavit to my spouse.
