The reporting individual need not seek an exemption to refrain from disclosing the identity of any client with respect to any matter where they or their firm provided legal representation to the client in connection with an investigation or prosecution by law enforcement authorities, bankruptcy, or domestic relations matters. In addition, clients or customers receiving medical or dental services, mental health services, residential real estate brokering services, or insurance brokering services need not be disclosed. Upon an adverse determination by the commission, the reporting individual may request, and upon such request the commission shall provide, that any information that is the subject or part of the application remain confidential for a period of thirty days following notice of such determination. In the event that the reporting individual resigns their office and holds no other office subject to the jurisdiction of the commission, the information shall not be made public and shall be expunged in its entirety.

(k) The commission shall permit any person who has not been determined by the person’s appointing authority to hold a policy-making position, but who is otherwise required to file a financial disclosure statement to request an exemption from such requirement in accordance with rules and regulations governing such exemptions. Such rules and regulations shall provide for exemptions to be granted either on the application of an individual or on behalf of persons who share the same job title or employment classification which the commission deems to be comparable for purposes of this section. Such rules and regulations may permit the granting of an exemption where, in the discretion of the commission, the public interest does not require disclosure and the applicant’s duties do not involve the negotiation, authorization or approval of:

(b) Upon the receipt of a complaint, referral, or the commencement of an investigation, members of the commission shall disclose to the commission any personal, professional, financial, or other direct or indirect relationships a member of the commission may have with a complainant or respondent. If any commissioner determines a conflict of interest may exist, the commissioner shall, in writing, notify the other members of the commission setting forth the possible conflict of interest. The commissioner may recuse themself from all subsequent involvement in the consideration and determination of the matter. If, after the disclosure, the commissioner does not recuse themself from the matter, the commission, by a majority vote finding that the disclosed information creates a substantial conflict of interest, shall remove the conflicted commissioner from all subsequent involvement in the consideration and determination of the matter, provided the reason for the decision is clearly stated in the determination of the commission.

(c) The commission shall conduct any investigation necessary to carry out the provisions of this section. Pursuant to this power and duty, the commission may administer oaths or affirmations, subpoena witnesses, compel their attendance and testimony, and require the production of any books or records which it may deem relevant or material. The respondent shall have fifteen days from receipt of the written notice to provide any preliminary response or information the respondent determines may benefit the commission or commission staff in its work. After the review and investigation, the staff shall prepare a report to the commission setting forth the allegation or allegations made, the evidence gathered in the review and investigation tending to support and disprove, if any, the allegation or allegations, the relevant law, and a recommendation for the closing of the matter as unfounded or unsubstantiated, for settlement, for guidance, or moving the matter to a confidential due process hearing. The commission shall, by majority vote, return the matter to the staff for further investigation or accept or reject the staff recommendation.

(g) In an investigation involving a victim the commission shall ensure that any interview of such victim is upon such victim’s consent and that the investigator or investigators interviewing such victim have adequate trauma informed and victim centered investigative training. If a victim is requested to testify at a hearing, the commission shall provide sufficient notice to the victim of such request. Regardless of whether a victim is requested to or testifies at a hearing, the victim shall be informed as to how any statements made or information provided will be used in an investigation.

(h) Upon the conclusion of an investigation, if the commission, after consideration of a staff report, determines by majority vote that there is credible evidence of a violation of the laws under its jurisdiction, it shall provide the respondent timely notice for a due process hearing. The commission shall also inform the respondent of its rules regarding the conduct of adjudicatory proceedings and appeals and the other due process procedural mechanisms available to the respondent. If after a hearing the complaint is unsubstantiated or unfounded, the commission shall provide written notice to the respondent, complainant, if any, and victim, if any, provided that such notice shall not include any personally identifying information or information tending to identify any party involved in an investigation.

(i) The hearing shall be conducted before an independent arbitrator. Such hearing shall afford the respondent with a reasonable opportunity to appear in person, and by attorney, give sworn testimony, present evidence, and cross-examine witnesses.

(j) The commission may, at any time, develop procedures and rules for resolution of de minimus or minor violations that can be resolved outside of the enforcement process, including the sending of a confidential guidance or educational letter.

(k) The jurisdiction of the commission when acting pursuant to this section shall continue notwithstanding that a statewide elected official or a state officer or employee or member of the legislature or legislative employee separates from state service, or a political party chair ceases to hold such office, or a candidate ceases to be a candidate, or a lobbyist or client of a lobbyist ceases to act as such, provided that the commission notifies such individual or entity of the alleged violation of law within two years from the individual’s separation from state service or termination of party service or candidacy, or from the last report filed pursuant to article one-A of the legislative law. Nothing in this section shall serve to limit the jurisdiction of the commission in enforcement of subdivision eight of section seventy-three of the public officers law.
(l) If the commission's vote to proceed to a due process hearing after the completion of an investigation does not carry, the commission shall provide written notice of the decision to the respondent, complainant, if any, and victim, if any, provided that such notice shall not include any personally identifying information or information tending to identify any party involved in an investigation.

(m) If the commission determines a complaint or referral lacks specific and credible evidence of a violation of the laws under its jurisdiction, or a matter is closed due to the allegations being unsubstantiated prior to a vote by the commission, such records and all related material shall be exempt from public disclosure under article six of the public officers law, except the commission's vote shall be publicly disclosed in accordance with articles six and seven of the public officers law. The commission shall provide written notice of such closure to the respondent, complainant, if any, or victim, if any, provided that such notice shall not include any personally identifying information or information tending to identify any party involved in an investigation.

(n) (i) An individual subject to the jurisdiction of the commission who knowingly and intentionally violates the provisions of subdivisions two through five-a, seven, eight, twelve or fourteen through seventeen of section seventy-three of the public officers law, section one hundred seven of the civil service law, or a reporting individual who knowingly and willfully fails to file an annual statement of financial disclosure or who knowingly and willfully with intent to deceive makes a false statement or fraudulent omission or gives information which such individual knows to be false on such statement of financial disclosure filed pursuant to section seventy-three-a of the public officers law, shall be subject to a civil penalty in an amount not to exceed forty thousand dollars and the value of any gift, compensation or benefit received as a result of such violation.

(ii) An individual who knowingly and intentionally violates the provisions of paragraph a, b, c, d, e, g, or i of subdivision three of section seventy-four of the public officers law, shall be subject to a civil penalty in an amount not to exceed ten thousand dollars and the value of any gift, compensation or benefit received as a result of such violation.

(iii) An individual subject to the jurisdiction of the commission who knowingly and willfully violates article one-A of the legislative law shall be subject to civil penalty as provided for in that article.

(iv) With respect to a potential violation of any criminal law where the commission finds sufficient cause by a majority vote, it shall refer such matter to the appropriate law enforcement authority for further investigation.

(v) In assessing the amount of the civil penalties to be imposed, the commission shall consider the seriousness of the violation, the amount of gain to the individual and whether the individual previously had any civil or criminal penalties imposed pursuant to this section, and any other factors the commission deems appropriate.

(vi) A civil penalty for false filing shall not be imposed under this subdivision in the event a category of "value" or "amount" reported hereunder is incorrect unless such reported information is falsely understated.

(vii) Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, no other penalty, civil or criminal may be imposed for a failure to file, or for a false filing, of such statement, or a violation of subdivision six of section seventy-three of the public officers law or section one hundred seven of the civil service law, except that the commission may recommend that the individual in violation of such subdivision or section be disciplined.

(o) The commission shall be deemed to be an agency within the meaning of article three of the state administrative procedure act and shall adopt rules governing the conduct of adjudicatory proceedings and appeals taken pursuant to a proceeding commenced under article seventy-eight of the civil practice law and rules relating to the assessment of the civil penalties or the recommendation of employee discipline herein authorized. Such rule shall provide for due process procedural mechanisms substantially similar to those set forth in article three of the state administrative procedure act but such mechanisms need not be identical in terms or scope.

(p) (i) The commission shall have jurisdiction to investigate, but shall have no jurisdiction to impose penalties or discipline upon members of or candidates for member of the legislature or legislative employees for any violation of the public officers law or section one hundred seven of the civil service law. If, after investigation and a due process hearing, the commission has found, by a majority vote, a substantial basis to conclude that a member of the legislature or a legislative employee or candidate for member of the legislature has violated any provisions of such laws, it shall prepare a written report of its findings and provide a copy of that report to the legislative ethics commission, and to such individual in violation of such law. The commission shall provide to the legislative ethics commission copies of the full investigative file and hearing record.

(ii) With respect to the investigation of any individual who is not a member of the legislature or a legislative employee or candidate for member of the legislature, if after its investigation and due process hearing, the commission has found, by a majority vote, a substantial basis to conclude that the individual or entity has violated the public officers law, section one hundred seven of the civil service law, or the legislative law, the commission shall determine whether, in addition to or in lieu of any fine authorized by this article, the matter should be referred to their employer for discipline with a warning, admonition, censure, suspension or termination or other appropriate discipline. With regard to statewide elected officials, the commission may not order suspension or termination but may recommend impeachment. The commission shall then issue a report containing its determinations including its findings of fact and conclusions of law to the complainant and respondent. The commission shall publish such report on its website within twenty days of its delivery to the complainant and respondent.
11. Confidentiality.

(a) When an individual becomes a commissioner or staff of the commission, such individual shall be required to sign a non-disclosure statement.

(b) Except as otherwise required or provided by law, or when necessary to inform the complainant or respondent of the alleged violation of law, if any, of the status of an investigation, testimony received, or any other information obtained by a commissioner or staff of the commission, shall not be disclosed by any such individual to any person or entity outside of the commission during the pendency of any matter. Any confidential communication to any person or entity outside the commission related to the matters before the commission shall occur only as authorized by the commission. For the purposes of this paragraph, "matter" shall mean any complaint, review, inquiry, or investigation into alleged violations of this chapter.

(c) The commission shall establish procedures necessary to prevent the unauthorized disclosure of any information received by any member of the commission or staff of the commission. Any breaches of confidentiality may be investigated by the New York state office of the inspector general, attorney general, or other appropriate law enforcement authority upon a majority vote of the commission to refer, and appropriate action shall be taken.

(d) Any commission member or person employed by the commission who intentionally and without authorization releases confidential information received or generated by the commission shall be guilty of a class A misdemeanor.

12. Annual report.

(a) The commission shall make an annual public report summarizing the activities of the commission during the previous year and recommending any changes in the laws governing the conduct of persons subject to the jurisdiction of the commission, or the rules, regulations and procedures governing the commission’s conduct. Such report shall include, but is not limited to:
(i) information on the number and type of complaints received by the commission and the status of such complaints;

(ii) information on the number of investigations pending and nature of such investigations;

(iii) where a matter has been resolved, the date and nature of the disposition and any sanction imposed; provided, however, that such annual report shall not contain any information for which disclosure is not permitted pursuant to this section or other laws;

(iv) information regarding financial disclosure compliance for the preceding year; and

(v) information regarding lobbying law filing compliance for the preceding year.

(b) Such a report shall be filed in the office of the governor and with the legislature on or before the first day of April for the preceding year.

13. Website.

(b) The commission shall post on its website the following documents:

(ii) notices of delinquency sent under subdivision nine of this section;
(iii) notices of civil assessments imposed under this section which shall include a description of the nature of the alleged wrongdoing, the procedural history of the complaint, the findings and determinations made by the commission, and any sanction imposed;

(v) those required to be held or maintained publicly available pursuant to article one-A of the legislative law; and

(vi) reports issued by the commission pursuant to this section.

14. Additional powers. In addition to any other powers and duties specified by law, the commission shall have the power and duty to administer and enforce all the provisions of this section.

15. Severability. If any part or provision of this section or the application thereof to any person or organization is adjudged by a court of competent jurisdiction to be unconstitutional or otherwise invalid, such judgment shall not affect or impair any other part or provision or the application thereof to any other person or organization, but shall be confined in its operation to such part or provision.
1. There is established a legislative ethics commission which shall consist of nine members. Four members shall be members of the legislature and shall be appointed as follows: one by the temporary president of the senate, one by the speaker of the assembly, one by the minority leader of the senate and one by the minority leader of the assembly. The remaining five members shall not be present or former members of the legislature, candidates for member of the legislature, employees of the legislature, political party chairmen as defined in paragraph (k) of subdivision one of section seventy-three of the public officers law, or lobbyists, as defined in section one-c of this chapter, or persons who have been employees of the legislature, political party chairmen as defined in paragraph (k) of subdivision one of section seventy-three of the public officers law, or lobbyists, as defined in section one-c of this chapter in the previous five years, and shall be appointed as follows: one by the temporary president of the senate, one by the speaker of the assembly, one by the minority leader of the senate, one by the minority leader of the assembly, and one jointly by the speaker of the assembly and majority leader of the senate. The commission shall serve as described in this section and have and exercise the powers and duties set forth in this section only with respect to members of the legislature, legislative employees as defined in section seventy-three of the public officers law, candidates for member of the legislature and individuals who have formerly held such positions or who have formerly been such candidates.

2. Members of the legislature who serve on the commission shall each have a two year term concurrent with their legislative terms of office. The members of the commission who are not members of the legislature and who are first appointed by the temporary president of the senate, speaker of the assembly, minority leader of the senate, and minority leader of the assembly shall serve one, two, three and four year terms, respectively. The member of the commission first appointed jointly by the temporary president of the senate and speaker of the assembly shall serve a four year term. Each member of the commission who is not a member of the legislature shall be appointed thereafter for a term of four years.

3. The temporary president of the senate and the speaker of the assembly shall each designate one member of the commission as a co-chairperson thereof. The commission shall meet at least bi-monthly and at such additional times as may be called for by the co-chairpersons jointly or any five members of the commission.

4. Any vacancy occurring on the commission shall be filled within thirty days by the appointing authority.

5. Five members of the commission shall constitute a quorum, and the commission shall have power to act by majority vote of the total number of members of the commission without vacancy.

6. The members of the commission who are not members of the legislature shall be reimbursed for reasonable expenses and receive a per diem allowance in the sum of three hundred dollars for each day spent in the performance of their official duties.

7. The commission shall:

   a. Appoint an executive director who shall act in accordance with the policies of the commission, provided that the commission may remove the executive director for neglect of duty, misconduct in office, or inability or failure to discharge the powers or duties of office;

   b. Appoint such other staff as are necessary to assist it to carry out its duties under this section;

   c. Adopt, amend, and rescind policies, rules and regulations consistent with this section to govern procedures of the commission which shall not be subject to the promulgation and hearing requirements of the state administrative procedure act;

   d. Administer the provisions of this section;
e. Specify the procedures whereby a person who is required to file an annual financial disclosure statement with the commission may request an additional period of time within which to file such statement, due to justifiable cause or undue hardship; such rules or regulations shall provide for a date beyond which in all cases of justifiable cause or undue hardship no further extension of time will be granted;

f. Promulgate guidelines to assist appointing authorities in determining which persons hold policy-making positions for purposes of section seventy-three-a of the public officers law and may promulgate guidelines to assist firms, associations and corporations in separating affected persons from net revenues for purposes of subdivision ten of section seventy-three of the public officers law, and promulgate guidelines to assist any firm, association or corporation in which any present or former statewide elected official, state officer or employee, member of the legislature or legislative employee, or political party chair is a member, associate, retired member, of counsel or shareholder, in complying with the provisions of subdivision ten of section seventy-three of the public officers law with respect to the separation of such present or former statewide elected official, state officer or employee, member of the legislature or legislative employee, or political party chair from the net revenues of the firm, association or corporation. Such firm, association or corporation shall not be required to adopt the procedures contained in the guidelines to establish compliance with subdivision ten of section seventy-three of the public officers law, but if such firm, association or corporation does adopt such procedures, it shall be deemed to be in compliance with such subdivision ten;

g. Make available forms for financial disclosure statements required to be filed pursuant to subdivision six of section seventy-three and section seventy-three-a of the public officers law as provided by the commission on ethics and lobbying in government;

h. Review financial disclosure statements in accordance with the provisions of this section, provided however, that the commission may delegate all or part of the review function relating to financial disclosure statements filed by legislative employees pursuant to sections seventy-three and seventy-three-a of the public officers law to the executive director who shall be responsible for completing staff review of such statements in a manner consistent with the terms of the commission’s delegation;

i. Upon written request from any person who is subject to the jurisdiction of the commission and the requirements of sections seventy-three, seventy-three-a and seventy-four of the public officers law, render formal advisory opinions on the requirements of said provisions. A formal written opinion rendered by the commission, until and unless amended or revoked, shall be binding on the legislative ethics commission in any subsequent proceeding concerning the person who requested the opinion and who acted in good faith, unless material facts were omitted or misstated by the person in the request for an opinion. Such opinion may also be relied upon by such person, and may be introduced and shall be a defense in any criminal or civil action. The commission on ethics and lobbying in government shall not investigate an individual for potential violations of law based upon conduct approved and covered in its entirety by such an opinion, except that such opinion shall not prevent or preclude an investigation of and report to the legislative ethics commission concerning the conduct of the person who obtained it by the commission on ethics and lobbying in government for violations of section seventy-three, seventy-three-a or seventy-four of the public officers law to determine whether the person accurately and fully represented to the legislative ethics commission the facts relevant to the formal advisory opinion and whether the person’s conduct conformed to those factual representations. The commission on ethics and lobbying in government shall be authorized and shall have jurisdiction to investigate potential violations of the law arising from conduct outside of the scope of the terms of the advisory opinion; and

j. Issue and publish generic advisory opinions covering questions frequently posed to the commission, or questions common to a class or defined category of persons, or that will tend to prevent undue repetition of requests or undue complication, and which are intended to provide general guidance and information to persons subject to the commission’s jurisdiction;
k. Develop educational materials and training with regard to legislative ethics for members of the legislature and legislative employees including an online ethics orientation course for newly-hired employees and, as requested by the senate or the assembly, materials and training in relation to a comprehensive ethics training program; and

l. Prepare an annual report to the governor and legislature summarizing the activities of the commission during the previous year and recommending any changes in the laws governing the conduct of persons subject to the jurisdiction of the commission, or the rules, regulations and procedures governing the commission’s conduct. Such report shall include: (i) a listing by assigned number of each complaint and report received from the commission on ethics and lobbying in government which alleged a possible violation within its jurisdiction, including the current status of each complaint, and (ii) where a matter has been resolved, the date and nature of the disposition and any sanction imposed, subject to the confidentiality requirements of this section. Such annual report shall not contain any information for which disclosure is not permitted pursuant to subdivision twelve of this section.

8. The jurisdiction of the commission to impose penalties when acting pursuant to this section shall continue notwithstanding that a member of the legislature or a legislative employee separates from state service, or a candidate for member of the legislature ceases to be a candidate, provided that such individual has been notified of the alleged violation of law within one year from his or her separation from state service or the termination of his or her candidacy.

9. (a) An individual subject to the jurisdiction of the commission with respect to the imposition of penalties who knowingly and intentionally violates the provisions of subdivisions two through five-a, seven, eight, twelve, fourteen or fifteen of section seventy-three of the public officers law or a reporting individual who knowingly and wilfully fails to file an annual statement of financial disclosure or who knowingly and wilfully with intent to deceive makes a false statement or gives information which such individual knows to be false on such statement of financial disclosure filed pursuant to section seventy-three-a of the public officers law shall be subject to a civil penalty in an amount not to exceed forty thousand dollars and the value of any gift, compensation or benefit received as a result of such violation. Any such individual who knowingly and intentionally violates the provisions of paragraph a, b, c, d, e, g, or i of subdivision three of section seventy-four of the public officers law shall be subject to a civil penalty in an amount not to exceed ten thousand dollars and the value of any gift, compensation or benefit received as a result of such violation. Assessment of a civil penalty hereunder shall be made by the commission with respect to persons subject to its jurisdiction. In assessing the amount of the civil penalties to be imposed, the commission shall consider the seriousness of the violation, the amount of gain to the individual and whether the individual previously had any civil or criminal penalties imposed pursuant to this section, and any other factors the commission deems appropriate. For a violation of this section, other than for conduct which constitutes a violation of subdivision twelve, fourteen or fifteen of section seventy-three or section seventy-four of the public officers law, the legislative ethics commission may, in lieu of or in addition to a civil penalty, refer a violation to the appropriate prosecutor and upon such conviction, but only after such referral, such violation shall be punishable as a class A misdemeanor. Where the commission finds sufficient cause, it shall refer such matter to the appropriate prosecutor. A civil penalty for false filing may not be imposed hereunder in the event a category of "value" or "amount" reported hereunder is incorrect unless such reported information is falsely understated. Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, no other penalty, civil or criminal may be imposed for a failure to file, or for a false filing, of such statement, or a violation of subdivision six of section seventy-three of the public officers law, except that the appointing authority may impose disciplinary action as otherwise provided by law. The legislative ethics commission shall be deemed to be an agency within the meaning of article three of the state administrative procedure act and shall adopt rules governing the conduct of adjudicatory proceedings and appeals taken pursuant to a proceeding commenced under article seventy-eight of the civil practice law and rules relating to the assessment of the civil penalties herein authorized. Such rules, which shall not be subject to the promulgation and hearing requirements of the state administrative procedure act, shall provide for due process procedural mechanisms substantially similar to those set forth in such article three but such mechanisms need not be identical in terms or scope. Assessment of a civil penalty shall be final unless modified, suspended or vacated within thirty days of imposition, with respect to the assessment of such penalty, or unless such denial of request is reversed within such time period, and upon becoming final shall be subject to review at the instance of the affected reporting individuals in a proceeding commenced against the legislative ethics commission, pursuant to article seventy-eight of the civil practice law and rules.

b. Not later than twenty calendar days after receipt from the commission on ethics and lobbying in government of a written substantial basis investigation report and any supporting documentation or other materials regarding a matter before the commission pursuant to section ninety-four of the executive law, unless requested by a law enforcement agency to suspend the commission’s action because of an ongoing criminal investigation, the legislative ethics commission shall make public such report in its entirety; provided, however, that the commission may withhold such information for not more than one additional period of the same duration or refer the matter back to the commission on ethics and lobbying in government once for additional investigation, in which case the legislative ethics commission shall, upon the termination of such additional period or upon receipt of a new report by the commission on ethics and lobbying in government after such additional investigation, make public the written report and publish it on the commission’s website. If the legislative ethics commission fails to make public the written report received from the commission on ethics and lobbying in government in accordance with this paragraph, the commission on ethics and lobbying in government shall release such report publicly promptly and in any event no later than ten days after the legislative ethics commission is required to release such report. The legislative ethics commission shall not refer the matter back to the commission on ethics and lobbying in government for additional investigation more than once. If the commission refers the matter back to the commission on ethics and lobbying in government for additional fact-finding, the commission on ethics and lobbying in government’s original report shall remain confidential.

10. Upon receipt of a written report from the commission on ethics and lobbying in government pursuant to subdivision fourteen-a of section seventy-three of the public officers law, the legislative ethics commission shall commence its review of the matter addressed in such report. No later than ninety days after receipt of such report, the legislative ethics commission shall dispose of the matter by making one or more of the following determinations:

a. whether the legislative ethics commission concurs with the commission on ethics and lobbying in government's conclusions of law and the reasons therefor;

b. whether and which penalties have been assessed pursuant to applicable law or rule and the reasons therefor; and

c. whether further actions have been taken by the commission to punish or deter the misconduct at issue and the reasons therefor. The commission’s disposition shall be reported in writing and published on its website no later than ten days after such disposition unless requested by a law enforcement agency to suspend the commission’s action because of an ongoing criminal investigation.

11. If the commission has a reasonable basis to believe that any person subject to the jurisdiction of another state oversight body may have violated section seventy-three or seventy-four of the public officers law, section one hundred seven of the civil service law, or article one-A of this chapter, it shall refer such violation to such oversight body unless the commission determines that such a referral would compromise the prosecution or confidentiality of its proceedings and, if so, shall make such a referral as soon as practicable. The referral by the commission shall include any information relating thereto coming into the custody or under the control of the commission at any time prior or subsequent to the time of the referral.

12. a. Notwithstanding the provisions of article six of the public officers law, the only records of the commission which shall be available for public inspection and copying are:

   (1) the terms of any settlement or compromise of a complaint or referral or report which includes a fine, penalty or other remedy reached after the commission has received a report from the commission on ethics and lobbying in government pursuant to section ninety-four of the executive law;
(2) generic advisory opinions;

(3) all reports required by this section; and

(4) all reports received from the commission on ethics and lobbying in government pursuant to section ninety-four of the executive law and in conformance with paragraph
(b) of subdivision nine of this section.

b. Notwithstanding the provisions of article seven of the public officers law, no meeting or proceeding of the commission shall be open to the public, except if expressly provided otherwise by this section or the commission.

13. Within one hundred twenty days of the effective date of this subdivision, the commission shall create and thereafter maintain a publicly accessible website which shall set forth the procedure for filing a complaint with the commission on ethics and lobbying in government, and which shall contain any other records or information which the commission determines to be appropriate.

14. This section shall not revoke or rescind any policies, rules, regulations or advisory opinions issued by the legislative ethics committee in effect upon the effective date of this subdivision, to the extent that such regulations or opinions are not inconsistent with any laws of the state of New York. The legislative ethics commission shall undertake a comprehensive review of all such policies, rules, regulations or advisory opinions which will address the consistency of such policies, rules, regulations or advisory opinions with the laws of the state of New York. The legislative ethics commission shall, before April first, two thousand eight, report to the governor and legislature regarding such review and shall propose any regulatory changes and issue any advisory opinions necessitated by such review.

15. Separability clause. If any part or provision of this section or the application thereof to any person is adjudged by a court of competent jurisdiction to be unconstitutional or otherwise invalid, such judgment shall not affect or impair any other part or provision or the application thereof to any other person, but shall be confined to such part or provision.

TO: Employee’s Name: ______________________________

State agency: ______________________________

Date of Termination: ______________________________

I, (name and title) of (state agency), hereby certify that your termination from State service is because of economy, consolidation or abolition of functions, curtailment of activities or other reduction in the State work force. Therefore, you are covered by the provisions of paragraph (b) of subdivision eight of section seventy-three of the Public Officers Law.

You were designated as a policy maker: YES ____ NO ____

(TITLE)

TO THE EMPLOYEE:

This certification affects your right to engage in certain activities after you leave state service.

Ordinarily, employees who leave State service may not, for two years, appear or practice before their former agency or receive compensation for rendering services on a matter before their former agency. However, because of this certification, you may be exempt from this restriction.

If you were not designated as a Policymaker by your agency, you are automatically exempt. You may, upon leaving State service, immediately appear, practice or receive compensation for services rendered before your former agency.
If you were designated as a Policymaker by your agency, you are eligible to apply for an exemption to the Commission on Public Integrity at 540 Broadway, Albany, New York 12207.

Even if you are or become exempt from the two year bar, the lifetime bar of the revolving door statute will continue to apply to you. You may not appear, practice, communicate or otherwise render services before any State agency in relation to any case, proceeding, application or transaction with respect to which you were directly concerned and in which you personally participated during your State service, or which was under your active consideration.

If you have any questions about the application of the post-employment restrictions to your circumstances, you may contact the Commission on Public Integrity at (518) 408-3976 or 1-800-87ETHIC (1-800-873-8442).

(ii) The provisions of subparagraph (i) of this paragraph shall not apply to any such officer or employee who at the time of or prior to such termination had served in a policymaking position as determined by the appointing authority, which determination had been filed with the state ethics commission or the commission on public integrity, provided that such officer or employee may so appear or practice or receive such compensation with the prior approval of the state ethics commission or the commission on public integrity. In determining whether to grant such approval the state ethics commission or the commission on public integrity shall consider:

A. whether the employee's prior job duties involved substantial decision-making authority over policies, rule or contracts;

B. the nature of the duties to be performed by the employee for the prospective employer;

C. whether the prospective employment is likely to involve substantial contact with the employee's former agency and the extent to which any such contact is likely to involve matters where the agency has the discretion to make decisions based on the work product of the employee;

D. whether the prospective employment may be beneficial to the state or the public; and

E. the extent of economic hardship to the employee if the application is denied.

(c) The provisions of paragraph (b) of this subdivision shall not apply to employees whose employment has been discontinued as a result of retirement or to employees who, prior to termination, have declined to exercise a right to another position with a state agency unless such position would require the employee to travel more than thirty-five miles in each direction to the new position or accept a reduction in base salary of more than ten per centum.

(d) Nothing contained in this subdivision shall prohibit any state agency from adopting rules concerning practice before it by former officers or employees more restrictive than the requirements of this subdivision.

(e) This subdivision shall not apply to any appearance, practice, communication or rendition of services before any state agency, or either house of the legislature, or to the receipt of compensation for any such services, rendered by a former state officer or employee or former member of the legislature or legislative employee, which is made while carrying out official duties as an elected official or employee of a federal, state or local government or one of its agencies.

(f) Nothing in this subdivision shall be deemed to prevent a former state officer or employee who was employed on a temporary basis to perform routine clerical services, mail services, data entry services or other similar ministerial tasks, from subsequently being employed by a person, firm, corporation or association under contract to a state agency to perform such routine clerical services, mail services, data entry services or other similar ministerial tasks; provided however, this paragraph shall in no event apply to any such state officer or employee who was required to file an annual statement of financial disclosure pursuant to section seventy-three-a of this article.
(g) Notwithstanding the provisions of subparagraphs (i) and (ii) of paragraph (a) of this subdivision, a former state officer or employee may contract individually, or as a member or employee of a firm, corporation or association, to render services to any state agency when the agency head certifies in writing to the state ethics commission that the services of such former officer or employee are required in connection with the agency's efforts to address the state's year 2000 compliance problem.

(h) Notwithstanding the provisions of subparagraphs (i) and (ii) of paragraph (a) of this subdivision, a former state officer or employee may contract individually, or as a member or employee of a firm, corporation or association, to render services to any state agency when the agency head certifies in writing to the commission on ethics and lobbying in government that the services of such former officer or employee are required in connection with the agency's response to a disaster emergency declared by the governor pursuant to section twenty-eight of the executive law.

(i) The provisions of subparagraphs (i) and (ii) of paragraph (a) of this subdivision shall not apply to any person as a result of his or her temporary employment by the New York state department of agriculture and markets in the civil service title of veterinarian one or animal health inspector one and their service, in that capacity, as a member of the New York state emergency veterinary corps.

8-a. The provisions of subparagraphs (i) and (ii) of paragraph (a) of subdivision eight of this section shall not apply to any such former state officer or employee engaged in any of the specific permitted activities defined in this subdivision that are related to any civil action or proceeding in any state or federal court, provided that the attorney general has certified in writing to the commission on ethics and lobbying in government, with a copy to such former state officer or employee, that the services are rendered on behalf of the state, a state agency, state officer or employee, or other person or entity represented by the attorney general, and that such former state officer or employee has expertise, knowledge or experience which is unique or outstanding in a field or in a particular matter or which would otherwise be generally unavailable at a comparable cost to the state, a state agency, state officer or employee, or other person or entity represented by the attorney general in such civil action or proceeding. In those instances where a state agency is not represented by the attorney general in a civil action or proceeding in state or federal court, a former state officer or employee may engage in permitted activities provided that the general counsel of the state agency, after consultation with the commission on ethics and lobbying in government, provides to the commission on ethics and lobbying in government a written certification which meets the requirements of this subdivision. For purposes of this subdivision the term "permitted activities" shall mean generally any activity performed at the request of the attorney general or the attorney general’s designee, or in cases where the state agency is not represented by the attorney general, the general counsel of such state agency, including without limitation:

(d) performing audits, appraisals, compilations or computations, or reporting about them;

(e) identifying information to be sought concerning facts or opinions; or

(f) otherwise assisting in the preparation for, or conduct of, such litigation.

Nothing in this subdivision shall apply to the provision of legal representation by any former state officer or employee.

8-b. Notwithstanding the provisions of subparagraphs (i) and (ii) of paragraph (a) of subdivision eight of this section, a former state officer or employee may contract individually, or as a member or employee of a firm, corporation or association, to render services to any state agency if, prior to engaging in such service, the agency head certifies in writing to the commission on ethics and lobbying in government that such former officer or employee has expertise, knowledge or experience with respect to a particular matter which meets the needs of the agency and is otherwise unavailable at a comparable cost. Where approval of the contract is required under section one hundred twelve of the state finance law, the comptroller shall review and consider the reasons for such certification. The commission on ethics and lobbying in government must review and approve all certifications made pursuant to this subdivision.

8-c. Notwithstanding the provisions of subparagraphs (i) and (ii) of paragraph (a) of subdivision eight of this section, a former state officer or employee who, prior to his or her separation from state service, was employed as a health care professional and, in conjunction with his or her state duties, provided treatment and/or medical services to individuals residing in or served by a state-operated facility is not barred from rendering services to such individuals in their care prior to leaving state service, at the state-operated facility which employed the former state officer or employee.

(b) No member of the legislature or former member of the legislature shall be prohibited from appearing, practicing, communicating or otherwise rendering services in relation to any matter before, or transacting business with, any state agency solely by reason of any vote or other action by such member or former member in respect to the confirmation or election of any member, commissioner, director or other person affiliated with such state agency, but nothing in this paragraph shall limit the prohibition contained in subdivision eight of this section;

(c) The appearance, practice, communication or rendition of services in relation to any matter before, or transaction of business with a state agency, or with the court of claims, or the promotion or opposition to the passage of bills or resolutions by either house of the legislature, by a member, associate, retired member, of counsel or shareholder of a firm, association or corporation, in accordance with subdivision ten of this section, is hereby authorized and shall not constitute professional misconduct or grounds for disciplinary action of any kind solely by reason of the professional relationship between the statewide elected official, state officer or employee, political party chairman, member of the legislature, or legislative employee and any firm, association, corporation or any member, associate, retired member, of counsel, or shareholder thereof, or by reason of the appearance created by any such professional relationship.

A reporting individual need not disclose activities performed while lawfully acting in his or her capacity as provided in paragraphs (c), (d), (e) and (f) of subdivision seven of section seventy-three of this article.

The disclosure requirement in questions (b-1) and (b-2) shall not require disclosing clients or customers receiving medical, pharmaceutical or dental services, mental health services, or residential real estate brokering services from the reporting individual or his or her firm or if federal law prohibits or limits disclosure. The reporting individual need not identify any client to whom he or she or his or her firm provided legal representation with respect to investigation or prosecution by law enforcement authorities, bankruptcy, family court, estate planning, or domestic relations matters, nor shall the reporting individual identify individuals represented pursuant to an insurance policy but the reporting individual shall in such circumstances only report the entity that provides compensation to the reporting individual; with respect to matters in which the client’s name is required by law to be kept confidential (such as matters governed by the family court act) or in matters in which the reporting individual represents or provides services to minors, the client’s name may be replaced with initials. To the extent that the reporting individual, or his or her firm, provided legal representation with respect to an initial public offering, and professional disciplinary rules, federal law or regulations restrict the disclosure of information relating to such work, the reporting individual shall (i) disclose the identity of the client and the services provided relating to the initial public offering to the office of court administration, who will maintain such information confidentially in a locked box; and (ii) include in his or her response to questions (b-1) and (b-2) that pursuant to this paragraph, a disclosure to the office of court administration has been made. Upon such time that the disclosure of information maintained in the locked box is no longer restricted by professional disciplinary rules, federal law or regulation, the reporting individual shall disclose such information in an amended disclosure statement in response to the disclosure requirements in questions (b-1) and (b-2). The office of court administration shall develop and maintain a secure portal through which information submitted to it pursuant to this paragraph can be safely and confidentially stored. With respect to clients represented in other matters not otherwise exempt, the reporting individual may request an exemption to publicly disclosing the name of that client from the commission on ethics and lobbying in government pursuant to section ninety-four of the executive law, or from the office of court administration. In such application, the reporting individual shall state the following: "My client is not currently receiving my services or seeking my services in connection with:

(i) A proposed bill or resolution in the senate or assembly during the reporting period;

(ii) A contract in an amount totaling $10,000 or more from the state or any state agency for services, materials, or property;

(iii) A grant of $10,000 or more from the state or any state agency during the reporting period;

(iv) A grant obtained through a legislative initiative during the reporting period; or

(v) A case, proceeding, application or other matter that is not a ministerial matter before a state agency during the reporting period."

In reviewing the request for an exemption, the commission on ethics and lobbying in government or the office of court administration may consult with bar or other professional associations and the legislative ethics commission for individuals subject to its jurisdiction and may consider the rules of professional conduct. In making its determination, the commission on ethics and lobbying in government or the office of court administration shall conduct its own inquiry and shall consider factors including, but not limited to: (i) the nature and the size of the client; (ii) whether the client has any business before the state; and if so, how significant the business is; and whether the client has any particularized interest in pending legislation and if so how significant the interest is; (iii) whether disclosure may reveal trade secrets; (iv) whether disclosure could reasonably result in retaliation against the client; (v) whether disclosure may cause undue harm to the client; (vi) whether disclosure may result in undue harm to the attorney-client relationship; and (vii) whether disclosure may result in an unnecessary invasion of privacy to the client.

The commission on ethics and lobbying in government or, as the case may be, the office of court administration shall promptly make a final determination in response to such request, which shall include an explanation for its determination. The office of court administration shall issue its final determination within three days of receiving the request. Notwithstanding any other provision of law or any professional disciplinary rule to the contrary, the disclosure of the identity of any client or customer in response to this question shall not constitute professional misconduct or a ground for disciplinary action of any kind, or form the basis for any civil or criminal cause of action or proceeding. A reporting individual who first enters public office after January first, two thousand sixteen, need not report clients or customers with respect to matters for which the reporting individual or his or her firm was retained prior to entering public office.

(c) APPLICABLE ONLY TO NEW CLIENTS OR CUSTOMERS FOR WHOM SERVICES ARE PROVIDED ON OR AFTER DECEMBER THIRTY-FIRST, TWO THOUSAND FIFTEEN, OR FOR NEW MATTERS FOR EXISTING CLIENTS OR CUSTOMERS WITH RESPECT TO THOSE SERVICES THAT ARE PROVIDED ON OR AFTER DECEMBER THIRTY-FIRST, TWO THOUSAND FIFTEEN:

If the reporting individual receives income of ten thousand dollars or greater from any employment or activity reportable under question 8(a), identify each registered lobbyist who has directly referred to such individual a client who was successfully referred to the reporting individual's business and from whom the reporting individual or firm received a fee for services in excess of five thousand dollars. Report only those referrals that were made to a reporting individual by direct communication from a person known to such reporting individual to be a registered lobbyist at the time the referral is made. With respect to each such referral, the reporting individual shall identify the client, the registered lobbyist who has made the referral, the category of value of the compensation received and a general description of the type of matter so referred. A reporting individual need not disclose activities performed while lawfully acting pursuant to paragraphs (c), (d), (e) and (f) of subdivision seven of section seventy-three of this article. The disclosure requirements in this question shall not require disclosing clients or customers receiving medical, pharmaceutical or dental services, mental health services, or residential real estate brokering services from the reporting individual or his or her firm or if federal law prohibits or limits disclosure. The reporting individual need not identify any client to whom he or she or his or her firm provided legal representation with respect to investigation or prosecution by law enforcement authorities, bankruptcy, family court, estate planning, or domestic relations matters, nor shall the reporting individual identify individuals represented pursuant to an insurance policy but the reporting individual shall in such circumstances only report the entity that provides compensation to the reporting individual; with respect to matters in which the client’s name is required by law to be kept confidential (such as matters governed by the family court act) or in matters in which the reporting individual represents or provides services to minors, the client’s name may be replaced with initials. To the extent that the reporting individual, or his or her firm, provided legal representation with respect to an initial public offering, and federal law or regulations restricts the disclosure of information relating to such work, the reporting individual shall (i) disclose the identity of the client and the services provided relating to the initial public offering to the office of court administration, who will maintain such information confidentially in a locked box; and (ii) include in his or her response a statement that pursuant to this paragraph, a disclosure to the office of court administration has been made. Upon such time that the disclosure of information maintained in the locked box is no longer restricted by federal law or regulation, the reporting individual shall disclose such information in an amended disclosure statement in response to the disclosure requirements of this paragraph. The office of court administration shall develop and maintain a secure portal through which information submitted to it pursuant to this paragraph can be safely and confidentially stored. With respect to clients represented in other matters not otherwise exempt, the reporting individual may request an exemption to publicly disclosing the name of that client from the commission on ethics and lobbying in government pursuant to section ninety-four of the executive law, or from the office of court administration. In such application, the reporting individual shall state the following: "My client is not currently receiving my services or seeking my services in connection with:

(i) A proposed bill or resolution in the senate or assembly during the reporting period;

(ii) A contract in an amount totaling $10,000 or more from the state or any state agency for services, materials, or property;

(iii) A grant of $10,000 or more from the state or any state agency during the reporting period;
(iv) A grant obtained through a legislative initiative during the reporting period; or

(v) A case, proceeding, application or other matter that is not a ministerial matter before a state agency during the reporting period.”

In reviewing the request for an exemption, the commission on ethics and lobbying in government or the office of court administration may consult with bar or other professional associations and the legislative ethics commission for individuals subject to its jurisdiction and may consider the rules of professional conduct. In making its determination, the commission on ethics and lobbying in government or the office of court administration shall conduct its own inquiry and shall consider factors including, but not limited to: (i) the nature and the size of the client; (ii) whether the client has any business before the state; and if so, how significant the business is; and whether the client has any particularized interest in pending legislation and if so how significant the interest is; (iii) whether disclosure may reveal trade secrets; (iv) whether disclosure could reasonably result in retaliation against the client; (v) whether disclosure may cause undue harm to the client; (vi) whether disclosure may result in undue harm to the attorney-client relationship; and (vii) whether disclosure may result in an unnecessary invasion of privacy to the client.

The commission on ethics and lobbying in government or, as the case may be, the office of court administration shall promptly make a final determination in response to such request, which shall include an explanation for its determination. The office of court administration shall issue its final determination within three days of receiving the request. Notwithstanding any other provision of law or any professional disciplinary rule to the contrary, the disclosure of the identity of any client or customer in response to this question shall not constitute professional misconduct or a ground for disciplinary action of any kind, or form the basis for any civil or criminal cause of action or proceeding. A reporting individual who first enters public office after December thirty-first, two thousand fifteen, need not report clients or customers with respect to matters for which the reporting individual or his or her firm was retained prior to entering public office.

4. A reporting individual who knowingly and wilfully fails to file an annual statement of financial disclosure or who knowingly and wilfully with intent to deceive makes a false statement or gives information which such individual knows to be false on such statement of financial disclosure filed pursuant to this section shall be subject to a civil penalty in an amount not to exceed forty thousand dollars. Assessment of a civil penalty hereunder shall be made by the commission on ethics and lobbying in government or by the legislative ethics commission, as the case may be, with respect to persons subject to their respective jurisdictions. The commission on ethics and lobbying in government acting pursuant to subdivision fourteen of section ninety-four of the executive law or the legislative ethics commission acting pursuant to subdivision eleven of section eighty of the legislative law, as the case may be, may, in lieu of or in addition to a civil penalty, refer a violation to the appropriate prosecutor and upon such conviction, but only after such referral, such violation shall be punishable as a class A misdemeanor. A civil penalty for false filing may not be imposed hereunder in the event a category of "value" or "amount" reported hereunder is incorrect unless such reported information is falsely understated. Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, no other penalty, civil or criminal may be imposed for a failure to file, or for a false filing, of such statement, except that the appointing authority may impose disciplinary action as otherwise provided by law. The commission on ethics and lobbying in government and the legislative ethics commission shall each be deemed to be an agency within the meaning of article three of the state administrative procedure act and shall adopt rules governing the conduct of adjudicatory proceedings and appeals relating to the assessment of the civil penalties herein authorized. Such rules, which shall not be subject to the approval requirements of the state administrative procedure act, shall provide for due process procedural mechanisms substantially similar to those set forth in such article three but such mechanisms need not be identical in terms or scope. Assessment of a civil penalty shall be final unless modified, suspended or vacated within thirty days of imposition and upon becoming final shall be subject to review at the instance of the affected reporting individual in a proceeding commenced against the commission on ethics and lobbying in government or the legislative ethics commission, pursuant to article seventy-eight of the civil practice law and rules.

5. Nothing contained in this section shall be construed as precluding any public authority or public benefit corporation from exercising any authority or power now or hereafter existing to require any of its members, directors, officers or employees to file financial disclosure statements with such public authority or public benefit corporation that are the same as, different from or supplemental to any of the requirements contained herein and to provide only for internal employment discipline for any violation arising out of such internal filing.

6. Notwithstanding any other provision of law or any professional disciplinary rule to the contrary, the disclosure of the identity of any client or customer on a reporting individual’s annual statement of financial disclosure shall not constitute professional misconduct or a ground for disciplinary action of any kind, or form the basis for any civil or criminal cause of action or proceeding.

7. With respect to an application to either the commission on ethics and lobbying in government or the office of court administration for an exemption to disclosing the name of a client or customer in response to questions 8 (b-1), 8 (b-2) and 8 (c), all information which is the subject of or a part of such application shall remain confidential. The name of the client need not be disclosed by the reporting individual unless and until the commission on ethics and lobbying in government or the office of court administration formally advises the reporting individual that he or she must disclose such names and the reporting individual agrees to represent the client. Any commissioner or person employed by the commission on ethics and lobbying in government or any person employed by the office of court administration who, intentionally and without authorization from a court of competent jurisdiction releases confidential information related to a request for an exemption received by the commission or the office of court administration shall be guilty of a class A misdemeanor.

The court may order that some or all of the reduced or revoked pension be paid to satisfy the terms of any existing order for the payment of maintenance, child support or restitution or for the benefit of any dependent persons, as may be in the interests of justice, after taking into consideration the financial needs and resources available for support of such persons.

10. 2. Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision one of this section, no payments in return of contributions shall be made or ordered unless and until the supreme court determines that the public official whose pension has been reduced or revoked has satisfied in full any judgments or orders rendered by any court of competent jurisdiction for the payment of restitution to the state or a municipality for losses incurred as a result of such crime related to public office. If the supreme court determines that such public official whose pension is to be reduced or revoked has failed to satisfy any outstanding judgment or order of restitution rendered by a court of competent jurisdiction, it may order that any funds otherwise due to such public official as a return of contribution, or any portion thereof, be paid in satisfaction of such judgment or order.

(c) A person who becomes a Covered Individual after May 15 of any year shall file the extension request with the Commission within 30 days of becoming a Covered Individual. If the Commission grants the extension, such Covered Individual shall file the Financial Disclosure Statement within 45 days of the date that the statement is otherwise required.

(d) The extension request must contain the following information:

(1) The name of the Covered Individual, home address and work address;

(2) The title(s) of the position or job classification(s) under which the individual is employed, and the appropriate title code; and
(3) Documentation of justifiable cause or undue hardship in the form of a written statement with copies of any necessary supporting documents the Covered Individual wishes the Commission to consider in granting or denying the request.

(e) Justifiable cause or undue hardship shall not include periods of vacation, attendance at conferences or meetings or other prescheduled or voluntary absences.

936.5 Commission action.

(a) Upon receipt of a timely request from a Covered Individual for an extension in which to file a Financial Disclosure Statement, the Commission shall review the material filed to determine whether there has been a showing of justifiable cause or undue hardship.

(b) The Commission may request additional information from the Covered Individual who submitted the request. Such individual shall submit the additional information to the Commission within seven business days. In the event the Commission does not receive the additional information within 7 business days, the Commission may make a determination on the basis of the information it has available.

(c) The Commission shall notify the Covered Individual of its determination on the request for extension to file the Financial Disclosure Statement.

(1) If the Commission approves the extension request, the Covered Individual shall file the Financial Disclosure Statement within the applicable time period set forth in 936.4 (b) or (c) of this Section.

(2) If the Commission denies the extension request, such Financial Disclosure Statement shall be filed with the Commission within 15 days from receipt of such denial.

936.6 Automatic extension.

(a) In the event a Covered Individual timely filed with the Internal Revenue Service an application for automatic extension of time in which to file his or her individual income tax return for the immediately preceding calendar or fiscal year, such individual shall file with the Commission, with respect to any item of the annual statement, a written statement that such information is lacking from such annual statement but will be supplied in a supplementary Financial Disclosure Statement on or before the seventh day after the expiration of the period of such automatic extension of time to file such income tax return.

(b) The written statement filed with the Commission concerning an automatic extension of time to file must contain the following information:

(1) The name of the Covered Individual, home address and work address;

(2) The title(s) of the position or job classification(s) under which the individual is employed, and the appropriate title code;

(d) Failure to file such supplementary statement or filing an incomplete or deficient supplementary filing shall be subject to the notice and penalty provisions of the Public Officers Law and the Executive Law as if such supplementary statement were an annual Financial Disclosure Statement.

Upon an adverse determination on appeal by the members of the Commission, the reporting individual may request, within five calendar days of receipt of an adverse determination, and upon such request the Commission shall provide, that any information which is the subject or part of the application remain confidential for a period of thirty days following notice of such determination. In the event that the reporting individual resigns from office prior to the issuance of a determination and holds no other office subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission, the information shall not be made public and shall be expunged in its entirety.

Title 19 NYCRR Part 938

Source of Funding Regulations (Effective January 1, 2021)

Title 19 NYCRR Part 938 is amended to read as follows:

OFFICIAL COMPILATION OF CODES, RULES AND REGULATIONS OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK

TITLE 19. DEPARTMENT OF STATE

CHAPTER XX. JOINT COMMISSION ON PUBLIC ETHICS PART 938

SOURCE OF FUNDING REGULATIONS

938.1 Intent and Purpose.

(a) The Public Integrity Reform Act of 2011 (“PIRA”) (Chapter 399, Laws of 2011) established the Joint Commission on Public Ethics (“Commission”). The Commission regulates lobbyists and their clients in New York State through the disclosure and enforcement provisions set in Legislative Law article one-A. PIRA amended Legislative Law article one-A by enacting unprecedented disclosure requirements to better inform the public about efforts to influence governmental decision-making through increased transparency, including the source of funding disclosure requirement set forth in Legislative Law § 1-h(c)(4) and § 1-j(c)(4). Effective June 1, 2012, the source of funding amendments required lobbyists who lobby on their own behalf and clients, who devote substantial resources to lobbying activity in New York State, to make publicly available each source of funding over $5,000 for such lobbying. The legislation intended for these new disclosures to provide the public with more information regarding the actual entities and individuals that support lobbying campaigns in New York State.

(b) PIRA also required that the Commission issue regulations implementing the new law’s source of funding provisions. These regulations will clarify the source of funding reporting requirements, the procedure by which individuals and organizations may apply to the Commission for an exemption from disclosure, and the procedure by which they may appeal the Commission’s denial from exemption through a review by an independent judicial hearing officer. To fulfill the legislative intent, the Commission has sought the broadest determination possible of what must be disclosed pursuant to statute and as allowed by law.

(c) Part D of S.8160/A.10742 (2016) decreases the filing threshold for total lobbying expenditures to $15,000, from $50,000, and the minimum contribution amount for disclosing a source to $2,500, from $5,000. Further, it excluded funds received for membership dues, fees, and assessments from the contributions that must be disclosed, while continuing to require the donor to be identified as a source.

(d) The provisions of section 938.11 of this Part apply only to the Client Semi-Annual Report due January 15, 2017. For purposes of the January 15, 2017 Client Semi-Annual Report, all definitions and provisions of section 938.11 of this Part supersede any parallel definitions or provisions contained in this Part.

(e) The amended terms of this regulation shall become effective upon the effective date of Part D, S. 8160/A.10742 (2016).

938.2 Definitions. For purposes of this Part:

(a) Affiliate Relationship shall mean:

1. Two or more persons whom the Client Filer has actual knowledge live in the same household.

2. Two or more corporations, partnerships, organizations, or other entities that the Client Filer has actual knowledge or reason to know have any of the following relationships: parent/subsidiary; subsidiaries with the same corporate parent; national or regional organization and their local chapter(s); local chapters of the same national or regional organization.

3. A sole proprietorship and its sole proprietor if the Client Filer knows or has reason to know of the relationship.

4. Whether a Client Filer has “reason to know” of the relationships listed in paragraphs (2) and (3) of this subdivision is based on an examination of the totality of the facts and circumstances. If a reasonable person, looking at all the facts and circumstances, would conclude that a Client Filer should know of the existence of one or more of these relationships, then the “reason to know” standard has been satisfied.

(b) Client Filer shall mean:

(1) A Beneficial Client, as defined in section 3 of Part 943 of this Title, other than a Public Corporation; or

(2) Any lobbyist registered pursuant to Legislative Law §1-e whose lobbying activity is performed on its own behalf and not pursuant to retention by a client. (Such a lobbyist is considered its own client for reporting purposes.)

(c) Client Semi-Annual Report shall mean the semi-annual reports filed with the Commission pursuant to Legislative Law § 1-j.

(d) Coalition shall have the meaning described in section 9 of Part 943 of this Title.

(e) Contribution shall mean any payment to, or for the benefit of, the Client Filer and which is intended to fund, in whole or in part, the Client Filer’s activities or operations. Contribution shall include equity investments in limited liability companies, general partnerships, and corporations; provided, however, Contribution shall not include publicly traded stocks or shares. Contribution shall not mean: (i) a payment in exchange for goods or services rendered or delivered directly to the individual or entity making the payment; and (ii) a payment that: (a) is earmarked and conditioned by the payor such that it may only be used for a specific purpose other than lobbying activity in New York; and (b) is maintained in a segregated bank account solely for the specific purpose and unavailable for general operating expenses. For example, an organization that maintains a separate segregated bank account for a lobbying initiative in California need not report a payment earmarked by the payor for this initiative, provided however, that funds from this account may not be used for operating expenses or any other reason other than the California initiative.

(1) Records of such payments must be retained for a period of three years and may be requested by the Commission to verify qualification for this exclusion.
(2) To qualify for the exclusion in subparagraph (ii) above, it is not sufficient for a payor to restrict a payment from being used for lobbying in New York; the payor must earmark the payment for the specific purpose stated in (ii)(a).

(f) Expenditure Threshold consists of the following two requirements:

1. The Client Filer has spent in excess of $15,000 in Reportable Compensation and/or Expenses for lobbying in New York State during the Expenditure Threshold Period; and

2. The Client Filer’s Reportable Compensation and Expenses constitute at least 3% of the Client Filer’s Total Expenditures during the Expenditure Threshold Period.

A Client Filer who is a member of a Coalition must include all amounts it has contributed to the Coalition when determining whether such Client Filer has exceeded the Expenditure Threshold.

(g) Expenditure Threshold Period is determined according to the following:

1. Twelve-Month Calculation: the 12-month period preceding and including the last day of the applicable client semi-annual reporting period.

2. Calendar-Year Calculation: January 1st to the last day of the applicable client semi-annual reporting period.

Any Client Filer that does not meet the Expenditure Threshold using the Twelve-Month Calculation must then determine whether it has met the Expenditure Threshold using the Calendar-Year Calculation, and if it has, then the Client Filer is deemed to have met the statutory Expenditure Threshold. To illustrate for the 2016 Client Semi-Annual Reports:

<thead>
<tr>
<th>Client Semi-Annual Filing Date</th>
<th>Twelve-Month Calculation Dates</th>
<th>Calendar Year Calculation Dates</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
(h) Reportable Amount of Contribution(s) shall mean, for each Contribution not specifically designated for lobbying in New York, the product of:

1. The dollar amount of the Contribution; and
2. Reportable Compensation and Expenses divided by Total Expenditures.

The Reportable Amount of Contribution shall also include, in addition to the amount yielded by this formula, any Contribution specifically designated for lobbying in New York. The Reportable Amount of Contribution shall not include any amounts contributed for membership dues, fees, or assessments.

(i) Reportable Compensation and Expenses: the phrase “reportable compensation and expenses” shall mean “compensation” and “expenses,” devoted to lobbying in New York, as those terms are defined below:

1. Compensation: shall have the same meaning as is in Legislative Law § 1-c(h), i.e. any salary, fee, gift, payment, benefit, loan, advance or any other thing of value paid, owed, given or promised to the lobbyist (retained or employed) by the Client Filer for lobbying but shall not include contributions reportable pursuant to article fourteen of the Election Law.

2. Expenses:

   (i) For any Client Filer who lobbies on its own behalf, the term “expenses” shall have the same meaning as in Legislative Law § 1-c(g), i.e., any expenditures incurred by or reimbursed to the employed or designated lobbyist for lobbying but shall not include contributions reportable pursuant to article fourteen of the election law.

(ii) For all other Client Filers, the term “expenses” shall mean any expenditure reimbursed to the lobbyist for lobbying, but shall not include contributions reportable pursuant to article fourteen of the Election Law.

(j) Responsible Party shall mean the Client Filer’s Chief Administrative Officer or designee who is responsible for filing the Client Semi-Annual Reports and/or Source of Funding Disclosure with the Commission.

(k) Source shall mean any person, corporation, partnership, organization, or entity that makes a Contribution. A Source includes any persons, corporations, partnerships, organizations, or entities with an Affiliate Relationship. To determine if reporting is required pursuant to section 938.3 of this Part, a Client Filer shall aggregate the Contributions from each person, corporation, partnership, organization, or entity with an Affiliate Relationship. If such reporting is required, the Client Filer shall report, consistent with section 938.3 of this Part, Contributions from each person, corporation, partnership, organization, or entity with the Affiliate Relationship.

(l) Source of Funding Disclosure shall mean the section within the Client Semi-Annual Report completed by Client Filers who serve only as a Beneficial Client and, thus, are only responsible for the source of funding disclosure section of the Client Semi-Annual Report, as prescribed by subsection 943.9(h) of this Title.

(m) Total Expenditures shall mean the sum of any and all payments of cash or cash equivalents made in the ordinary course of business, or a charge against available funds in settlement of an obligation made in the ordinary course of business. Total expenditures also includes a promise to pay, or a promise of a payment or a transfer of anything of value made in the ordinary course of business for goods and services that have been provided or performed.
938.3 Contribution Reporting Requirements.

(a) Commencing with the Client Semi-Annual Report due on January 15, 2013, and for each Client Semi-Annual Report thereafter, a Client Filer is required to disclose Contributions received in accordance with the provisions of subdivisions (b), (c) (d), and (e) of this section.

(b) For the purpose of satisfying Legislative Law § 1-h(c)(4), a Client Filer whose lobbying activity is performed on its own behalf and not pursuant to retention by a client need only report Contribution(s) received from each Source in a Client Semi-Annual Report and is not additionally required to report such Contribution(s) on a Lobbyist Bi-Monthly Report.

(c) When a Client Filer has met the Expenditure Threshold during the first client semi-annual reporting period of the calendar year (January 1st - June 30th), the Client Filer shall aggregate all such Contributions, regardless of the amount, received from each Source. If the sum of such Contributions is more than $2,500, then a Client Filer is required to disclose the information in subdivision (e) of this section for each Contribution. If the sum of the Contributions received from each Source is $2,500 or less, then a Client Filer is not required to disclose any Contribution(s) from the Source in the Client Semi-Annual Report that covers the first reporting period of the calendar year.

(d) When a Client Filer has met the Expenditure Threshold during the second client semi-annual reporting period of a calendar year (July 1st - December 31st), the Client Filer uses the following to determine whether any Contribution(s) received from a Source shall be disclosed in the Client Semi-Annual Report covering the second reporting period of the calendar year:

1. If during the previous reporting period (January 1st - June 30th), the Client Filer did not meet the Expenditure Threshold, then no Contribution(s) received from any Source during that first reporting period are to be added to Contribution(s) received from any Source during the second reporting period.

2. If during the previous reporting period (January 1st - June 30th), the Client Filer did not receive any Contribution(s) from the Source, a Client Filer shall add all Contributions, regardless of the amount, received from the Source during the second reporting period of the calendar year. If the sum of such Contributions is more than $2,500, then a Client Filer is required to disclose the information in subdivision (e) of this section for each Contribution. If the sum of the Contributions received from a Source is $2,500 or less, then a Client Filer is not required to disclose any Contribution(s) from the Source in the Client Semi-Annual Report that covers the second reporting period of the calendar year;

(3) if during the previous reporting period (January 1st - June 30th), the Client Filer met the Expenditure Threshold and received Contributions(s) from a Source in excess of $2,500, then the Client Filer shall disclose all Contributions, regardless of the amount, received from the Source during the second client semi-annual reporting period of the calendar year;

(4) if during the previous reporting period (January 1st - June 30th), the Client Filer met the Expenditure Threshold and received Contributions(s) from a Source in an amount totaling $2,500 or less, then the Client Filer shall add all Contributions, regardless of the amount, received from a Source over the calendar year. If the sum of such Contributions is more than $2,500, then a Client Filer is required to disclose the information in subdivision (e) of this section for each Contribution received during the calendar year. If the sum of the Contributions received from each Source is $2,500 or less, then a Client Filer is not required to disclose any Contribution(s) from the Source.

Example 1: Jane Doe contributes $1,000 on May 4, 2017 to Client Filer. Source Jim Smith, contributes $2,000 on October 30, 2017. Client Filer knows that Jane and Jim live in the same household.

For the purpose of filing the Client Semi-Annual Report due on July 16, 2017 (covering the period January 1, 2017 through June 30, 2017), Client Filer is not required to report the Contribution from Jane Doe.

For the purpose of filing the Client Semi-Annual Report due on January 15, 2018 (covering the period July 1, 2017 through December 31, 2017), if the Client Filer met the Expenditure Threshold during both reporting periods, the Client Filer must aggregate the Contributions from Jane Doe and Jim Smith as one Source because they have an Affiliate Relationship.

The two Contributions exceed $2,500 when aggregated, therefore the Client Filer must disclose each Contribution in the Client Semi-Annual Report due on January 15, 2018.

Example 2: XYZ Corp. contributes $1,500 on March 3, 2017. ABC Corp is XYZ Corp’s parent and contributes $1,500 on May 6, 2017. On November 12, 2017, ABC Corp contributes an additional $500. On December 2, 2017, XYZ Corp. contributes an additional $1,500. The Client Filer is aware of the corporate relationship between ABC Corp and XYZ Corp.

For the purpose of filing the Client Semi-Annual Report due on July 15, 2017 (covering the period January 1, 2017 through June 30, 2017), XYZ Corp and ABC Corp have an Affiliate Relationship and therefore are deemed a Source. The Contributions from XYZ Corp and ABC Corp must be aggregated. The sum of the Contributions received from the one Source consisting of ABC Corp and XYZ Corp between January 1, 2017 and June 30, 2017 exceeds $2,500. Therefore, if the Client Filer met the Expenditure Threshold for this period, it must disclose both the Contributions received on March 3 and May 6 in the Client Semi-Annual Report due on July 15, 2017.

For the purpose of filing the Client Semi-Annual Report due on January 15, 2018 (covering the period July 1, 2017 through December 31, 2017), if the Client Filer met the Expenditure Threshold for this second period, the Client Filer must disclose the November 12 and December 2 Contributions even though these two Contributions are less than $2,500 individually and in total.

The requirement to disclose the November 12 and December 2 Contributions arises from the facts that (i) the Source (comprised of XYZ Corp and ABC Corp, because they have an Affiliate Relationship) made aggregate Contributions in excess of $2,500 during the prior reporting period in the same calendar year and (ii) the Client Filer met the Expenditure Threshold during both reporting periods in the calendar year. Therefore, the Client Filer must list as one Source each of those two Contributions made by XYZ Corp and ABC Corp in the second reporting period of the calendar year on the Client Semi-Annual Report, together with the information required in 938.3(e).

If the Client Filer did not meet the Expenditure Threshold during the second reporting period of the calendar year, then the Client Filer is not required to disclose the November 12 and December 2 Contributions.

(e) Each Contribution required to be disclosed in any Client Semi-Annual Report on the form provided by the Commission shall contain the information identified below:

(1) Information Required to be Disclosed:

(i) The name of the Source;

(a) A disclosure that identifies an intermediary or any other entity that obscures the name of the person, corporation, partnership, organization, or entity actually making the Contribution, does not qualify as the Source; and

(b) The name of a Source cannot be reported as “anonymous” unless the Client Filer affirms to the Commission that the Client Filer is not able to determine the identity of the Source.

(ii) Name and address of principal place of business, if any;

(iii) Date the Client Filer received the Contribution(s); and

(iv) Reportable Amount of the Contribution(s).

Note: If a contribution includes only membership dues, fees, or assessments, the Client Filer should disclose the contribution as $0. If membership dues, fees, or assessments make up a portion of a contribution, the Reportable Amount of the Contribution is calculated as described in section 938.2 of this Part.
(2) When a Source is comprised of more than one person, corporation, partnership, organization, or entity with an Affiliate Relationship, the required information must be supplied for each such person, corporation, partnership, organization, or entity.

(3) When a corporation, partnership, organization, or entity is a Source whose Contribution is required to be disclosed, and meets any one of the requirements in paragraph (4) of this subdivision, the Client Filer must disclose, in addition to the information in paragraph (1) of this subdivision, the following:

(i) name, address and principal place of business of at least one natural person (such as an officer, director, partner or proprietors) who shares or exercises discretion or control over the activities of the corporation, partnership, organization, or entity; or

(ii) the sources of the funds contributed by the corporation, partnership, organization, or entity to the Client Filer.

(4) Conditions for Additional Required Disclosure

(i) The Client Filer makes decisions or establishes policy for the corporation, partnership, organization, or entity;

(ii) The corporation, partnership, organization, or entity makes decisions or establishes policy for the Client Filer;

(iii) The Client Filer has the authority to hire, appoint, discipline, discharge, demote, remove, or otherwise influence other persons who make decisions or establish policies for the corporation, partnership, organization, or entity;

(iv) The corporation, partnership, organization, or entity has the authority to hire, appoint, discipline, discharge, demote, remove, or otherwise influence other persons who make decisions or establish policies for the Client Filer; or

(v) The Client Filer and the corporation, partnership, organization, or entity, share a majority of directors on their governing boards, or share a majority of executive management, or maintain bank accounts with shared signatories.

apply to any corporation registered pursuant to article seven-A of the executive law that is qualified as an exempt organization by the United States Department of the Treasury under I.R.C. § 501(c)(3) (a dollars and from any corporation or entity that is qualified as a 501(c)(3). In such case the entity receiving such in-kind donations shall disclose the fair market value and identify the 501(c)(3) entity providing such in-kind donations as a Source. Nothing contained herein shall require 501(c)(3) entities to disclose their Sources to the Commission.

938.4 Standard for Reviewing an Application for Exemption.

(a) Exemption for a particular source(s) of funding. The Commission shall grant an exemption to disclose a Source of a Contribution, if the Client Filer shows that disclosure of the Source may cause harm, threats, harassment or reprisals to the Source or individuals or property affiliated with the Source. Factors the Commission will consider when determining whether this showing has been made include, but are not limited to, those identified in section 938.4(c) of this Title.

(b) Exemption from reporting sources for certain organizations. The Commission shall grant an exemption to disclose all Sources of Contributions to a Client Filer, if:

(1) the Client Filer has exempt status under I.R.C. §501(c)(4); and

(2) the Client Filer shows that its primary activities involve areas of public concern that create a substantial likelihood that disclosure of its Source(s) will cause harm, threats, harassment or reprisals to the Source(s) or individuals or property affiliated with the Source(s). Factors the Commission will consider when determining whether this showing has been made include, but are not limited to, the factors identified in section 938.4(c) of this Title.

(c) Factors. When evaluating an application for exemption from disclosure of a source or sources of funding under section 938.4(a) or (b), the Commission will consider the following factors to determine whether the requisite showing has been made:

(1) Specific evidence of past or present harm, threats, harassment or reprisals to the Source(s) or Client Filer or individuals or property affiliated with the Source(s) or Client Filer.

(2) The severity, number of incidents, and duration of past or present harm, threats, harassment or reprisals of the Source(s) or Client Filer or individuals or property affiliated with the Source(s) or Client Filer.

(3) A pattern of threats or manifestations of public hostility against the Source(s) or Client Filer or individuals or property affiliated with the Source(s) or Client Filer.

(4) Evidence of harm, threats, harassment or reprisals directed against organizations or individuals holding views similar to those of the Source(s) or Client Filer.

(5) The impact of disclosure on the ability of the Source(s) or Client Filer to maintain ordinary business operations and the extent of resulting economic harm.

938.5 Procedure for applying for an exemption.

(a) The Client Filer seeking to exempt from disclosure a Contribution from a Source shall make an application to the Commission on the form supplied by the Commission together with any supporting materials signed by the Client Filer’s Responsible Party.

(b) A request for exemption shall be submitted no later than two days prior to the due date for the applicable Client Semi-Annual Report.
(c) An application for an exemption from disclosure for one or more Sources of Contributions does not relieve the Client Filer from its obligation to timely file the Client Semi-Annual Report including disclosure of Sources of Contributions for which the Client Filer has not sought an exemption.

(d) The Commission shall inform the Client Filer, in writing, whether the application for exemption has been granted or denied. Any denial issued by the Commission shall include a statement of findings and conclusions, and the reasons or basis for the denial.

(e) If a request for an exemption is denied, and the Client Filer does not appeal, the Client Filer shall, within 15 business days of the date of denial, amend the Client Semi-Annual Report to include required information relating to the subject of the application for exemption.

938.6 Appeals.

An appeal of a denial of an application for exemption to a judicial hearing officer, pursuant to section 18 of Part 941 of this Title, is available only to a Client Filer who submitted an application under section 938.4(a) of this Part. A Client Filer who submitted an application under section 938.4(b) of this Part is not entitled to such an appeal.

938.7 Public Disclosure of Exemption-Related Information.

(a) The Commission shall publicly disclose the fact that a Client Filer has submitted one or more applications for an exemption or that one or more of a Client Filer’s requests for an exemption has been granted or denied. Information submitted in connection with an application for exemption or in support of an appeal from a denial of an exemption shall be publicly disclosed. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Executive Law § 94(19)(a)(5), Legislative Law §1-s, and any corresponding regulations, the Commission may, in its discretion, grant a request from a Client Filer to keep confidential certain exemption-related information when particular circumstances merit confidential treatment of such information, including, but not limited to, an ongoing investigation by a governmental body or an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy. The Commission may, nevertheless, disclose such information:
(1) to the judicial hearing officer assigned to an appeal of a determination under subsection 938.4(a) of this Title;

(2) to a court in a judicial review; or

(3) in response to any subpoena or court order.

938.8 Enforcement.

A late filing of a Client Semi-Annual Report, or failure to file a Client Semi-Annual Report in accordance with these regulations, or the filing of a Client Semi-Annual Report that contains false, misleading or knowingly inaccurate statements are violations of either Legislative Law § 1-j or § 1-o and subject a Client Filer to the fines and penalties prescribed therein.

938.9 Duty to Correct.

As with any filing required to be submitted to the Commission, Client Filers have a duty to file accurate and complete reports. Client Filers therefore have a duty to correct any oversights or inaccuracies within 10 days of discovery.

938.10 Miscellaneous Provisions

This disclosure shall not apply to:

(a) any corporation registered pursuant to article seven-A of the executive law has exempt status under § 501(c)(3), provided, however, that this disclosure shall apply to any in-kind donations of staff, staff time, personnel, offices, office supplies, financial support of any kind or any other resources to any corporation or entity that is qualified as an exempt organization by the United States Department of the Treasury under I.R.C. § 501(c)(4) when such in-kind donations are over two thousand five hundred dollars and from any corporation or entity that is qualified as an exempt organization by the United States Department of the Treasury under I.R.C. § 501(c)(3). In such case the entity receiving such in-kind donations shall disclose the fair market value and identify the I.R.C. § 501(c)(3) entity providing such in-kind donations and give notice within a reasonable time to the § 501(c)(3) entity that it shall be required to file a report with the department of law pursuant to section one hundred seventy-two-e of the executive law; and

(b) any governmental entity.

The provisions of this section apply only for purposes of the Client Semi-Annual Filing due January 17, 2017 (covering the period July 1, 2016 – December 31, 2016), and supersede any parallel provisions found in this Part. (1) If a Client Filer met the Expenditure Threshold during the first client semi-annual reporting period (January 1 - June 30) based on the provisions of section 938.3 of this Part in effect at the time, and thus was required to disclose Sources of Funding in the July 15, 2016 Client Semi-Annual Report, the Client Filer shall disclose the information in section 938.3(e) of this Part for:

An adjournment or continuance granted at the request of the Respondent or by mutual consent of the parties will extend the period of time for conclusion by the length of time the adjournment or continuance is granted.

(e) The Commission, the Executive Director, or the hearing officer may, at any time before the time limits delineated above expire, extend such time period by making a determination that the time provided is insufficient to complete the hearing and shall state sufficient reasons therefor. This extension shall not be for a period longer than 90 days after the expiration of the original 180 day period during which the hearing should have been concluded.

(f) Failure by the hearing officer, the Executive Director or the Commission to adhere to time limits established by this section shall be reviewable under Article 78 of the Civil Practice Law and Rules in a proceeding in the nature of mandamus.

Section 941.10 Conduct of hearings.

(a) All hearings and proceedings before the hearing officer or Commission related thereto commenced under these rules are confidential in accordance with Executive Law § 94(13(b)).

(b) The Respondent shall not be deprived of the opportunity to appear; however, failure to appear after service of notice shall not preclude a decision by the hearing officer and the Commission, upon proof of service, to proceed with the scheduled hearing. Proof of service shall consist of a certified mail receipt or affidavit of service.

(c) The hearing officer shall conduct all hearings under these rules and shall exercise the power and authority of presiding officers or hearing officers as defined by SAPA, any other pertinent statute and these regulations.

(d) The hearing officer may exclude from the hearing room or from further participation in the proceeding any person who engages in contemptuous conduct before the hearing officer.

Section 941.11 Oaths.

(a) All oaths required by these rules may be taken before any person authorized to administer oaths within the State of New York.

(b) Oaths shall be administered to all witnesses who testify or appear in any hearing conducted pursuant to these rules.

Section 941.12 Evidence and proof.

(a) The formal rules of evidence do not apply with respect to any hearings under the Commission’s jurisdiction. Objections to evidentiary offers may be made and shall be a part of the record. Subject to these rules, any party may, for the purpose of expediting the hearing, and when the interests of the parties will not be substantially prejudiced thereby, submit all or part of the evidence in written form.
(b) The introduction of cumulative or irrelevant evidence shall be avoided and the hearing officer may curtail the testimony of any witness which he or she judges to be merely cumulative or irrelevant; however, the party offering such testimony may make a short avowal of the testimony which would be given and if the witness asserts that such avowal is true, this avowal shall be made part of the record.

(c) All evidence appearing in the record shall be deemed to have been validly introduced.

(d) The burden of proof shall be on the Commission unless otherwise provided by statute.

(e) Each party shall have the right to give sworn testimony, to produce witnesses, to present documentary evidence and to examine opposing witnesses and evidence.

(f) The parties may, by agreement, stipulate as to any facts involved in the proceeding, provided that such stipulation is duly noted in the record.

(g) Official notice may be taken of all facts of which judicial notice could be taken and of other facts within the specialized knowledge of the Commission. When official notice is taken, every party shall be given notice thereof and shall on timely request be afforded an opportunity prior to decision to dispute the fact or its materiality.

Section 941.13 Proposed Findings of Fact and Recommendation, Substantial Basis Investigation Report, and Notice of Civil Assessment.

(a) Within sixty (60) days of the conclusion of the hearing, the hearing officer shall make findings of fact and a recommendation as to the appropriate penalty to be assessed or any other action to be taken. The hearing officer shall transmit the proposed findings of fact and recommendation to the Respondent and his or her representative and to the Commission. The hearing officer may request from the Commission an extension of time in which to transmit the proposed findings of fact and recommendation. The Commission shall notify the hearing officer and all parties and their representatives should it grant an extension.

(b) Within thirty (30) days of the hearing officer’s transmittal of the findings of fact and recommendation,
the following shall occur:

(1) The Respondent shall have an opportunity to respond in writing, in the form of a brief directed to the Commission, to the findings of fact and recommendation of the hearing officer. The brief may not include or discuss evidence which is not a part of the official record of the hearing.

(2) The Commission’s staff shall have an opportunity to respond in writing in the form of a brief directed to the Commission, to the findings of fact and recommendation of the hearing officer, and shall submit a proposed Substantial Basis Investigation Report to the Commission for its consideration.

(c) The Commission shall have sixty (60) days from receipt of the proposed Substantial Basis Investigation Report, or as soon thereafter as possible, in which to vote on whether or not to issue a Substantial Basis Investigation Report and issue a Notice of Civil Assessment. In the Substantial Basis Investigation Report, the Commission may adopt the findings of fact and recommendation of the hearing officer in whole or in part, or it may reverse, remand and/or dismiss the hearing officer’s finding of fact and recommendation based upon the record produced at the hearing.

(d) The Commission shall release such report publicly within forty-five days of its issuance.

(e) With respect to the investigation of a Respondent subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission, other than a member of the legislature or a legislative employee or candidate for member of the legislature, if after its investigation and the hearing the Commission has found a substantial basis to conclude that Respondent violated the Public Officers Law, Civil Service Law or the Legislative Law, the Commission shall send a Substantial Basis Investigation Report containing its findings of fact and conclusions of law to the individual or entity.

(f) A substantial basis investigation report issued pursuant to Executive Law § 94(14-a) shall be delivered to the Legislative Ethics Commission and to the individual who is the subject of the report, and shall be made public and otherwise be governed by Legislative Law §80.
(g) The Commission shall mail or deliver to each party to the hearing and to its representatives of record a copy of all findings of the hearing officer and all final decisions including a Notice of Civil Assessment, if any, of the Commission.

Section 941.14 Fines, penalties.

(a) The Commission’s assessment of civil penalties made pursuant to Executive Law § 94(14) shall not preclude its referral of violations of law to a prosecutor for criminal prosecution.

(b) If the alleged violation has been established, and the Commission determines in light of all the circumstances that the violation is not serious enough to warrant assessment of a civil penalty, the Commission, in its discretion, may take such other action as appropriate including, but not limited to, a written admonition or a recommendation that disciplinary action be taken. The Commission may forward a copy of such admonition or recommendation for disciplinary action to the individual’s appointing authority, as appropriate.

Section 941.15 Record of hearing.

(a) The record in hearings under these rules shall include:

(1) all notices, pleadings, motions, and intermediate rulings;

(2) evidence presented;

(3) a statement of matters officially noticed except matters so obvious that a statement of them would serve no useful purpose;

(4) questions and offers of proof, objections thereto, and rulings thereon;

(5) proposed findings and exceptions, if any; and

(6) any decision, determination, opinion, order or report rendered.

(b) The Commission shall make available a complete record of all hearings in which the Commission has issued a final decision to any party to that hearing. The Commission shall make this record available upon reasonable notice and written request before the commencement of any judicial review. The Commission shall charge the reasonable cost of preparing such record to the requesting party.

(c) A written transcript for all hearings conducted pursuant to these rules shall be provided to any party to a hearing. This transcript shall be made available upon reasonable notice and written request following the conclusion of the hearing. The Commission shall charge the requesting party for the reasonable cost of preparing such transcript.

Section 941.16 Privacy/confidentiality.

(a) Executive Law § 94 provides that proceedings, as well as information and evidence obtained, relating to the Commission’s determination as to whether a substantial basis exists that there has been a violation of the laws it enforces are confidential while a matter is pending and unless and until the Commission issues a substantial basis investigation report, except that the Commission may authorize the disclosure of such information to the extent necessary in furtherance of its investigations.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, pursuant to Executive Law 94 (9-a)(b), the Commission, by majority vote of the full Commission in accordance with section 94(6), may disclose to any person or entity outside the Commission any testimony or information obtained by a Commissioner or staff upon a determination that such disclosure is in the public interest as set forth below. Disclosure so authorized may be by full public release or to designated persons or entities as directed by the Commission. The Commission may further direct that disclosure to designated persons or entities be conditioned upon the recipient’s agreement to maintain confidentiality and to limit further dissemination.

(c) In determining whether release or disclosure of information relating to a matter is in the public interest, the Commission may consider any one or more of the following criteria:

(1) Whether the Complainant, Subject or Respondent has made public statements relating to an allegation submitted to the Commission;
(2) Whether the Complaint itself or the allegations therein have been publicly disclosed by the Complainant or others;

(3) Whether the identity of the Complainant is a matter of public knowledge;

(4) Whether the fact of the Commission’s inquiry or investigation is public knowledge;

(5) Whether the matter, in the judgment of or as determined by the Commission, is, or involves facts or issues that are, of significant public concern;

(6) Whether disclosure relating to the matter will address public safety concerns;

(7) Whether there are public calls for an investigation;

(8) Whether there is a need for public assurance that the Commission is or has considered the matter;

(9) Whether there have been any inaccurate or misleading statements made publicly about the Commission’s action or inaction with respect to the matter;

(10) Whether the allegation is an attempt to utilize the Commission for partisan political or electoral gain;

(11) Whether there is pending civil litigation that is related, directly or indirectly, to the allegations, and if so, whether the information will be used to impact the litigation in a manner that is relevant to the proceedings or appears to be aimed at harassment of a party;

(12) Whether a prosecutor has asked the Commission to defer action, and if so, whether in the view of the requesting prosecutor disclosure would adversely affect the criminal action;

(13) Whether there are alleged victims who have a particular interest in the proceeding;

(14) Whether the Commission’s ability to proceed is inhibited because of a lack of jurisdiction over the Subject or conduct; and
(15) Any other factor the Commission deems relevant to determining whether the release of such information is in, or would otherwise serve, the public interest.

(d) In accordance with this section, the Commission has also delegated to staff the authority to consider the criteria in subdivision (c) of this section, and upon a determination that disclosure is in the public interest, staff shall:

1. Publicly acknowledge receipt of a complaint. However, the complaint itself, including the identity of the Complainant, if not public, shall not be made public absent a vote of the Commission;

2. Publicly acknowledge that a matter is “pending before JCOPE” until such time as the matter has been closed for any reason;

3. Publicly acknowledge that a matter is “no longer pending before JCOPE” after the matter has been closed for any reason; and

4. Publicly acknowledge if the Commission has received a request from law enforcement to defer the Commission’s inquiry, and whether such deferral is in place.

(e) Pursuant to this section, the Commission has determined that it is in the public interest to publicly release information relating to investigative and enforcement matters as follows:

1. its annual report, in accordance with the requirements in Executive Law § 94 (9)(l), shall include:

   (i) a listing by assigned number of each complaint and referral received which alleged a possible violation within the Commission’s jurisdiction, including the current status of each complaint; and

   (ii) where a matter has been resolved, the date and nature of the disposition and any sanction imposed, with redactions, as necessary, to protect the identity of the Subject, Respondent, and Complainant as required under the confidentiality requirements in Executive Law § 94.

(2) its website shall include, within sixty days of resolution or closure of a matter for any reason other than issuance of a substantial basis investigation report or settlement, a listing by assigned case number, setting forth the nature of the matter, the alleged violation of law, and the date and nature of the disposition, with redactions, as necessary, to protect the identity of the Subject, Respondent and Complainant under the confidentiality requirements in Executive Law § 94 and in accordance with these regulations.

(3) Information relating to an investigation or enforcement proceeding that would otherwise be confidential pursuant to Executive Law § 94, when a legal proceeding is initiated in court by the Subject or Respondent of such investigation, as deemed necessary by counsel representing the Commission in furtherance of its interests in such legal proceeding. With respect to other legal proceedings, the Commission may release such information by majority vote of the full Commission, in accordance with Executive Law section 94(6), that such disclosure is in the public interest considering the criteria set forth in subdivision (c) of this section.

Title 19 NYCRR Part 942

Title 19 NYCRR Part 942 is amended to read as follows:

OFFICIAL COMPILATION OF CODES, RULES AND REGULATIONS OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK

TITLE 19. DEPARTMENT OF STATE

CHAPTER XX. JOINT COMMISSION ON PUBLIC ETHICS

PART 942 Procedure for Requesting an Exemption from Publicly Disclosing Client Information Pursuant to Questions 8(b-1), 8(b-2) or 8(c) on a Financial Disclosure Statement

942.1 Preamble

The purpose of this Part is to implement the legislative direction set forth in Chapter 56 of the Laws of 2015 that the Joint Commission on Public Ethics receive and determine requests for exemption from the duty to publicly disclose client information in response to certain questions on the financial disclosure statement that must be filed in accordance with section 73-a of the Public Officers Law. Specifically, the statute carves out a limited exception to the general rule mandating disclosure of client information and permits a filer to ask either the Office of Court Administration or the Joint Commission on Public Ethics for authority not to disclose client information in responding to questions 8(b-1), (b-2) and (c) of section 73-a(3). The statute also provides that disclosure of client information is not required in certain categories of cases delineated therein. With respect to clients represented in matters not otherwise exempt, this Part provides a procedure to request an exemption from publicly disclosing such clients and related information.

942.2 Definitions.

(a) Pursuant to Executive Law § 94(9) and questions 8(b-1), 8(b-2) and 8(c) on the Financial Disclosure Statement set forth in Public Officers Law §73-a, the Commission permits a Covered Person to make a confidential request, in accordance with this Section, for an Exemption from the requirement to publicly disclose Client Information. If requesting an Exemption from the Commission, such Covered Person shall file the Exemption request with the Commission on or before the deadline to file a Financial Disclosure Statement that applies to said Covered Person pursuant to Public Officers Law section 73-a(2). A Covered Person may not file an Exemption request with the Commission for a Client matter which the Covered Person has previously addressed in an Exemption request filed with the Office of Court Administration.

(b) The filing of an Exemption request pursuant to this Part shall not toll a deadline to file a Financial Disclosure Statement. A Financial Disclosure Statement filed during the pendency of a request for Exemption shall include all required information except the Client Information.

(c) In response to questions 8(b-1), 8(b-2) and 8(c) of the Financial Disclosure Statement, a Covered Person need not report Clients or customers with respect to matters for which the Covered Person (or his or her firm) was retained before entering public office in accordance with § 73-a(3)(8) of the Public Officers Law.

(d) The Exemption request shall be made in writing, signed by the Covered Person requesting such Exemption, and sent to the Commission via email at jcope@jcope.ny.gov. The Exemption request shall be deemed to be a part of his or her Financial Disclosure Statement and subject to all applicable enforcement and penalty provisions of Public Officers Law § 73-a, including without limitation subdivisions 4 and 6 of said section, and Executive Law § 94.

(e) In the request for Exemption, the Covered Person shall state that:

“My Client is not currently receiving my services or seeking my services in connection with:

(2) A contract in an amount totaling $10,000 or more from the state or any state agency for services, materials, or property;

(3) A grant of $10,000 or more from the state or any state agency during the reporting period;

(5) a general description of the business activities in which the Client engages;

(6) to the best of the Covered Person’s knowledge, a description of any specific business the Client has before the state;

(7) to the best of the Covered Person’s knowledge, a description of any particularized interest the Client has in any pending legislation;

(8) if applicable, a description of any action taken by the Covered Person relating to the Client and any interaction the Covered Person has had with the Client in the course of performing the Covered Person’s official duties;
(9) a statement explaining why the Covered Person should receive the requested Exemption rather than be required to disclose the Client Information;

(10) a description of any public disclosure of the Client Information in any other public filing or public appearance including regulatory filings and litigation papers and appearances;

(11) a description of any prior applications submitted by the Covered Person to the Commission or the Office of Court Administration for an Exemption from public disclosure of Client Information for the Client on any matter (including pending applications) and the results of such applications; and

(12) any other relevant information which may support the Exemption request.

942.2 Commission action.

(a) All requests for Exemption shall be reviewed and decided in the initial instance by the Executive Director. A denial of a request for Exemption may be appealed to the Commission for reconsideration in accordance with the provisions of Part 941.17 of this Title.

(b) Upon receipt of a request for Exemption, the Executive Director shall review the material filed to determine whether the Exemption shall be granted. If no further information is required, the Executive Director shall render decision on the material.

(c) In reviewing a request for an Exemption, the Executive Director shall conduct its inquiry and, being mindful of the need to preserve the confidentiality of Client Information prior to public disclosure, may consult with bar or other professional associations, or with the office of court administration or the legislative ethics commission in the case of individuals subject to the Commission’s jurisdiction, and may consider rules of professional conduct.

(d) The factors the Executive Director shall consider in determining a request for Exemption shall include, but not be limited to:

   (1) the nature and the size of the Client;
(2) whether the Client has any business before the state; and if so, how significant the business is; and whether the Client has any particularized interest in pending legislation and if so how significant the interest is;

(3) whether disclosure may reveal trade secrets;

(4) whether disclosure could reasonably result in retaliation against the Client;

(5) whether disclosure may cause undue harm to the Client;

(6) whether disclosure may result in undue harm to the attorney-client relationship;

(7) whether disclosure may result in an unnecessary invasion of privacy to the Client; and

(8) any other factors that the Executive Director deems relevant to the Exemption request.

(e) The Executive Director shall grant the Exemption request upon a finding that, under the totality of the circumstances, the interests in nondisclosure of the Client Information (including the general interests served by principles of Client confidentiality) outweigh the interests served by disclosure; otherwise the Executive Director shall deny the Exemption request.

(f) The determination of the Executive Director shall be set forth in writing and provided to the Covered Person. Any denial shall include an explanation for the determination. The Executive Director shall provide the Commission with information regarding the nature and number of Exemption applications received and disposition thereof.

(g) If the Covered Person receives an exemption, no Client Information that was part of the request, nor the fact that an exemption has been sought and granted, need be included on the Financial Disclosure Statement.

(h) If the Executive Director or Office of Court Administration denies the request for Exemption, or if the Commission denies an appeal of a denial of the Executive Director pursuant to Part 941.17 of this Title, and the Covered Person agrees to represent the Client, such Covered Person must include the Client Information in his or her Financial Disclosure Statement when it is due, or, if his or her Financial Disclosure Statement was filed during the pendency of a request for Exemption, such Covered Person must file with the Commission an amended Financial Disclosure Statement that includes the Client Information within 15 days from receipt of the denial.

(i) Where the Executive Director or Office of Court Administration denies a request for Exemption, or if the Commission denies an appeal of a denial of the Executive Director pursuant to Part 941.17 of this Title, and thereafter there occurs a material change of facts or circumstances, including a change in the Covered Person’s Title or duties, a change in the nature of the services provided to the Client, or a change in the nature of the Client’s business, a Covered Person may seek reconsideration of that denial following the procedures set forth in section 942.3.

(j) An Exemption, once granted, shall remain in effect in each subsequent year in which such disclosure would otherwise be required unless and until:

1. the Covered Person is appointed or promoted to a new Title in which such a filing is required; or
2. there is a material change in the duties of the Covered Person; or
3. there is a material change in the nature of the Client’s business before the State, if applicable.

(k) If the Executive Director receives new facts or other information relevant to the Exemption, he may reconsider a prior determination to grant such Exemption.

943.13 Lobbyist Disbursement of Public Monies Report
943.14 Reportable Business Relationships
943.1 Purpose and Effect of Regulations.

(a) The purpose of these regulations is to provide those regulated by the Joint Commission on Public Ethics ("Commission"), as well as the public, a consolidated resource for understanding and complying with the requirements of Article 1-A of the Legislative Law (the “Lobbying Act”), as authorized by section 94 of the Executive Law and the Lobbying Act. These regulations also serve to codify the constitutional authority to regulate grassroots lobbying that was recognized in United States v. Harriss (347 U.S. 612) in 1954, and exercised by the Commission’s predecessor agencies in accordance with the 1982 decision in New York State Temporary Commission on Lobbying v. CICU (534 F. Supp. 489).

(b) These regulations consider, reflect and, in part, are based upon and in many instances codify this Commission’s and its predecessors’ earlier advisory opinions, guidelines, instructions, and practices. They also set forth the Commission’s positions on issues not previously addressed by those authorities. Thus, individuals and entities subject to the Lobbying Act should consider any earlier precedents as superseded by these regulations in the event any such prior guidelines, opinions, instructions or practices are inconsistent with this Part.

943.2 General Provisions.

(a) The Commission has jurisdiction over Lobbyists, Clients of Lobbyists, and Public Corporations pursuant to section 1-d of the Lobbying Act and section 94 of the Executive Law.

(i) For example, a lawyer who provides a Client with an analysis of a pending piece of legislation, but does not otherwise attempt to influence such legislation, has not performed reportable Lobbying Activity, per this exception. If the lawyer subsequently meets at the Client’s request with a member of the legislature to advocate for or against such legislation, both the preliminary bill analysis and the subsequent advocacy meeting constitute reportable Lobbying.

(2) If an organization or firm provides both Lobbying and non-lobbying legal services to a Client, the Statement of Registration should only identify as Individual Lobbyists those persons who performed Lobbying services, however, all services related to the Lobbying Activity provided by the organization or firm are reportable expenses.

(b) News gathering and publication.

provided that their activities in connection with proposed legislation, rules, regulations or rates, municipal ordinances and resolutions, executive orders, tribal-state compacts, memoranda of § 2701, or Procurement Contracts by a State Agency, Municipal Agency, Local Legislative Body (as confidential and non-confidential news as described in subdivisions (b) and (c) of section seventy-nine-h of the civil rights law respectively and communications made pursuant to community outreach efforts for broadcast stations required by federal law.

(d) Participation at certain public proceedings.

Persons who participate as witnesses, attorneys or other representatives in public proceedings of a State

(2) This exception includes applications for special permits, variances, and revocable consents.

943.5 Lobbying Activities – General Provisions and Restrictions.

(a) General Provisions

(1) All Lobbying Activities are either Direct or Grassroots Lobbying.
(2) All Lobbying Activity is conducted by a Lobbyist for the benefit of a Beneficial Client, but a Lobbyist and Beneficial Client can be the same person or organization.

(3) All Lobbying Activity is conducted by a Lobbyist that has been retained, employed, or designated by a Client. This includes the person or Lobbying Organization that designates themselves to lobby on their own behalf.

(4) Reporting requirements under the Lobbying Act are not necessarily triggered by engaging in Lobbying Activity alone, but rather when the criteria established in subsection 943.9(a)(1) have been satisfied.

(b) Online Ethics Training

(1) All Individual Lobbyists listed on a Statement of Registration must complete an online ethics training, as provided by the Commission;

(2) Such training must be completed by an Individual Lobbyist once every three years, as follows:

   (i) Complete the training within 60 days of initial registration;

   (ii) Complete the training again within three years of the date the Lobbyist first or subsequently completed the training, if such Lobbyist is still registered to lobby at such time; and/or

   (iii) If there is a lapse in a Lobbyist’s registration, complete the training again within 60 days of re-registration to lobby or three years from the date such Lobbyist last completed such training, whichever is later.

(c) Restrictions

(1) All individuals or entities required to be listed on a Statement of Registration are subject to the Gift restrictions set forth in Part 934 of this Title.

   (i) This prohibition applies to both the Contractual Client and Beneficial Client.
(2) Pursuant to section 1-k of the Lobbying Act prohibiting contingent retainers, no Client may pay and no Lobbyist may receive Compensation in which the amount or rate is contingent on the outcome or terms of any Attempt to Influence an activity listed in sections 1-c(c)(i)-(x) of the Lobbying Act.

   (i) This prohibition applies to both the Contractual Client and Beneficial Client.

(3) Stock or equity payments for Lobbying Activity are presumed impermissible when paid to Retained Lobbyists, and, absent a showing in (i), below, are per se a violation of the contingent retainer prohibition in Section 1-k of the Lobbying Act.

   (i) Except as provided in (ii), below, this presumption can be overcome by a showing that the value of stock or equity is not directly dependent on the outcome of the governmental action.

   (ii) The presumption cannot be overcome if:

       (a) the number of shares or the size of the equity interest offered depends on the outcome of the lobbying; or

       (b) any aspect of the retained lobbyist’s shareholder rights- including seniority, conversion and other options- depend on the outcome of the lobbying.

   (iii) Application to the Commission is required to approve any such stock or equity payments for Lobbying Activity. The Commission shall respond to an application within 30 days or soon thereafter and, in rendering a decision, consider factors including:

       (a) The diversity of product or business lines in the Beneficial Client’s operations and the relative size or importance- to the Beneficial Client- of the product or business that will be impacted by the governmental action;
(b) The specific governmental action in Lobbying Act section 1-c(c) that the Lobbyist is attempting to influence;

(c) If the Lobbying Activity includes any attempt to influence a state or municipal Governmental Procurement:

   (1) the value of the procurement relative to the total capitalization of the Beneficial Client;

   (2) any history of being awarded similar procurements.

(d) Whether stock is publicly traded or closely held;

(e) Whether the Lobbying Activity addresses a Lobbying firm’s entry or continued access to a geographic, demographic or product market;

(f) The impact of the governmental action on the Beneficial Client versus on similarly-situated competitors;

(g) Any significant trading activity or changes in price, appraisal, or valuation over the preceding 12 months; and

(h) Other such factors as determined by the Commission.

(4) Stock or equity compensation to Employee or Designated Lobbyists is permissible, unless the number of shares, relative size of the equity interest offered, or any aspect of the lobbyist’s shareholder rights – including seniority, conversion and other options – depend on the outcome of the lobbying.
943.6 Direct Lobbying

(a) Principles.

(1) While Grassroots Lobbying attempts to influence a Public Official indirectly, or through another, Direct Lobbying attempts to influence a Public Official through Direct Contact.

(2) Direct Lobbying generally requires the identification of an Individual Lobbyist(s) on the filings of an organization or person.

(b) Definitions. All definitions in section 943.3 are in effect unless otherwise noted below.

(1) Direct Contact

(i) Means any communication or interaction directed to a Public Official, including, but not limited to:

(a) Verbal communications;

(b) Written communications;

(c) Electronic communications, including electronic mail, Social Media communications, and Internet communications;

(d) Attendance at a meeting with a Public Official; or

(e) Presence on a phone call with a Public Official, when the Official is aware of such presence;

(ii) Direct Contact with a Public Official also includes direct contact with the members of the Public Official’s staff.

(iii) Direct Contact does not include any communication that is directed to a group of which a Public Official is incidentally a member, or is intended for the public. For example, the following generally will not constitute Direct Contact:
(a) An opinion piece published in a newspaper;

(b) A statement made to a reporter that is published or broadcast by a media outlet;

(c) A blog post;

(d) Attendance at a speech or public meeting; or

(e) A speech to a group or at a public meeting.

(iv) Mere attendance by a person at a lobby day does not constitute Direct Contact unless they speak to a Public Official or their staff on behalf of an organization or employer.

(2) Preliminary contact includes any of the following, when the Lobbyist knows or has reason to know that the Client will Attempt to Influence a Public Official on a matter covered by the Lobbying Act:

(i) Scheduling a meeting or telephone call with a Public Official and a Client;

(ii) Introducing a Client to a Public Official; or

(iii) Any other contact with a Public Official on behalf of a Client.

Note: A person who schedules a meeting or places a call in a purely administrative capacity is not required to be identified as an Individual Lobbyist; such activity is attributable to the person who directed that the call be made or that the meeting be set up.

(c) Direct Lobbying.

(1) A person is engaged in Direct Lobbying and must be listed as an Individual Lobbyist on a lobbying filing when the person:

(i) Has Direct Contact with a Public Official to Attempt to Influence an action enumerated in section 1-c(c)(i)-(x) of the Lobbying Act; or
(ii) Has Direct or Preliminary Contact with a Public Official to enable or facilitate an Attempt to Influence.

(2) A person is not engaged in Direct Lobbying when the person:

(i) Attends a meeting with a Public Official simply to provide technical information or address technical questions;

(ii) Attends a meeting to provide clerical or administrative assistance (including audio/visual, translation or interpretation, and sign language); or

(iii) Attends a meeting to observe for educational purposes; and

(iv) Plays no role in the strategy, planning, messaging or other substantive aspect of the overall lobbying effort.

(3) Direct Lobbying can include Direct Contact with a Public Official who supports the position being advocated by the Lobbyist or his Client.

(4) Direct Lobbying of a Public Official can occur in a variety of settings, including but not limited to, face-to-face interaction, direct written communication, social media posts (subject to the limitations set forth in subsection (d) of this section), and at a lobby day coordinated by an organization or person lobbying on their own behalf.

(5) Any Individual Lobbyist who engages in Direct Lobbying must be listed on lobbying filings. This would not include volunteers or mere members of a Lobbying Organization.

(6) Examples of Reportable Expenses of Lobbying Organizations or Individuals Lobbying on their Own Behalf:

(i) A Lobbying Organization or individual must disclose reportable Expenses, as defined in subdivision (e) of section 943.9, related to Direct Lobbying, which may include, as applicable, but are not limited to:
(a) time spent by employees engaging in Lobbying Activities (even if such employees are not required to be identified as Individual Lobbyists) if such employees are compensated for their time;

(b) staff time allocated to planning Lobbying Activities;

(c) expenses related to placards, signs, t-shirts or other advocacy paraphernalia;

(d) expenses related to Social Media activities, as set forth in subdivision (d) of this section; and

(e) expenses related to transportation of volunteers and other individuals not identified as Lobbyists, including, for example, transportation of volunteers to a lobby day.

(d) Direct Lobbying through Social Media

(1) A Social Media communication that Attempts to Influence an action enumerated in section 1-c(c)(i)-(x) of the Lobbying Act constitutes Direct Contact for purposes of Direct Lobbying if such communication:

   (i) Is directly sent to a Social Media account known to be owned or controlled by a Public Official; or

   (ii) Creates a direct electronic link to any Social Media account known to be owned or controlled by a Public Official.

(2) Direct Contact with a Public Official through a Social Media communication also includes contact that is targeted and directed to members of the Public Official’s staff through a Social Media communication and done with the knowledge that such persons are members of the Public Official’s staff.
(3) When Direct Contact with a Public Official through a Social Media communication is undertaken by an organization, through the organization’s Social Media account(s), such activity is reportable Lobbying Activity by the organization.

(i) An Individual Lobbyist, however, need not be listed based on this activity alone.

(4) When Direct Contact with a Public Official through a Social Media communication is undertaken by an individual, through their personal social media account(s), this activity is not reportable Lobbying Activity unless such individual is specifically retained by a Client for such Social Media activity.

(i) In this case, the individual should register as a Lobbyist on behalf of the paying Client, listing themselves as an Individual Lobbyist;

(ii) Any expenses incurred to create, promote, place or otherwise highlight an individual’s personal Social Media activity that are reportable pursuant to paragraph (4) above, are reportable by the party incurring the expenses.

(5) Reportable Expenses related to Direct Lobbying via Social Media.

(i) Reportable expenses attributable to a Principal Lobbyist’s Social Media activities that constitute Direct Lobbying may include, but are not limited to: consulting services, staff time allocated to planning and posting, search engine optimization and sponsoring, and advertising.

(ii) A reasonable methodology used by a Principal Lobbyist in good faith to calculate lobbying expenses related to Direct Lobbying via Social Media is acceptable.

(6) Examples

(i) Any of the following could be Direct Lobbying through Social Media:
(a) A direct message sent to a Public Official through Social Media (e.g., through Facebook Messenger, Twitter Direct Message);

(b) A post on a Public Official’s Social Media page;

(c) A post on a person’s own Social Media page that tags a Public Official if such person has specifically been hired by a Client for their personal Social Media activity; or

(d) A tweet tagging a Public Official, using the organization’s twitter handle.

943.7 Grassroots Lobbying

(a) Principles.

(1) While Direct Lobbying attempts to influence a Public Official through a Direct Contact by the Lobbyist, Grassroots Lobbying attempts to influence a Public Official indirectly, or through another.

(2) A Grassroots Lobbyist is a person or organization who solicits another to deliver a message to a Public Official; the audience or recipients of grassroots communications who voluntarily (and without compensation) subsequently deliver the message to the Public Official are not Grassroots Lobbyists.

(3) Every Grassroots Lobbying Communication is attributable to a Lobbyist, which may be the organization as a whole.

(4) Grassroots Lobbying does not require the identification of an Individual Lobbyist(s) on lobbying reports unless the individual engaged in Grassroots Lobbying is a Retained Lobbyist, as set forth in subdivision (e) of this section, or is retained or compensated specifically for their social media activities, as set forth in subdivision (f)(2)(ii) of this section.
(b) Definitions.

(1) Grassroots Lobbying means an attempt to indirectly influence an action enumerated in section 1-c(c)(i)-(x) of the Lobbying Act through a Grassroots Lobbying Communication, which may be communicated via various forms, including, but not limited to, those listed in subsection 943.7(g).

(2) Grassroots Lobbying Communication means a communication that:

(i) References or otherwise implicates an action enumerated in section 1-c(c)(i)-(x) of the Lobbying Act;

(ii) Takes a clear position on that action; and

(iii) Includes a Call to Action.

(3) Call to Action means:

(i) A solicitation, exhortation, or encouragement to the public, a segment of the public, or an individual to: (1) directly contact a Public Official; or (2) solicit, exhort, or encourage others to directly contact a Public Official. To qualify as a Call to Action, the communication need not specify the form the contact must take;

(ii) The inclusion of an address, email address, website address, phone number or similar contact information for a Public Official even if the communication does not specifically exhort the public to contact the Public Official; or

(iii) The inclusion of a paper or electronic petition, text message, social media communication, or similar material (or electronic link to such petition or material) for the recipient to use to communicate with a Public Official even if the communication does not specifically exhort the public to use such material.
(c) Grassroots Lobbying and the Individual

(1) A person who publishes a Grassroots Lobbying Communication is engaged in Grassroots Lobbying on their own behalf and acting as their own Designated Lobbyist.

   (i) For example, a person who buys billboard space that includes a Grassroots Lobbying Communication is engaging in Grassroots Lobbying on their own behalf.

(2) A person who engages in Grassroots Lobbying on their own behalf acting as their own Designated Lobbyist is the Principal Lobbyist but is not required to list themselves as an Individual Lobbyist unless such person also engages in Direct Lobbying.

(d) Grassroots Lobbying and the Lobbying Organization

(1) An organization engages in Grassroots Lobbying on its own behalf when a Grassroots Lobbying Communication is issued by the organization, including when an employee or Designated Lobbyist of the organization delivers a Grassroots Lobbying Communication at the direction of the organization.

   For example, an organization that includes a Grassroots Lobbying Communication on its website is engaging in Grassroots Lobbying on its own behalf.

   An organization that issues a press release on its own letterhead that includes a Grassroots Lobbying Communication is engaging in Grassroots Lobbying on its own behalf.

(2) Employed and Designated Lobbyists are not required to be listed as Individual Lobbyists by organizations based on Grassroots Lobbying.

(3) Expenses incurred by an organization acting as its own Grassroots Lobbyist shall be attributable to such organization.
(e) Grassroots Lobbying and the Retained Lobbyist.

(1) A Retained Lobbyist’s activities on behalf of a Client constitute Grassroots Lobbying and an Individual Lobbyist must be listed on lobbying reports if the Retained Lobbyist delivers a Grassroots Lobbying Communication and can be identified as speaking for, representing, or endorsing the position of the Client.

(i) A person is not required to be identified as an Individual Lobbyist solely by being included as a contact person on a Client’s Grassroots Lobbying Communication on Client letterhead.

(ii) For example, the owner of a billboard is not speaking for, representing, or endorsing the position taken by the Client that has rented space on the billboard.

However, an individual who is paid to speak on behalf of a Client and delivers a Grassroots Lobbying Communication should be identified as an Individual Lobbyist.

(f) Grassroots Lobbying through Social Media.

(1) A Social Media communication constitutes a Grassroots Lobbying Communication when it satisfies the criteria set forth in subpart 943.7(b)(2).

(2) Attribution of Social Media activities and expenses to Principal Lobbyists.

(i) When Grassroots Lobbying through a Social Media communication is undertaken by an organization, through the organization’s Social Media account(s), this activity is reportable Lobbying Activity by the organization.

(a) No Individual Lobbyists are required to be listed on lobbying filings based on this activity alone.

(ii) When Grassroots Lobbying through a Social Media communication is undertaken by an individual, through their personal social media account(s), this activity is not reportable Lobbying Activity unless such individual is specifically retained by a Client for such Social Media activity.

(a) In this case, the individual should register as a Lobbyist on behalf of the paying Client, listing themselves as an Individual Lobbyist.

(b) Any expenses incurred to create, promote, place or otherwise highlight an individual’s personal Social Media activity that are reportable pursuant to subparagraph (ii) above, are reportable by the party incurring the expenses.

(iii) Reportable expenses attributable to an organization’s or individual’s Grassroots Lobbying via Social Media may include, but are not limited to: consulting services, sponsoring posts, staff time allocated to planning and posting, search engine optimization and sponsoring, and advertising.

(iv) A reasonable methodology used in good faith to calculate lobbying expenses related to Grassroots Lobbying via Social Media is acceptable.

(g) General Grassroots Lobbying Examples.

(1) Any of the following could involve Grassroots Lobbying, as defined herein, if the required elements of a Grassroots Lobbying Communication are otherwise present:

(i) Rallies;

(ii) Billboards;

(iii) Print media advertisements;

(iv) Websites;

(v) Social Media communications;

(vi) Television and radio commercials;
(vii) Letter writing campaigns; or

(viii) Personal requests by a Lobbyist for another person to contact a Public Official.

(2) The following functions or roles, standing alone, would not constitute Grassroots Lobbying:

(i) Owners of billboards or signs;

(ii) Copy editing;

(iii) Advertisement writers;

(iv) Storyboard artists;

(v) Film crews;

(vi) Photographers;

(vii) Video editors;

(viii) Website managers, hosts, or internet service providers;

(ix) Media outlets or broadcasters;

(x) Media buyers or placement agents;

(xi) Delivery services; or

(xii) Secretaries, clerical, and ministerial staff.
943.8 Procurement Lobbying

(i) A Public Official, or a person or entity working with a Public Official; or

(ii) An officer or employee of the Unified Court System, or a person or entity working with an officer or employee of the Unified Court System.

(2) Procurement Contract means a contract or other agreement, including an amendment, extension, renewal, or change order to an existing contract (other than amendments, extensions, renewals, or change orders that are authorized and payable under the terms of the contract as it was finally awarded or approved by the comptroller, as applicable), for an Article of Procurement involving an estimated annualized expenditure of more than $15,000, but does not include:

(i) Grants;

(ii) Article XI-B State Finance Law contracts;

(j) Required Contents of a Statement of Registration.

Every Statement of Registration filed shall include the following:

Note: When a Lobbying contract or agreement exists, a Lobbyist may either submit such contract/agreement with a Statement of Registration or use the Lobbying Agreement form provided by the Commission; in such a case, however, a Lobbyist may not submit a written authorization in lieu of the contract/agreement.

(8) The level of government expected to be lobbied which shall indicate whether the expected Lobbying will be State lobbying, local Lobbying or both;

(9) The identities of any Co-Lobbyists or Sub-Lobbyists, as described in subsection 943.9(h), if applicable; and

(10) Any Reportable Business Relationships in accordance with and as defined in section 943.14.

(k) Amendments to Lobbyist Statement of Registration.

   (1) Except as provided in subsection 943.10(k)(3), any change – permanent or temporary – to the terms of an agreement or authorization for Lobbying requires an amended Lobbyist Statement of Registration form, which must be completed and filed with the Commission within 10 days of such change. (l) Termination of Lobbying Agreement/Authorization.

(1) If a Lobbying agreement or authorization terminates on the date specified in the agreement or authorization, then neither the Lobbyist or the Client must notify the Commission in writing of such termination. Likewise, if the termination takes effect at the end of the biennial registration cycle, written notification of termination is not required. However, if the agreement or authorization is terminated before the termination date, both the Lobbyist and the Client must notify the Commission in writing within 30 days after the Lobbyist ceases Lobbying Activity.
(m) Withdrawals.

(1) A Lobbyist may request that a Statement of Registration be withdrawn, provided the request is made consistent with and meets the criteria set forth in procedures implemented by the Commission.

(2) A Statement of Registration that has been withdrawn pursuant to this subpart is not considered information provided by a Lobbyist under Section 1-s of the Lobbying Act.

943.11 Lobbyist Bi-Monthly Reports

(a) Purpose. Lobbyist Bi-Monthly Reports record all actual Lobbying Activity during the relevant filing period.

(b) Any Lobbyist required to file a Statement of Registration for a Client for any biennial period must also file Bi-Monthly Reports in accordance with this section, regardless of Compensation, Expenses, or Lobbying Activity.

(c) Due date.

(1) Lobbyists must file a Bi-Monthly Report by the 15th of the month following the end of the bi-monthly reporting period in which the Lobbyist was first required to register. A schedule of the bi-monthly reporting periods is set forth below:

(i) January/February, Due March 15th

(ii) March/April, Due May 15th

(iii) May/June, Due July 15th

(iv) July/August, Due September 15th

(v) September/October, Due November 15th

(vi) November/December, Due January 15th
(2) All reports must be received by the Commission on or before the due date.

(3) If a report is due on a weekend or a State holiday, it must be received by the Commission on the first business day following the weekend or State holiday.

(d) Any Bi-Monthly Report that is not timely filed will be subject to the late fee schedule set forth below:

A Lobbyist is considered a First-Time Filer only when the Lobbyist is required to file a Bi-Monthly Report for the first time. First-Time Filer status applies to the first Bi-Monthly Report received by the Commission from such Lobbyist and any other Reports received from such Lobbyist on that same day.

(e) Filing Fee. There is no filing fee for a Lobbyist Bi-Monthly Report.

(f) Contents. All Bi-Monthly Reports must include the following information to the maximum extent practicable:
(1) The name, address, e-mail address, and telephone number of the Principal Lobbyist;

(2) The names of all Individual Lobbyists who personally engaged in Lobbying Activity during the filing period;

(3) The name, address, e-mail address, and contact information of all Contractual and Beneficial Clients

   (i) If the Report relates to Lobbying on behalf of a Structured Coalition or a Member of an Unstructured Coalition, the Client information for Contractual and Beneficial Clients shall be governed by the rules set forth in Section 943.9(h)(3)(iv) and (v);

(4) The identities of any Co-Lobbyists or Sub-Lobbyists, as described in subsection 943.9(h), if applicable;

(5) The subject matter(s) on which Lobbying occurred; and

(6) The governmental action that the Lobbyist Attempted to Influence which shall include the following, as applicable:

   (i) The bill, rule, regulation, or rate number, if available, on which Lobbying occurred;

   (ii) The title and identifying numbers of Procurement Contracts/documents on which Lobbying occurred;

   (iii) The number or subject matter of an Executive Order of the Governor or Municipality on which Lobbying occurred;

   (iv) The subject matter of and tribes involved in tribal-state compacts on which Lobbying occurred; and/or

   (v) In the event Lobbying is conducted in order to influence the introduction, intended introduction, or issuance of State legislation or a State resolution, a brief description of such activity.
The name of the person, organization, or legislative body before which the Lobbyist has lobbied:

(i) In the case of Direct Lobbying, the name of the Public Official or Public Official’s office or the legislative committee, as applicable, with whom the Lobbyist engaged in direct communication;

For example, if a Lobbyist lobbies a Senator on one occasion and also sends out memos in support of a bill to all members of a legislative committee of which the Senator is a part, such Lobbyist would disclose the Senator’s name and the name of the legislative committee.

If a Lobbyist meets with the Commissioner of Taxation and Finance as well as a staff member of the Office of Real Property Tax Services, such Lobbyist would disclose the Commissioner’s title and agency and disclose that they met with a staff member of the named unit or department within the agency (the Office of Real Property Tax Services).

(ii) In the case of Grassroots Lobbying, the intended target of the Lobbying Activity, which may be a person, State Agency, Municipality or legislative body.

All reportable Lobbying Compensation and Expenses (as defined in section 943.9) paid or owed by the Client for the current period only.

(i) Any reportable Compensation and Expenses incurred by a Lobbying Organization must be included in the Bi-Monthly Report, regardless of whether the Lobbying Organization also files a Client Semi-Annual Report.

If the first required Bi-Monthly Report filed by a Lobbyist for a calendar year is not the Report covering the January-February period (due March 15), the Report should disclose all Lobbying Activities engaged in, Compensation received, and expenditures incurred during the year up to and including the period covered by the Report.

For example: if a Lobbyist does not anticipate receiving $5,000 in Compensation and Expenses before the start of the calendar year, but does exceed $5,000 on April 15, the first required Bi-Monthly Report is the Report due May 15, covering the March- April Bi-Monthly Period. The March-April Report should thus include all Lobbying Activity, Compensation, and Expenses for the calendar year, from January 1 until the end of the March-April Bi-Monthly Period, i.e., April 30.

(h) Public Corporations. Notwithstanding the provisions in this section, a Public Corporation that is required to file a Statement of Registration under section 1-e of the Lobbying Act must also include information pertaining to the Activity, Compensation and Expenses for any Retained Lobbyists in the Bi-Monthly Report.

(i) Withdrawals.

(1) A Lobbyist may request that a Bi-monthly Report be withdrawn, provided the request is made consistent with and meets the criteria set forth in procedures implemented by the Commission.

(2) A Bi-monthly Report that has been withdrawn pursuant to this subpart is not consid ered information provided by a Lobbyist under Section 1-s of the Lobbying Act.

(j) A Lobbyist has a duty to amend a Bi-Monthly Report after a change to the information filed, including when a previously reported payment is written down, written off, or otherwise modified for bookkeeping purpose. However, after the termination of the Agreement, any decision by a Lobbyist to write down, write off, or otherwise modify a previously reported payment does not require an Amended Bi-Monthly Report.

943.12 Client Semi-Annual Report

(a) Reporting Periods and Due Dates. The two reporting periods for Client Semi-Annual Reports are as follows:

(1) January 1 – June 30, for which the Report is due by July 15th; and

(2) July 1 – December 31, for which the Report is due by January 15th.
(b) Late Fees and Penalties. Failure to file a Client Semi-Annual Report in a timely manner as required by this section subjects the Client to civil penalties as prescribed by section 1-o(b)(i) of the Lobbying Act and/or late fees as prescribed in section 1-j(c)(iii) of the Lobbying Act. In addition, the submission of false filings subjects the Lobbyist or Client to a civil penalty as prescribed by section 1-o(b)(ii) of the Lobbying Act.

Any Client Semi-Annual Report that is not timely filed will be subject to the late fee schedule set forth below:

<table>

<td>181 days and more</td>
<td>$1,000 flat late fee</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

A Client is considered a First-Time Filer only when the Client is required to file a Client Semi-Annual Report for the first time.

(c) Filing Fee. Each Client Semi-Annual Report must be accompanied by a $50 non-refundable filing fee (payable in US dollars). No additional filing fee is required for amended Client Semi-Annual Reports provided an original fee is on file for that period.
(d) When Required.

(1) A Client Semi-Annual Report must be filed by any Client retaining, employing or designating a Lobbyist or Lobbyists, whether or not any such Lobbyist was required to file a Statement of Registration or Bi-Monthly Report, if it is reasonably anticipated that during the year an amount in excess of $5,000 in combined Reportable Compensation and Expenses for Lobbying will be expended or incurred.

   N If a Client is required to file a Client Semi-Annual Report solely by virtue of its status as a Lobbying Organization, i.e., through its use of Employed or Designated Lobbyists, and the Client has filed Lobbyist Bi-Monthly Reports for the bi-monthly reporting periods that fall in the same Client semi-annual reporting period, then no Client Semi-Annual Report is required, other than source of funding disclosures prescribed by Part 938 of this Title and section 1-j(c)(4) of the Lobbying Act.

(2) If the $5,000 reporting threshold is exceeded in the January/June period, then a July/December Client Semi-Annual Report must be filed even if no further monies are expended, unless the written agreement or authorization with the Client’s Lobbyist is terminated on or before June 30th.

(3) If a January/June Client Semi-Annual Report is filed and the $5,000 reporting threshold has not been met for the year, then a July/December Client Semi-Annual Report is not required.

(e) Responsible Party. The Responsible Party of the Client or another duly designated and reported to the Commission (prior to the due date for such Report) is responsible for signing and filing all Client reports. Any such designation must be signed by the Responsible Party and Designee.

(f) Contents of a Client Semi-Annual Report. A Client Semi-Annual Report must include the following information:

   (1) The type of Lobbying which shall indicate whether the Lobbying involved non-procurement Lobbying, Procurement Lobbying or both;
(2) The Client Information which shall include the Client’s name, address, e-mail address, and business and fax numbers

(i) If the Report relates to Lobbying on behalf of a Structured Coalition or a Member of an Unstructured Coalition, the Client information for Contractual and Beneficial Clients shall be governed by the rules set forth in Section 943.9(h)(3)(iv) and (v);

(3) The Lobbyist Information which shall include the type of Lobbyist, level of government lobbying (State and/or local), Lobbyist name and address;

(4) All Reportable Expenses (as defined in section 943.9) expended, received or incurred for Lobbying for the current period only;

(5) All Reportable Lobbying Compensation (as defined in section 943.9) paid or owed to Lobbyists, including Retained Lobbyists, Employed Lobbyists, and Designated Lobbyists, for the current period only;

(6) The identities of any Co-Lobbyists or Sub-Lobbyists as described in subsection 943.9(h), if applicable;

(7) The subject matter(s) on which Lobbying occurred;

(8) The governmental action that the Client or the Client’s Lobbyist Attempted to Influence which shall include the following, as applicable:

(i) The bill, rule, regulation, or rate number, if available, on which Lobbying occurred;

   (i) In the case of Direct Lobbying, the name of the Public Official or Public Official’s office or the legislative committee, as applicable, with whom the Client or Client’s Lobbyist engaged in direct communication;

   (ii) In the case of Grassroots Lobbying, the intended target of the Lobbying Activity, which may be a person, State Agency, Municipality or legislative body;

(10) Any Reportable Business Relationships in accordance with and as defined in section 943.14, provided, however, Clients who Lobby on their own behalf need only report such relationships in their Lobbyist Statement of Registration; and

(11) Any Sources of Funding, if applicable, in accordance with Part 938 of this Title.

(g) Public Corporations. Notwithstanding the provisions of this section, a Public Corporation that is required to file a Statement of Registration under section 1-e of the Lobbying Act is required to file Bi-Monthly Reports that disclose information on any Retained Lobbyists; as a result, the Public Corporation is not required to file a Client Semi-Annual Report.

(h) Withdrawals.

   (1) A Client may request that a Semi-annual Report be withdrawn, provided the request is made consistent with and meets the criteria set forth in procedures implemented by the Commission.
(2) A Semi-Annual Report that has been withdrawn pursuant to this subpart is not considered information provided by a Lobbyist under Section 1-s of the Lobbying Act.

(i) A Client has a duty to amend a Semi-Annual Report after a change to the information filed, including when a previously reported payment is written down, written off, or otherwise modified for bookkeeping purposes. However, after the termination of the Agreement, any decision by a Lobbyist to write down, write off, or otherwise modify a previously reported payment does not require an Amended Semi-Annual Report.

(b) Required Filers. A Disbursement of Public Monies Report is only required of a Lobbyist who is otherwise already required to file a Statement of Registration and who in any calendar year reasonably anticipates that they will expend, incur or receive combined Reportable Compensation and Expenses in an amount in excess of $5,000 in connection with any Attempts to Influence a determination by a Public Official, or by a person or entity working in cooperation with a Public Official, with respect to the solicitation, award or administration of a grant, loan or agreement involving the disbursement of Public Monies in excess of $15,000.

(c) Threshold for Filing. Disbursement of Public Monies Reports are only required if Attempts to Influence the disbursement have occurred during the relevant filing period.

(d) Due Dates. Disbursement of Public Monies Reports are to be filed bi-monthly in accordance with the same schedule applicable to the filing of Bi-Monthly Reports provided in section 943.11.

(e) Filing Fee. There is no filing fee for a Disbursement of Public Monies Report.

(f) Contents. Each Disbursement of Public Monies Report must include:
(1) the name, address, e-mail address, and telephone number of the Lobbyist and the individuals employed by the Lobbyist engaged in such Public Monies Lobbying Activities;

(2) A Disbursement of Public Monies Report that has been withdrawn pursuant to this subpart is not considered information provided by a Lobbyist under Section 1-s of the Lobbying Act.
(h) A Lobbyist has a duty to amend a Disbursement of Public Monies Report after a change to the information filed, including when a previously reported payment is written down, written off, or otherwise modified for bookkeeping purposes.

943.14 Reportable Business Relationships

(a) Purpose. Disclosure of business relationships between Lobbyists or Clients of Lobbyists and State Persons will increase transparency in government.

(b) Definitions.

(1) Client includes every person or organization that retains, employs or designates any person or organization to carry on Lobbying Activities on behalf of such Client. With respect to an organization, the term Client also includes High-Level Individuals of the organization. Client includes Contractual Clients and Beneficial Clients.

(2) Compensation means any salary, fee, gift, payment, benefit, loan, advance or any other thing of value. (7) Reason to know means a Lobbyist or Client has reason to know that an individual is a State Person or that a State Person has the Requisite Involvement with an entity because a reasonable person, based on the totality of the facts and circumstances, would conclude that the Lobbyist or Client should know such fact. The following factors may be considered to determine whether a Lobbyist or Client had reason to know:

   (i) Origins of the relationship between the parties;

   (ii) Length of such relationship;

   (iii) The type and actual value of the goods, services or items provided; and/or

   (iv) Whether the fact that the individual is a State Person or the Requisite Involvement of the State Person with the entity at issue is generally known to the public.

A Lobbyist or Client will be deemed to have had reason to know if such lack of knowledge results from willfully ignoring information that would lead a reasonable person to (i) conclude that the individual was a State Person, or that a State Person had the Requisite Involvement, or, (ii) undertake further research to determine whether either fact exists.

(8) Reportable Business Relationship means a relationship that meets all the criteria listed in Part 943.14(c)(1).

(c) Disclosing a Reportable Business Relationship.

(1) Elements of a Reportable Business Relationship.

A business relationship must be reported, regardless of when the relationship commenced, if at any time during a Calendar Year, all of the following criteria are met:
A formal or informal agreement or understanding exists in which a Lobbyist or Client of a Lobbyist pays, has paid or promises Compensation to:

(a) An individual whom the Lobbyist or Client knows or has Reason to Know is a State Person;

(b) A non-governmental entity for which the Lobbyist or Client knows or has Reason to Know that the State Person has the Requisite Involvement; or

The payment or promise of Compensation is or was in exchange for goods, services, or anything of value either Performed or Provided or Intended to be Performed or Provided by the State Person or an entity in which the State Person has the Requisite Involvement; and

The total value of the Compensation paid to the State Person or an entity in which the State Person has the Requisite Involvement, which must be aggregated if applicable in accordance with subsection 943.14(c)(2), exceeds $1,000 within a Calendar Year. Such threshold is met once more than $1000 in Compensation is:

(a) Paid or owed to such State Person or entity for services Performed or Provided or Intended to be Performed or Provided.

Aggregation of Compensation.

If a Lobbyist or Client has multiple business relationships with the same State Person, the same entity or entities in which a State Person has the Requisite Involvement, then the value of the Compensation paid for goods, services or anything of value relating to such relationships must be aggregated. If the aggregated value of such Compensation is more than $1,000 within a Calendar Year, then each relationship is a Reportable Business Relationship assuming all other criteria are satisfied.
(3) How and When to Report.

Once a Reportable Business Relationship exists a Lobbyist or Client must complete a Reportable Business Relationship Form and submit it to the Commission within 10 days of the Reportable Business Relationship’s existence. For ongoing Reportable Business Relationships, Lobbyists and Clients must disclose on their Reportable Business Relationship Form all Calendar Years in which the Reportable Business Relationship is in existence.

(4) Reportable Business Relationship Form Considered Part of Filing.

In accordance with sections 1-e and 1-j of the Lobbying Act, which requires Lobbyists and Clients to disclose Reportable Business Relationships within their respective filings, a Reportable Business Relationship Form shall be considered a part of the Lobbyist’s Statement of Registration or the Client’s Semi-Annual Report, as applicable. Certain entities file both Lobbyist Statements of Registration and Client Semi-Annual Reports as they are considered both a Lobbyist and Client. These entities shall only be required to file the Lobbyist Reportable Business Relationship Form to comply with the filing requirement.

(5) Information Required in a Reportable Business Relationship Form.

For each Reportable Business Relationship, a Lobbyist or Client must provide the following information within the Reportable Business Relationship Form:
