APPLICATION REQUESTING AN EXEMPTION FROM FILING A FINANCIAL DISCLOSURE STATEMENT

Instructions for State officers and employees (non-Academic filers)

- ✓ Make sure your official agency job description or Civil Service job description is attached. A performance evaluation will not suffice.
- ✓ Forward a copy of this form to your agency's Ethics Officer and indicate on the application the Ethics Officers name, email and date you provided to your agency Ethics Officer.
- ✓ Note that effective April 1, 2024, the filing rate is $111,897.
- ✓ An exemption request must be post-marked no later than May 15, 2024 for this Financial Disclosure Statement. Individuals commencing State service after May 15, 2024 or who receive a job title change or a salary increase which exceeds the filing rate may apply for an exemption within 30 days of such event.
- ✓ You are not eligible to apply for an exemption if you have been designated a policymaker by your appointing authority.
- ✓ If you have been previously denied an exemption while serving in your current job title/agency, you must include new supporting documentation of changed circumstances.

You need not apply if:

- You previously received an exemption and are in the same title/agency;
- You are currently serving in an exempt title.
- ★ You may also apply electronically by logging-in to your online account at <https://ethics.ny.gov>. Please be sure to upload your official agency job description or most recent performance evaluation.

Instructions for Academic Employees of SUNY and CUNY

- ✓ An academic employee must submit a recent annual report or a self-prepared written description of duties, either of which must include whether or not the individual is involved in:
 - Purchasing or contracting activities;
 - Administrative duties such as chair or director of a department or program; and
 - Whether he/she receives externally funded grants.
- ✓ Academic employees of SUNY and CUNY are not required to file a copy of the exemption form with their campus.
- ✓ For academic filers, an exemption request must be post-marked no later than November 15, 2024 for this Financial Disclosure Statement.
- ✓ You need not apply if:
 - You previously received an exemption and you have the same academic title and duties, and you are not engaged in externally funded grant activities.
- You must re-apply if:
 - You received an exemption and have since been engaged in grant activities, have been serving as a department chair, or have been involved in purchasing or contracting activities.
- ★ You may also apply electronically by logging-in to your online account at <https://ethics.ny.gov>. Please be sure to upload either a recent annual report or a self-prepared written description of duties.

The Commission, at its discretion, may grant the exemption if (1) the public interest does not require disclosure and (2) the individual's official duties do not involve:

- the negotiation, authorization, or approval of contracts, leases, franchises, revocable consents, concessions, variances, special permits, or licenses as defined in Section 73 of the Public Officers Law;
- the purchase, sale, rental or lease of real property, goods or services, or a contract therefor;
- the obtaining of grants of money or loans; or
- the adoption or repeal of any rule or regulation having the force and effect of law.
